

Walfalfa Market Stiffens Some

Walfalfa markets averaged fairly steady to slightly stronger at the principal points during the past week according to the Department of Agriculture.

Under the plan the Department of Agriculture will make funds available for payment of transportation of hay while the states, in addition to providing funds where they are able to do so, will be responsible for the procurement and distribution of the hay.

Former Resident Dies in Bridge

Grace Yokam Belieu, 61, passed away Oct. 21, at her home in Eugene, Ore. Funeral services were held Oct. 26, in the Schroeder Chapel at Myrtle Point.

The Girls Athletic Association will have charge of the food booth. Prizes have been solicited from Klamath Falls and Merrill merchants.

Merrill High's Carnival Oct. 30

MERRILL — The annual high school carnival will be held Friday evening, Oct. 30 in the gym. Concessions are being sponsored by each class.

A carnival king and queen will be crowned during the evening, chosen on a ticket selling basis. Candidates are Gloria Cahlan and Bobby Vertrees, seventh grade; Mary Ann Johnson and Tom Beasley, eighth; Margaret Harding and Roger Trotman, freshman; Maxine Morse and Dale McCulloch, sophomores; Noreen Bredeen and Bill Polmateer, juniors; Betty Daniel and Donny Heaton, seniors.

Grade School Enrollment Up

Enrollment in Klamath Falls elementary public schools is showing a steady increase with 2,481 students registered in the city's eight buildings, according to an announcement made Monday at a joint meeting of the joint boards of education.

Total registration last year was 2,401. Highest registration is at Mills with 708, followed by Roosevelt with 361. Others include Fairview, 351; Pelican, 275; Junior High, 272; Conger, 208; Riverside, 167; Fremont, 139.

Elk Season Opens Saturday

PORTLAND — Oregon's elk hunting season opens Saturday with the general outlook favorable. Western Oregon's hunt is restricted to bulls with three or more points.

Frank Uhrine, Sexton, Dies

Frank Lukis Uhrine, 68, resident of Klamath Falls for 41 years and sexton at Linkville cemetery and the Memorial Park for some time, died about noon Wednesday at a home he shared with a brother John.

Survivors are his two brothers, Henry and John of this city, and two sisters; Mrs. Ada Midkiff, Denver, and Mrs. Netty Clancy, Erick, Okla. He was a member of Westwood Lodge, IOOF, Dryad, Wash., and Ewauna Encampment, Klamath Falls. Funeral services will be held Saturday, Oct. 31, 10 a.m. from Ward's Klamath Funeral Home.
