

Wolfe, Smalls In Top Bout Tonight

Weiser, Bullock In Semi

Indian Dick Wolfe's long wait for a return shot at Earl Turner may become even longer after tonight's fight with Oakland's Govan Smalls at the Army.

Curtain time tonight is 8:30. Smalls is a ring speller whose short but impressive career is dotted with upsets. The Negro corner is not impressed with glossy reputations, proven in matches with Sal Flores, Vinci DeCarlo and Willie Vaughn.

All three were top-sided favorites in battles with Smalls, who whipped Flores, drew with DeCarlo and lost a split decision to Vaughn. The latter numbers the afore-mentioned Turner among his victims.

But despite Smalls' flare for upsets, Wolfe should be slightly favored in tonight's 10-rounder, the feature bout on a slam-bang punch program.

Wolfe's clamor for a Turner rematch became even louder after the Indian lad whipped Jose Aguilar of Los Angeles here two weeks ago. Turner splashed Wolfe's record with his lone knockout here last March to walk off with the Northwest middleweight title. Since then he hasn't defended the title and Wolfe has laid claim to the middleweight crown on Turner's inactivity. But he wants to settle it in the ring.

Turner turned the match down last week and Matchmaker Mack Lillard whisked Smalls onto the scene. It could be a costly substitution for Wolfe, although his ring savvy picked up in over 100 professional fights should pay off against Smalls, whose record shows just 14 pro outings.

Beatty's Bomber, Ralph Weiser, returns to the semi-windup against Bill Bullock, Smalls' stablemate. Weiser, who claims the Northwest lightweight title, won't put his crown on the line.

SIX ROUNDS
The Weiser-Bullock melee is scheduled for six rounds—or less. Weiser is fresh off a TKO victory over Seattle's Jackie Moore, a six-round fight two weeks ago here that saw Moore continue despite a freak accident that resulted in a groin injury for the classy Seattle boxer, ahead on points at the time of his mishap.

Darrell Harrington, who got off the canvas four times to stop Willie Wilson here two weeks ago, faces Junior Riddle of Beatty in the six-round special event.

Lillard said two four-rounders would complete the card. Reserved tickets are on sale at Dick Reeder's Clothing Store, 5th and Main, until the Army box-office opens at 7:30, one hour before the opener.

Horse Show Opens Oct. 14
HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — International jumping competition for 1953 gets going Oct. 14 when the 8th annual Pennsylvania National Horse Show opens its doors.

Top equestrian teams from England, Ireland, Canada and the United States are entered in the one-week show which opens the North American indoor horse show circuit. The competition continues with the same teams entered in the National Horse Show Nov. 3-10 in New York and the Royal Winter Fair, at Toronto the following week.

Of the teams in the top 10 six have records of five wins and no defeats. The other four have 4-1 records.

The poll, with season record listed for each team:

Cipriano, Noe Join Bakers

SEATTLE (AP) — Chet Noe, star University of Oregon basketball center last season, and two former University of Washington standouts will join the independent Buchanan Bakers in the semipro Northwest League this winter. It was announced Monday.

Bill Morris, Washington freshman coach who also directs activities of the Bakers, said Noe and ex-Huskies Simpery Joe Cipriano and Chuck Koon will form the nucleus of the Bakers' squad.

Morris said there also is the possibility that Mike McCutchen and Doug McClary, who had a big hand in Washington's drive to third place in the NCAA playoffs last spring, also will join the team.

The Bakers will compete in the Northwest League and also make an eastern tour in November and December. Two games are scheduled with the Phillips Oilers, one with the Denver Bankers and three with the Ada Oilers, another top Southwest independent. Games with the Ada Oilers will be played in Seattle, Bellingham and Wenatchee.

In February 1951 he won recognition for his serene marksmanship while the Americans were pushing the Communists back north.

MARVEL
A dispatch from the front lines said Galiffa became the marvel of his comrades by hurling grenades effectively for 75 yards, twice the distance the book says the explosive can be torn accurately.

"Aw, shucks, we were moving forward and the Communists were holed up pretty thick," Galiffa explained. "I got loose some grenades and they happened to hit some Communist holes, that's all. Nothing to it."

At West Point, the swarthy 26-year-old janitor's son won four letters in basketball, four in baseball as a first baseman and three in football. He was All-America his last year in 1949.

Galiffa Gets Pro Chance

BY WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK (AP)—Arnold Galiffa, who won 11 sports letters at West Point and later became the grenade-throwing sensation of the Korean War, is anxious to get a taste of pro football—and chances are it'll come next Sunday.

The New York Giants make their home debut against the Chicago Cardinals at the Polo Grounds and Coach Steve Owen promises to unveil — for a few plays at least — his new quarterback from the fighting fronts who he says "will be another Otto Graham."

