

Log Trucks Figure In 2 Fatalities

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Logging trucks figured in two highway smashups in Oregon Wednesday. One man was found dead in the wreckage at each of the scenes. Fifteen others were injured.

The most spectacular occurred on the South Santiam Highway, 15 miles east of Sweet Home, where a logging truck bowled a Pacific Trailways bus off the highway. The truck driver, Harold Sharp, 27, Brownsville, Ore., was found dead after the logs on his truck broke loose and crushed the truck cab.

The bus driver and 12 passengers were injured. Some of them were of the opinion that the truck driver was dead even before the collision. They said they saw his head back on the seat, his mouth hanging open, just before the crash at a slight curve. They thought he might have suffered a heart attack.

The other collision was on a road 25 miles east of Roseburg. In that one a passenger car was knocked off the road. The logs from the truck broke loose in that crash also, and spilled atop the car, killing Jasper James Palouse, 60, a resident of the Little River area where the crash occurred.

Injured in that collision were Mr. and Mrs. George Vincent of the same area. They were taken to a hospital at Roseburg. The truck driver escaped injury.

A mechanic who examined the wreckage at the Santiam crash said he found the truck's steering arm broken. He added there was no way of determining whether it broke in the collision or before.

It is supposed before the driver's head could have been back on the seat from his efforts to turn the truck and apply brakes, the mechanic said.

An autopsy was scheduled at Lebanon Thursday.

The Trailways bus was headed east toward Salt Lake City when the crash came. The most seriously hurt of the passengers were taken to the Langmack Hospital at Sweet Home.

They were Mrs. Elsie Wales of Albion, Iowa; Mrs. Arthur Ramsey, Empire, Ore.; Mrs. William H. Belton, Pocatello, Idaho; and Mrs. Beulah May Thompson, Salem.

The bus driver, Wayne Cook, 26, Eugene, was treated at a hospital, then released.

Others hospitalized: C. M. Donovan, 93, Lebanon; Mrs. Martha Glass, Eugene; Mrs. John Newton Morris, Jefferson; Beatrice McGuire, 12, Lebanon; Mrs. Winifred U. Foster, Salem. All were at the Langmack Hospital in Sweet Home.

Taken to the Lebanon Hospital were Mrs. McKinley Stauffie, Bend, and John Downey, Bend. Sharp is survived by a widow and two young children at Brownsville; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sharp, Healdsburg, Calif., and two sisters. Funeral services are scheduled in Brownsville Monday.

LECTURER George E. Caraker, authority on world affairs, and recently returned from a visit behind the iron curtain in Russian territory and East Germany, is currently in Klamath Falls following a series of talks in Portland and other valley cities. On his way to a tour of the southern states, Caraker plans a short stay in Klamath Falls and will be available for lectures. He is registered at the Stevens hotel.

Baby-Sitter Beaten After Wooing Fails

By OTTO ELLIS
A telephone call at 8:45 p.m. Tuesday sent Oregon State Police to the home of Mrs. W. M. Adams, 2748 Bisbee, who reported a 14-year-old girl had been attacked and beaten about the head with a piece of pipe.

Arriving at the home, officers rendered first aid to the girl who was bleeding freely from wounds on the scalp. While awaiting arrival of an ambulance the girl told the following story to the officers:

In an effort to make some spending money she and a girl friend had placed an ad in the Herald and News desiring baby-sitting jobs.

At about 7:30 that evening a phone call was received from a man who gave his name as Clark, asking whether she would baby-sit for him while he and his wife went out for the evening. He was informed she would take the job.

The 14-year-old girl and her girl friend then flipped a coin to see which one would tend the youngsters. The 14-year-old won.

Shortly thereafter a car drove into the driveway and the girl got in. She described the car as a dark colored sedan, quite old.

After driving south about three miles they stopped and the man informed her that he lived in a house in the rear but as the lights were out his wife must have taken the children to relatives at Midland and they would have to go there.

