

HARRY NOBLE

Langel Valley Proud Of Harry Noble's Riding

LANGELL VALLEY—The town is proud of 23 year old Harry Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Noble, a graduate of Bonanza High School, who joined the Navy three years ago, was on the USS Pine Island until February when he was sent to the Air Force base at Hickam, Honolulu. He entered his first rodeo on the Island in July and won two trophies. In late September he entered Kamehameha and won the title of "All Around Cowboy."

Three hundred events were participated in by cowboys from the different islands, and from Arizona, Oregon, California, New Mexico, Texas, Wyoming and Calgary, Canada. Young Noble won first in the saddle bronc riding, first in bareback bronc riding, first in calf roping, second in team roping and fourth in bulldozing.

Harry also plays on one of the Island's main polo teams. He owns his own thoroughbred horse.

10 Students to Play With US Navy Band
