

LONG, REEDLIKE INSTRUMENTS of ancient lineage, the famous Herald Trumpets, will be featured by the United States Navy Band when it appears in matinee and evening concerts at KUHS Pelican Court, Saturday, Oct. 24. The trumpet is one of the oldest musical instruments and reference is made to it in the Bible. Music lovers will have an opportunity to see and hear this unusual presentation during the concert.

sponsored by the KUHS Band benefit performance. These trumpets give a splendor to the band performance by their charm and the incisive quality which they lend to the brasses. The eight performers on the Herald Trumpets are soloists of distinction. Funds from the two performances will be used to purchase new band uniforms.

The Appointee Would Sell TVA To Private Industry

WASHINGTON — Clarence Manion, chairman of President Eisenhower's Inter-governmental Relations Commission, said Monday night he thought the Tennessee Valley Authority should be sold to private industry.

Manion and William Wise, former deputy administrator of the Rural Electrification Administration engaged in a question and answer session on the Dumont television program "The Big Issue." Wise asked Manion whether, in view of "the tremendous size of a project like the TVA," he thought the government should run it. "I think the TVA should be sold to private industry," Manion replied.

In answer to another question, Manion said, "I don't think the federal government should have built TVA in the first place." The commission Manion headed was assigned the job of recommending a better division of functions between federal and state and local governments. Before becoming chairman of this group, Manion was dean of the Notre Dame University law school. Eisenhower has cited TVA as an example of "creeping socialism" but emphasized he is not out to destroy it. In expressing these views to a news conference June 17, he said that when future TVA-type projects are built he wants local people to have a greater interest and greater voice in them.

Rep. Bolling (D-Mo), debating with Manion as to whether the federal government is becoming too powerful, said the government had taken on functions "at the demand, and for the benefit of the people."

Manion said he believed citizens or the states might reassume some 4 1/2 billion dollars worth of activities now carried on by the federal government.

There weren't many smiling faces at school Monday after the heat Saturday afternoon. The Blue Mustangs beat the Academy 42-0 at Conger field Oct. 1. Although the Trojans put up their best defense they couldn't stop the Mustangs.
The Ham Dinner, sponsored by the Mothers' Club Oct. 15 in the Irish Hall, was a success. Thanks everyone who took part!
Students saw a movie Friday afternoon, "The Babe Ruth Story," for which school was dismissed. Sister Lilloso has been ill for some days, but she is improving now. It will be a while before she can be back in the halls. Students are to see her again soon!
Sodality sign-up hit 22 at the first meeting last week. Students who are interested will remain candidates until Dec. 8; if they have served worthy by this time they will be admitted. Sodality is being granted by Sister Lavinia.
Officers of the Correspondence Club were chosen at the first meeting Oct. 15 as follows: president, Maureen Rajchel; vice president, Della Toote; treasurer, Colleen Dehan.