The girl stated they drove on past the airport and were riding on a dirt road when the man started moaning her. Resisting the advances, he drove farther down the road, stopped and became rough.

After hitting him off again, the girl said the man remarked he thought he had a flat tire on the car and walked to the rear, returning almost immediately. Re-entering the car he resumed his amorous attacks and when resisted again, he reached in the back seat and picked up what the girl believed to be a piece of pipe and struck her over the head several times.

Clark became frightened when she started to bleed profusely and got a cloth and jug of water from the rear of the car and made her get out and wash herself, stating he didn't want to get blood all over his car.

After washing he forced her back into the car and drove her home informing her on the way that she should be more careful who she went out with. Stopping at the Bisbee Street house he gave her a dollar bill and let her go.

The man is described as about 35, small and poorly dressed. The girl states she informed her he drove a truck in the spuds and that his truck was at the time in a garage for repairs.

Following the investigation Sergeant Tichenor of the Oregon State Police made an appeal to parents of baby sitters.

"We as law enforcement officers feel that parents whose daughters do baby sitting, should be sure that the people asking for this service are well known to them or that they are highly recommended by a close friend. It is felt that advertising services of this nature could lead to very serious consequences as it did in the case of this 14-year-old girl who is still at Klamath Valley Hospital in serious condition."

Merrill Council Actions Listed

MERRILL—A delegation of residents living outside the city limits west of Merrill attended Thursday's meeting of the City Council to see what could be done about piping city water to their area.

After discussion, it was decided to install individual meters for each property owner, cost to be met by the owners with the city paying installation charges.

Mayor Robert Walker reported that he and Councilman L. E. Stewart had attended a meeting of the state highway commission in Portland. The county road department will start soon grading and building up city streets in preparation for hard surfacing next Spring.

Final action of the City Council was the granting of a building permit for $500 to the Merrill Lumber Company for remodeling the front and side of their store building.

Visitors attending the meeting were J. P. Burke, Fred Flegl, Besse Greenmeyer, I. G. Johnson, Charles Kunitz and Al Hoffman.

Lakeview Boy Dies in Pool

LAKEVIEW, Ore.—Paul Victor Silzony, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Silzony, of Lakeview, was accidentally drowned Monday evening when he apparently fell into the swimming pool at Hunter's Lodge two miles north of town.

A physician and a crew of the Lake County disaster unit worked with the rescuer for an hour and 45 minutes. Members of the disaster unit crew, who were called at 6:15 p.m., were Buck Elliott, Bob Howard, Al Getty and Dean North. They were assisted by Mrs. P. D. McDougal and Hugh Mercer.

Coroner Everett Osterman, Sheriff Tommy Elliott and District Attorney Robert Welch were called to the scene. Welch reported that Ralph Miller, owner of an apartment in the lodge property, at Hunter's Lodge at 6 p.m. He told officers he saw his own 4-year-old son and Paul playing in the area behind the lodge. He went up to his apartment and within a few minutes his son came up and told him that Paul had fallen into the pool.

Miller hurried to the pool and saw Paul on the bottom at the deep end. He leaped into the pool and got the boy. Artificial respiration was started at once, and the doctor and the disaster car were called.

Mr. and Mrs. Silzony and family had been occupants of an apartment at Hunter's for 3 1/2 years, and on the day of the tragedy were moving to Lakeview.

Langell Valley Booster Night

Booster Night will be held by Langell Valley Grange members at the Grange Hall, Tuesday, Oct. 13, starting with potluck supper at 7:30.

A program will follow under the direction of Florence Baldock, program chairman.

Langell Valley Grange will be hosts and everyone is welcome.

Morgan Acting As Own Lawyer

Troy M. Morgan, Klamath Falls railroad worker, accused of firing two shots at an irate motorist, was acting as his own attorney Thursday at a jury trial in District Judge D. E. Van Vactor's court.

Charges were filed against Morgan two weeks ago after an altercation with Albert E. Lavier, a mill worker, is alleged to have ended in gunplay.