The 6-foot-2, 195-pound onetime steel hand from Demora, Pa., bested a Giant over the weekend after his discharge from the service. He watched his teammates lose their third straight game in Washington Sunday, bowing to the Redskins 13-9.

CLOSE
"I'd never seen pro football from so close before," the dark-haired former All-America quarterback said. "Gee, they're big guys and they hit mighty hard. College ball was never like this."

Galiffa may have been impressed by what he saw but he couldn't have been scared. Even pro football must look like child's play to the officer who spent six months on the Korean fronts when the fighting was fiercest back in 1951.

Baseball Goes To Big Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Organized baseball goes before the Supreme Court today in what is perhaps the most significant legal case in the history of the national sport.

The court has been asked to decide whether baseball is an illegal monopoly in restraint of trade. It decides that it is, the rule could mean the end of big league baseball as it is now played.

But this is an extreme possibility. Even if the court were to rule against baseball, there is possible out. Congress, for instance, could pass a special law or there might evolve a sort gentlemen's agreement among baseball players.

TOMORROW
Arguments on three appeals a high court agreed to hear was down to begin late today, but was possible that start of the three-hour argument would be deferred until tomorrow.

The question whether baseball violates the nation's antitrust law has been before the Supreme Court before. In 1922 the court decided baseball wasn't a business, so that as a sport it was not subject to federal antitrust laws.

The three appeals now before a high court were filed by major leaguers George Toole and Walter Kowalski and a minor league clubowner, Jack Corbett.

CHANGED
All three maintain that the decision no longer applies. They contend the game has been changed since then by such developments as intricate farm terms and radio and television coverage.

In addition, the appeals maintain, baseball amounts to something resembling slavery since players are tied to their club owners under the controversial reserve clause, which gives the owners absolute control over baseball activities of the players.

Replying to the suits, organized baseball said in its briefs that antitrust charges are without merit. That the specific questions raised in the three actions have nothing to do with interstate commerce.

Roy Chager was the lead juvenile sire in England and land in 1952 with 13 winners. Royal Serenade was the winner of the American Handicap and 1953 Hollywood Gold Cup.

Experts Have Say At Meeting

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Experts at Monday's meeting of the North California Football Writers Assn. came up with these pertinent observations:

Chuck Taylor, Stanford.

"As far as UCLA, (Stanford's opponent at Palo Alto Saturday) is concerned, we don't belong on the same field. Our scouts report say UCLA is a better team than last year when it finished second in the conference. Its reverses are going better."

"Of course the way the season has been going, anything can happen. The 21-0 win over Oregon State cannot be evaluated as much. Oregon State does not have a good team this year."

Vic Kelley, publicity man for UCLA.

"Coach Henry Sanders says he can find no reason to re-evaluate his pre-season appraisal that Stanford is the conference dark horse with the potential to knock over any team. Sanders thinks Stanford has the best line in the country. In the best fallback in the country. In the switch to single platoons, he has proved himself as a good defensive player to add to his great ability on offense."

"Our present backfield gives us the best running attack since Sanders' look over in 1949."

Coach Lynn Waldorf, California.

"I look for a tough game with San Jose State this weekend. In fact I rate it even up. Frankly I am puzzled about the Pennsylvania game (score 40-0). We thought Penn would be strong. All the breaks came our way. We used every player on the team. 35, and our third team played all of the last quarter."

Coach Bob Bronzan, San Jose State.

"I feel if we play our best game and California is looking beyond us for the USC game Oct. 21, we might surprise them. San Jose will be at its strongest physical peak since the opener with Teahn."

San Jose won that one, 34-6.

In compiling 60 wins against 17 losses at Ebbets Field in 1953, the Dodgers equaled the home game record set by the Cardinals in 1942.

Statistics show that the average football player at Brandeis U. is 19 years old, weighs 190 pounds and stands 5-11.

Pels Drop to Tenth In AP Football Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
There were no newcomers to the top ten after voting by sportswriters and sportscasters in the Associated Press second Oregon high school football poll of the year.

North Bend and Central Catholic, the 1952 state champion, continued 1-2, but there was shuffling of the other eight positions and Central Catholic, with 140 points, came within three points of first place.

North Bend drew eight votes for No. 1 from the 15 who voted. Central Catholic was the choice of six for first place. Salem, which advanced from sixth to No. 5, got the other first-place vote.

Marshfield, fourth last week, vaulted to No. 3 after Eugene was upset by Corvallis. Eugene fell from third to sixth.

Benson of Portland, No. 7 last week, jumped into fourth place by beating Jefferson, 7-0. Jefferson fell from fifth to seventh.

Prineville, 1952 Class A-2 champion, held to eighth and Gresham moved up a notch to No. 9. Klamath Falls dropped from a tie for No. 8 spot to tenth despite a 20-0 victory over Ashland.

Of the teams in the top 10 six have records of five wins and no defeats. The other four have 4-1 records.
