Reno No 'Breather'

Quarter Search On Again

Oregon Tech coaches are on their second search of the season for a quarterback.

Milton Richau of The Dalles suffered a broken jaw in the 19-0 loss to Oregon College Saturday night and backfield mentor Art Kirkland said he was out for the season.

Richau took Gordon Bittman's place at quarterback when the promising six-foot, 185-pound Calgary boy injured his knee in the opening-game victory over Olympic JC.

ART KIRKLAND minus a quarterback

Richau posed a real problem for the Tech coaching staff, drilling the squad now for the trip to Portland and a Saturday night grid date with the Portland State Vikings.

Kirkland indicated Larry Oatney of Drain has the inside track but he "was still looking."

The backfield blues on the mile-high campus were further complicated when Danny Mahoney quit the squad this week.

The ex-Sacred Heart had been improving rapidly this season and has shown promise. He gave no reasons for his leaving the squad, last Monday, have been ordered to appear in Reno Nov. 2 to show cause why they shouldn't be removed from office, why a receiver should not be appointed and an investigation conducted into club finances.

U.S. Judge Roger Foley issued the order Tuesday at the request of Raymond R. Roberts, a Van Nuys, Calif., attorney representing several stockholders.

Judge Foley said he had issued a temporary restraining order to keep the club from being placed in bankruptcy. Its affairs have been undergoing reorganization under the bankruptcy laws.

Chief value of the racing plant is its real estate, 480 acres near Las Vegas resort hotel area with an estimated value of $1,200,000. The racing plant cost approximately $3 million dollars.

The largest single block of stock in the venture, 270,000 shares, is owned by Lou Smith of Salem, N.J., president of the Las Vegas club and vice president of New England's Rockingham Park.

The play that earned him the coveted weekly honor came in the third period. Pitt held a surprising 14-7 lead. After the kickoff a penalty allowed the Panthers back to their 2. Bobby Egan tried to run the ball from behind his own goal line, but his Frank broke through and smothered the Pitt player for a safety.

That gave Notre Dame two points and put the Irish in a position where a touchdown would put them ahead instead of merely tying. It was acknowledged as a key play as the Irish went on to a 23-14 victory.

Garrett Back Of The Week

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Bob Garrett, Stanford T-quarterback whose spectacular passing to an upset win over strong UCLA last week earned him The Associated Press Back of the Week rating, would like to have a crack at professional football.

Off last week's performance, when Bob completed 18 of 27 passes for 196 yards, with 13 of 17 coming in three touchdown drives, it looks as though he could make the grade in the pro draft next winter.

One thing worries the 21-year-old, 190-pound senior. "Uncle Sam may draft him before the pros. Bob has been a member of the Stanford Air Force ROTC unit.

Being named Back of the Week had its greatest satisfaction for Garrett in that it proved he wasn't washed out when he was injured near the end of last season. Many had predicted his grid career was over then.

But he underwent surgery for a shoulder separation on his left side and to have bone chips removed from his right passing arm. The results were demonstrated Saturday when he literally passed the favored UCLA team silly, winning 21-20.

Track Heads Go To Court

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Directors of the ill-fated Las Vegas Jockey Club, which suspended operations last Monday, have been ordered to appear in Reno Nov. 2 to show cause why they shouldn't be removed from office, why a receiver should not be appointed and an investigation conducted into club finances.

U.S. Judge Roger Foley issued the order Tuesday at the request of Raymond R. Roberts, a Van Nuys, Calif., attorney representing several stockholders.

Huskies Next Foe For Pels

The Pelicans have one king-of-X game before their district-decider in Grants Pass Oct. 30—but it's no breather.

It comes Friday night when the Reno Huskies invade Modoc Field to test the Klamath eleven, defeated just once this season in six starts.

Reno's record would indicate the Huskies have a gassed-up offensive team. Even though losing their last two starts to Boise and Redding, the Huskies managed to score 52 points—26 in each game. The Shasta Wolves, nipped by Klamath Falls, 13-6, scored 33 against Reno, Boise rang up 44.

COINCIDENCE In its first two starts, Reno whipped Fallon 14-0 and Sparks 26-14. Coincidentally, that's 26 points the Huskies have added up in their last three outings, the same number the Pelicans scored in getting by Medford last week (Medford collected 18 to tie Grants Pass for the Dist. 6 leadership).

The Huskies have a pony backfield that deals in speed. Heaviest of the quartet is halfback Ken Fujii—who sometimes plays quarterback—at 156. His halfback running mate, George Smith, scales 150. Quarterback Len Mardian is 139. Fullback Charles Harmon is 146.

