

MRS. VICTOR MORRIS, Eugene, state honorary member of Delta Kappa Gamma society, (center) was guest speaker at a luncheon meeting at the Willard Hotel, Oct. 17 to which representatives of the American Association of University Women, PEO and the League of Women Voters were invited. Mrs. Morris, wife of Dr. Victor P. Morris, acting president of the University of Oregon, gave an inspiring talk on "Our Oregon Heritage. Seated at the luncheon table with Mrs. Morris is left, Mable Humble, president of Klamath Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma and Mrs. George Elliott, first vice president and program chairman.

MR. AND MRS. GORDON KENSLER — were honored recently, by the Klamath County Art Association, with an art exhibit and reception at the Art Center, 1227 Main, where the pictures are still being shown. Kensler is superintendent of the Art Department of the city schools. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kensler studied at the Chicago Art Institute and he has just received a teaching degree in Art from the U. of O. Kensler is a veteran of World War II and Korea. Both work in pen and ink and water colors.

Manzanita OES Chapter 172

The Klamath Falls Lions auxiliary held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Morgan Johnson. The four hostesses were Mrs. Gene Hooker, Mrs. Vern Owens, Mrs. Elmer Putnam and Mrs. Johnson. Greeting members at the door were Halloween masks. The Halloween motif was carried out in room decorations.

Mrs. Clarence Humble, state president of the auxiliary gave an interesting report on visits she had made to other clubs in Oregon. Mrs. John Schubert, chairman of the rummage sale announced the sale would be held at the Pelican theater building Oct. 12-13.

Members voted to undertake another project related to helping the visually handicapped. A tele-spectacular to be installed at the high school will be operated by Lions auxiliary. This machine will find eye defects that do not show up in routine school checkups. Colored movies taken by Mrs. Clarence Ward on her trip to Europe were shown the group.

Players Club

A large group of Players Club members and guests were greeted Wednesday, Oct. 7 in the Library Clubrooms by Mrs. J. M. Hefner, Mrs. J. G. Johnson, Mrs. H. Kraneburg and Mrs. E. R. Olson, hostesses for the evening.

After a short business meeting conducted by Mrs. E. H. Hultman, president, cards were enjoyed, with high in bridge going to Mrs. E. H. Hultman and low to Doris Wilson. High in pinocle went to Mrs. O. V. Gossett and low to Mrs. B. M. Simon. The next meeting will be held Oct. 21, at 8 p.m. in the library clubroom.

OTI FACULTY WIVES MEET

Oregon Tech Faculty Wives' and Women's Club held a meeting, Tuesday, Oct. 13, 7:30 p.m. The meeting place for the club has been changed this year from King Hall to the Student Lounge on the campus.

Mrs. Richard Hessig, entertainment chairman, opened the meeting by introducing Linda and Sally Hanville, who played several musical selections. Linda, age 8, plays the piano and Sally, age 7, the violin. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hanville, 605 Eldorado Boulevard.

Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, president, conducted the business meeting.

New members welcomed into the club this fall include: Mrs. James Brady, Mrs. James Boyle, Mrs. Brooks Custer, Mrs. Ralph Filler, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. Milton Petersen, Mrs. Ben Pool, Mrs. Natalia Reichenberg, Mrs. Bob Smith, Mrs. Thomas Sternburgh, and Mrs. Gilbert Walters.

Mrs. Carl Stolpe was appointed publicity chairman for the remainder of the year.

Mrs. Robert Burk, whose husband is leaving the OTI staff this week, was presented with a going-away gift.

Social hostesses for the evening were Mrs. F. Q. O'Connell, Mrs. Jess Crabtree, and Mrs. Delmar Jones. They carried out the Halloween theme in the decorations and refreshments. The special prize was won by Mrs. Jack La Grande.

The next regular meeting will be held Tuesday, Nov. 10, 7:30 p.m., at the Student Lounge. All OTI faculty women, and wives of faculty men are cordially invited.

First Grandson

From Silverton comes news of the birth of a son, Bruce Worden, to Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Scarth. (Dorothy Rae Worden). The new-comer arrived Sept. 16, and tipped the scales at 7 lbs. 12 oz.

Mrs. Scarth's mother, Mrs. Ray M. Worden, went north to be with her daughter and family for two weeks.

The baby has four great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Scarth, of Silverton, Mrs. Ida Cottingham of Wichita, Kan., and Milton M. Worden, Cedar Vale, Kan.

Grandparents, who all boast of Bruce Worden as their first grandchild, are Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Scarth of Silverton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Worden of Klamath Falls.

THE FOUR DEUCES — Budding barbershoppers from Roosevelt school under the direction of Mrs. D. E. VanVactor are: from left, Bobby Harris, Robert Mushen, Jan Baxter and John Kuykendall. These songsters are part of a program of music for fun and entertainment, being developed at Roosevelt school, in connection with series of weekly programs sponsored by the Standard Oil Co. and broadcast every Thursday afternoon to the students.

Annual Bazaar To Be Nov. 17

MERRILL — The annual bazaar and supper sponsored by St. Augustine's Altar Society will be held Saturday, Nov. 17, at the parish hall. A smorgasbord dinner will be served, with Mrs. Toby O'Keefe as chairman. The usual booths and entertainment are planned for the evening.

Mrs. Dan Cashman was chairman of the rummage sale held recently and reported that it was a financial success.

MERRILL BPW

MERRILL — Kathleen Brickner was hostess for the Oct. 8 meeting of Merrill Business and Professional Women. Sunday, Oct. 11, was the beginning of Business Women's Week, and a kick-off breakfast was held at Mar-Max Cafe.

Eleven members and one guest were present at the meeting. The next regular dinner business meeting will be Oct. 21.

KIWANIS CLUB LADIES DAY

"Ladies Day," at the Kiwanis club Thursday, Oct. 22, was no idle jest, as the men in attendance will testify. Mrs. H. O. Juckeland presided at the annual luncheon meeting that stressed humor and hilarity.

A take-off panel discussion, on the activities that men call recreation, was presented in full costume, with Mrs. Robert Thompson as moderator. Panel members were: Mrs. Fred Farley, Mrs. Grace Drew, Mrs. Bob Kent, Mrs. Bob Smith, Mrs. Arthur Compton, Mrs. F. W. Peak, Mrs. Craig Bowle, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Russ Marshall, Mrs. Dick Miller Jr., Mrs. Percy Murray, Mrs. Willard Ward and Mrs. John Van Doren.

A lively musical number pantomiming a popular western record followed with Mrs. Harry Molatore, Mrs. Ted Lindley, Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., Mrs. Homer Ellis, Mrs. Glen Evans, Mrs. Robert Cooper and Mrs. Harry Fredricks taking part.

Mrs. John McCulloch collected fines and Mrs. Charles Fyock introduced the guests, one of whom was Senator Guy Cordon, Roseburg.

TEEN AGE HAY RIDE

BONANZA — Wilma Hubble entertained a group of her friends Saturday night, Oct. 10, with a wiener roast and hay ride. The group went up to Malone dam for the evening and enjoyed games, singing and good food.

Young people present were Margaret and Yelda Rodgers, Carol Evans, Lois and Louise Hubble, Ruth Ralph, Shirley Hubble, Joe Smith, Gordon James, Clarence Opine, Ronnie Worden, Don Hubble, Charles and Leon Roberts, Lela Vern Hankins, and Wilma Hubble.