Lavier told Deputy District Attorney Joe Thilhofer that his car and one driven by Morgan brushed fenders on South Sixth Street. Lavier said he followed Morgan to the railroad worker's home. An argument followed and Lavier claims Morgan fired two shots at him.

Morgan is charged with failing to stop at the scene of an accident and disorderly conduct.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK

CHICAGO (AP)—Butcher weight hogs sold another 25 to 5 cents a hundred pounds lower Thursday while hogs lost $1.00 to $2.00. These declines extended losses for the week to $2.00 to $3.00 a hundredweight.

Cattle were steady to weak mostly although cows sometimes were as much as 50 cents lower. Sheep were generally steady.

Most butcher weight hogs sold from $19.00 to $21.35, only a few lots a merling up to $21.40. Sows took $19.00 to $21.00. Good to prime steers took $19.00 to $28.25 and choice to low-prime heifers $21.50 to $24.75. Cows topped at $13.00.

Lambs grading good to prime were worth $17.00 to $19.00 while hogs sold downward from $2.25 to $2.50. Receipts were estimated at 8,500 hogs, 3,000 cattle, 300 calves and 1,500 sheep.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK

PORTLAND (AP)—(USDA)—Cattle salable 200; cows fairly active, fully steady; other classes rather slow but mostly steady; few good 1,200 lb steers 18.25; good 800 lb 21.00; utility and low commercial grass steers 12.50-15.00; utility and commercial heifers 11.00-15.00; canner and culler cows 7.00-8.50 utility cows 9.50-11.50; commercial grades 12.50; utility bulls 11.00-13.00.

Calves salable 50; good and choice vealers steady at 17.00-19.00; heavy calves slow; few sales 1.00 or more below Monday at 14.00 down.

Hogs salable 300; market uneven, generally around 15 lower; choice 180 - 235 lbs 24.75 - mostly 25.00; few choice 1 lots 25.50 with 1 lot 25.65; low choice light sows 22.00 with heavy weights sorted out at 19.00.

Sheep salable 500; market about steady; good and choice woolled lambs 18.00-17.00; few lots, mostly choice grades 17.50; few good feeders 13.00-13.50; sizeable lot fleshy ewes on feeder accounts 3.00-5.00; choice slaughter ewes quotable to 5.50.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO (AP)—An erratic market with numerous up and down swings, none of which got very far, featured dealings in grains on the board of trade Thursday.

On the dips soybeans went down most, particularly after a government crop report boosting estimated cotton production with a month ago. This will mean more cottonseed oil to compete with soybean oil, traders reasoned.

On the advances wheat went highest, stimulated by a little expansion in sales of spring wheat flour and continued dry weather in the Southwest. Corn was a little lower most of the day but out after an early dip, had a steady time.

Wheat closed 1/4 lower to 1 cent higher, Dec 1.91 1/4-1/2, corn 1/2 lower, Dec 1.43 1/2-1/4, oats 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, Dec 75 1/4-1/2, rye 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, Dec 1.13 1/4-1/2, soybeans 1/4-1/2 lower, Nov 2.62 1/2, and lard 3 cents lower to 75 cents a hundred pounds higher, Oct 16.50.

POTATOES

CHICAGO (AP)—Potatoes. Arrivals 118, on track 38; total U. S. shipments 647; about steady; Idaho Russets $3.70-90; Minnesota-North Dakota Pontiacs $1.90-2.10; Washington Russets $3.60-90; bakers $4.65; Wisconsin Russet Sebagoes $1.90.

Judge Studies Dawn's Case

After listening to 45 minutes of argument, Judge David R. Vandenberg late Wednesday took under advisement a demurrer to an indictment against Dawn Starr, Oklahoma night club dancer, charged with passing a bogus check.

The demurrer was filed by Ben Godard, attorney for Miss Starr. It was his contention that the indictment did not state a crime and was defective in other respects.

District Attorney Frank Alderson told the court that in his opinion the indictment was valid and clearly set forth the crime with which the dancer is charged.
