

Red Bandana Only Clue

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A common red bandana was the only clue police had Tuesday to the bandit slayer of U.S. Point Four official Dr. Ralph B. Swain of Benton, Ill. He was killed 150 miles southeast of here Saturday as he drove with his family on the Pan American Highway.

Police believed the bandana, found near the scene of the crime, was worn by the killer as he pumped seven shots into Swain. Pushing a vast manhunt throughout the entire state of Puebla, where the murder occurred, authorities threw in an extra battalion of infantrymen to reinforce some 2,000 soldiers and police already searching for the slayer.

Admitted Setter Of Fires Denies Moses Lake Work

MOSES LAKE, Wash. (AP) — A young farmer was charged Tuesday with setting three fires at his parents' home last week but authorities said the man denied any knowledge of previous blazes that caused more than $300,000 damage to business buildings.

Hundreds of men have been arrested and questioned but none has been identified as having anything to do with the attempted holdup, in which Swain was mowed down before the eyes of Mrs. Swain and their two sons, 12 and 13. The Swains were returning from a Mexican vacation to his post at Managua, Nicaragua.

Dale Abbs, 21, was charged on two counts of second degree arson and was held in jail at Ephrata in lieu of $2,000 bond.

GRUENTHER TO VISIT U.S. PARIS (AP) — Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, supreme Allied commander in Western Europe, will fly to New York to speak at the annual Alfred E. Smith memorial dinner on Thursday. He will leave here Wednesday, and will spend two days in Washington before returning here.

The prosecutor said the statement related that Dale set a fire Sept. 28 that destroyed 20 tons of hay at his father's farm home just outside Moses Lake, and that he set two blazes Sept. 30 that caused minor damage to a granary and to a bedroom at the parents' home.

The student editors declared the "The people have a lower standard than we do but they are well adjusted to it, not only in Moscow but all over," said 23-year-old Zander Hollander of Brooklyn, former feature editor of the University of Michigan daily.

Campbell said Dale Abbs' statement explained that his wife had no knowledge of his setting the fires.

His companion, 23-year-old Mark Emmond of Boulder, Colo., agreed. The two travelled with Daniel Berger, 21, of Great Neck, N. Y., under special visas granted them as college newspaper editors by the Russian six weeks ago. Berger stayed over in Leningrad an extra day while Hollander and Emmond travelled by train, arriving in the Russian sector of Berlin Tuesday afternoon on the famed "Blue Express."

'No Anti-Soviet Underground Exists In Russia'

BERLIN (AP) — Two American students who returned Thursday from a two-week tour of Russia warned against "wishful thinking" about any anti-Soviet underground existing in Russia.

Only Eggs, Hogs, Apples Higher

The September 15 Oregon Farm Prices Report just received indicates only three Oregon farm products are above last years prices, according to C. A. Henderson, county extension agent.

The report shows eggs 7 per cent higher than last year, hogs 16 per cent higher and apples up 24 per cent.

Among other commodities popular in the Klamath basin, the list shows potatoes selling at only 43 per cent of last years price, alsike clover 87 per cent; calves 63 per cent; milk cows 67 per cent; hay 72 per cent; barley 73 per cent; beef cattle 70 per cent; rye 74 per cent and red clover 73 per cent.

Soviet population appears "happy" with its lot. Hollander added: "Yes, there may be some discontent here and there but is not of the kind that any foreign power can put to any use."