Scoutback Don Dexter is the only little guy in the Klamath backfield at 147. Quarterback Larry Yarnell comes in at 169, Jim Dougherty 181 and fullback Greg Schuize 193.

Tackleack Himeiwright broke a thumb in the Medford game and may not see action against Reno, Coach Bob Hendershott said.

KURT VON POPPENHEIM majors in maul

Mat Run Opens Tonight

Wrestling returns to the local sports scene tonight with top-drawer mat warriors down for action on the curtain card at the mausoleum of maul at Spring and Main.

One of the most sought-after performers in the business of half Nelsons occupies the main event spot. He is Luther Lindsey, powerful Negro who has all-American in football and held the intercollegiate wrestling championship while in college.

Lindsey, called the greatest Negro wrestler in the world, faces Red Vagnone, a guy out of Pennsylvania in coal mines who is handy with his fists.

Another guy who deals in knuckles and is well known to Klamath fans is Kurt Von Poppenheim who meets Doug Donnen, a Canadian wrestler, in the 30-minute semi-windup.

The Proud Prussian's rough-house style and showmanship filled the Armory for several weeks a couple of seasons ago. His opponent comes highly-rated.

OPENER The opener—also a half-hour brawl over the two-of-three-fall route, sends Sugi Hayamaka against Frank Fagerty of Omaha.

Hayamaka is fast and clever, perhaps too much so for Fagerty, with Donnen a newcomer in the Klamath Falls ring.

The opener is down for 8:30, one hour after the Armory box-office opens.

Injuries Bench Two Indians

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Tackle Barry Smith and fullback Bill Wentworth will be sidelined when Stanford meets Washington in Seattle Saturday.

Smith was hit hard around the head and Wentworth suffered a pinched nerve in last Saturday's bruising battle with UCLA.

Dandoy Back With Trojans

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Southern California's Trojans, bolstered by the return from the injury bench of halfback Aramis Dandoy, scheduled a final scrimmage of the week Wednesday in preparation for the California game.

Dandoy, who received a head injury in the Washington game, sat out the Oregon State affair last Saturday but got back into action Tuesday. He looked good in the drill on offense.

Coach Jess Hill switched signals and said Mario Da Re would start in the line. Hill took a second look at the Oregon State game movies and reinstated Da Re to first string status.

Nelson Back With Webfoots

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Fully recovered from a leg injury that has kept him out of action for three weeks, guard Jerry Nelson rejoined the Oregon Ducks Tuesday and took part in a fullscale offensive scrimmage.

Coach Len Casanova said Nelson's return brings the Ducks to full strength at the guard position for the first time this season. Oregon will play San Jose State here next Saturday.

Olson 11-5 Favorite In Tonight's Scrap

By MURRAY ROSE NEW YORK (AP) — Carl (Boho) Olson, the hustling Hawaiian from San Francisco, today held firmly as the 11-5 favorite to whip England's moody Randy Turpin in their 15-round middleweight title fight at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Although his strange training methods have been as unorthodox as his awkward fighting style, the 25-year-old British Negro said flatly, "I'll prove I was right. I'll win and bring back the championship to England."

Olson, poker-faced and quiet, said calmly as usual, "I'll take the title." Then he left the rest of the talking, as usual, to Manager Sid Flaherty.

PICKS OLSON "Olson will win," was the studied comment of Ray Robinson, who fought them both twice. The two will battle for the crown the great Sugar Ray abdicated nine months ago.

"Olson is aggressive and very busy," said Robinson. "He gives you no room and he thinks fast. Turpin can't go back. I found that out. Olson will keep coming."

Even the visiting British writers and London promoter Jack Solomons soured on their headstrong colorbearer.

DISAPPROVE "I don't approve the way Turpin has trained," said Solomons. "He should have boxed more. His timing is off. If it goes 15 rounds Olson will win."

Turpin hasn't boxed since last Thursday. Despite Turpin's peculiar tactics

Radio-television receipts will add another $60,000 to the pot. Each fighter will collect 30 per cent or about $37,000.

BLACKOUT The bout will be broadcast and telecast coast to coast by CBS, starting at 10 p.m., EST. New York, and a 75-mile area around

Uncle Sam Taps Vande

MOSCOW, Idaho (AP) — Babe Gurman lost another from his injury-riddled Idaho ball squad Tuesday, but it was to Uncle Sam.

The school announced guard Neil Caudill has been tapped for service in the armed forces and will not be able to play against Oregon State here today.

Caudill's departure left Gurman with only 27 men available for action. He said he hopes five will be recovered before game time Saturday.

The coach announced James Emerson of Kimberly, Idaho, starting guard, replacing Caudill.

In the recent World Series Yankees turned 11 walks and hit batsmen into runs. They benefited by three walks and hit batter.
