

HERE'S THAT BAND again, Dick Jurgens and his nationally famous dance and show band is slated for an appearance Thursday, October 29 at the Klamath Falls Armory, Impresario Baldy Evans, who is sponsoring the event, rates Jurgens' aggregation as one of the best attractions to appear in Klamath Falls. The band comes here after engagements at the Statler Hotel, New York; Roosevelt Hotel, New Orleans, and the Casa Loma Ballroom, St. Louis.

Court Hires Nurse For Juror's Child
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mrs. Violet Leduc, a juror in a civil suit, blamed the judge yesterday that she would have to care for her 2-year-old grandson the next two weeks because her daughter-in-law was about to have another baby. Judge George A. Dockweiler recessed the trial and went into a huddle with the lawyers. Then he phoned Mrs. Leduc and told her, "We hired a nurse. Trial will resume Monday."

7 of 8 Persons Naturally Able To Resist Cancer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Seven out of eight persons have a natural ability to resist cancer, an American Cancer Society official reports. Dr. Ian MacDonald, president of the society's California division and associate clinical professor of surgery at the University of Southern California, told a news conference yesterday that if the true character of cancer could be determined at its inception, doctors would have a far greater chance to conquer it.

Rayburn Sees World In Greatest Danger

MCALESTER, Okla. (AP)—Rep. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) told 300 delegates here last night that democracy in the United States and the world is in its greatest danger in history. "We can remain free," the House minority leader stated, "if the American people are willing to pay the price. But it's going to cost money."

Frogman Recovers Two Old Slots

GLOUCESTER, Mass. (AP)—A "frogman" photographer dived 45 feet in a water-filled granite quarry and hit the jackpot yesterday. William C. Loeffler, in goggles and fins, found two slot machines dumped in prohibition times. When he brought them to the surface, out poured $27 in quarters and nickels.

liver. They merely closed the incision and discharged the man from the hospital soon thereafter. In 1949 the same patient returned with an intestinal complaint. Examination, MacDonald said, disclosed no trace of cancer. A common remedy cleared up his intestinal complaint. Exhaustive study failed to disclose what had caused the man's cancer to disappear, MacDonald today and the figure could be boosted to 5 if the public heeded fully the warning of cancer groups to take advantage of detection surveys and to respond otherwise to danger signals.

Do FALSE TEETH
Rock, Slide or Slip?
FARTRETH, an improved powder to be sprinkled on upper or lower plates, holds false teeth more firmly in place. Do not slide, slip or rock. No gummy, gooey, pasty, taste or feeling. FARTRETH is alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "halitosis" (denture breath). Get FARTRETH at any drug store.
