Army To Bounce 1,100 Officers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army announced Friday that 1,100 reserve officers will be notified in November they will be dropped from active duty.
 The new notifications are in addition to about 2,000 release notices that went out earlier in October. Reserve officers involved receive at least three months' notice according to Army policy.
 The Army said also that no additional releases will be ordered in the current reduction program because of the large number of reserve officers who have voluntarily requested separation. The releases have been prompted by cutbacks in the ceilings of the Army under the current budget.

Hall, Heady Are Indicted

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Carl Austin Hall and Mrs. Bonnie Brown Heady, partners in the abduction of little Bobby Greenlease, were indicted by a federal grand jury yesterday on kidnapping charges.
 They are expected to be arraigned early next week, possibly Monday. Edward L. Scheufler, U.S. attorney, has said he will press for an early trial.
 Bobby, the 6-year-old son of a wealthy Kansas City automobile dealer, was taken from his exclusive school Sept. 23. He was slain and his body was found in a lime-filled grave in the yard of Mrs. Heady's home at St. Joseph, Mo.
 Hall, 34, and Mrs. Heady, 41-year-old divorcee, were arrested in St. Louis Oct. 6. Hall admitted slaying the child after Mrs. Heady took the boy from his school on a ruse.
 The jury heard four days of testimony. The indictment pointed out the kidnaped child was not returned unharmed, making the defendants liable to the death penalty. If the two should enter pleas of guilty the judge could request a jury trial to determine whether the maximum penalty should be inflicted.

 Much of the testimony before the grand jury was concerned with St. Louis developments in the case.
 When Hall and Mrs. Heady were arrested, half the $600,000 ransom paid by Robert C. Greenlease, the boy's father, was missing. The missing money still is the subject of a widespread search.
 Among the witnesses from St. Louis were John Hager, cab driver who tipped police to Hall when he became suspicious of the man's wild drinking and spending spree.
