

"CAMELS MILK" . . . is putting additional pep into committee members for the Klamath Falls Shrine Club annual dinner dance at the Armory, Nov. 7. Cocktail hour starts at 7 p.m., and dinner will be served at 8:30 p.m. From the left, Dr. R. T. Lindley, decoration chairman; Mrs. Harry Fredricks, Jete Renie, president of the Klamath Falls Shrine Club; and

Dr. Harry Fredricks, general chairman of the dance. Decorations for the evening will feature camels, desert scenes and will generally suggest Egypt and the Nile. This is the top social event of the club year, and the usual capacity crowd is anticipated. —Photo by Kettler

MR. AND MRS. HOLLIS ANDERTON . . . 4813 Cottage, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol Jean, to Don (Chet) Leneve, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Leneve, Coos Bay. The wedding date has been set for Nov. 25 in Peace Memorial Church. Bride-elect is a graduate of KUHS, and she and her fiancé are both graduates of the University of Oregon; and are presently employed in Eugene. —Photo by Miller-Brumbaugh

Concert Series Starts Nov. 7th
The Vienna Academy Chorus is their first American tour. Since its inception eight years ago, the group has been trained by Dr. Ferdinand Grossman, known as the finest choral conductor in Australia. Plastic bags are handy for storing foods of irregular shape in the refrigerator. Aluminum foil is also useful for storing such foods.

Take it from me . . .

IT'S NO TRICK . . . IT'S A TREAT

KLAMATH BASIN GRADE 'A' PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION

PROSPERITY SOCIAL CLUB

Prosperity Social Club met Thursday evening, Oct. 22, at the home of Mrs. Leah Street. Plans were made and committees appointed for a potluck supper. The date was not decided upon as yet but will be sometime in December. Two members were reported to be improving. They were Mrs. Marian Wilson, who is confined at her home with a broken arm and Rosella Richardson, who is still in a Redmond nursing home.

The hostess served seasonal refreshments of pumpkin pie and coffee to Gertrude Henderson, Frances Kalina, Lean Fisher, Doris Smith, Laura Zlabek, Eva Bowman, Gladys Halousek, Nell Retterath, Marian Stasny and Ann Fruits.

Fall festivities
call for Sterling!
you'll find it at Pickys

WALLACE STERLING

Stradivari $39.75
Rose Point $35.75
Romance of the Sea $47.75
Grande Baroque $43.75
Grand Colonial $35.75
St. Christopher $43.50

prices, for six pc. place settings, include Federal tax.

USE A BUDGET ACCOUNT

Pickys Jewelers

700 Main St. Phone 3151

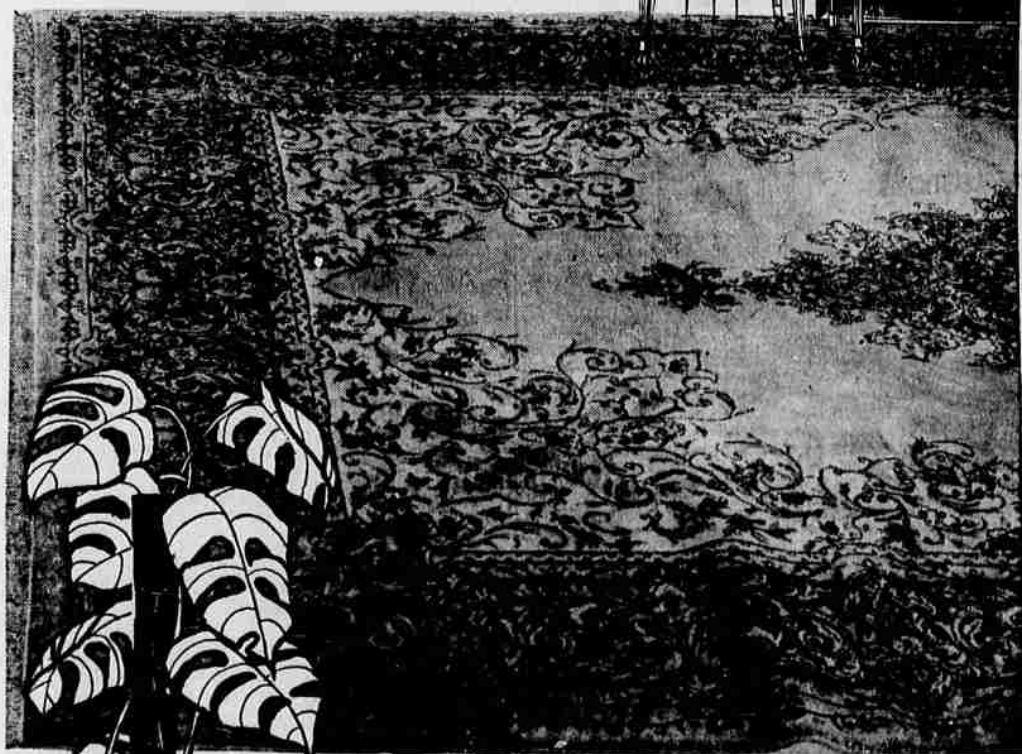

POTATO FESTIVAL COURT . . . as they appeared during the coronation Oct. 23 during the celebration at Merrill, which marked the 17th year since the first queen was crowned. From the left, Princesses Nelda Hale, Bonanza; Helen Peterson, Tulalake; Queen Connie Reeves, Merrill; special guest United States Senator, Guy Gordon; and princesses Ruth Kalina, Malin; and Betty Tachinni, Henley. In front, junior attendants, Janet Denham and Marilyn Hammond, both five. —Photo by Charles M. Van, Merrill

RICH COLORS FEATURED IN MERRILL POTATO FESTIVAL COURT DECORATIONS
The Potato Festival Queen's court was especially outstanding this year. Mrs. Dale West supervised the stage decorations which were done by the Lost River Garden Club, and the enchanting setting featured white candles in tall candelabra at either side of the throne and large baskets of wine chrysanthemums and pink gladioli tied with pink ribbon were placed in front of the candelabra. Junior princesses dressed in white, sprinkled pink rose petals down the aisle ahead of the royal procession. Two of the princess were in char- treuse taffeta, styled with match- ing stoles and full hoop skirts; the other two were in wine taffeta dresses made exactly as the others. All princesses carried old-fashioned nosegay bouquets centered with baby orchids. The queen was in white lace and net and carried an arm bouquet of red roses. All wore slippers to match their gowns. Escorts Dale McCulloch and John O'Neil Jr. assisted the girls up the ramp. The young men wore white jackets with dark trousers and wine colored boutonnieres. Chaperones Mrs. R. L. Dragoo, Mrs. L. E. Stewart and Mrs. Pas- chall Hodges planned the rich color scheme for the court attire; and purchased the wardrobes.

You don't need a connoisseur's unlimited income to enjoy Connoisseur Luxury by

Karastan
AMERICA'S FINEST POWER LOOMED RUG

You can put Karastan rugs in a class by themselves. Their magnificent patterns, their silky softness and glorious highlights are as prized as blue-white diamonds. But that doesn't mean you have to have a fortune to own them. Karastan weaves its remarkable rugs right here in America of costly imported worsteds on fabulous power looms to bring you connoisseur beauty and luxury on an everyday budget.

3x5 . . . $57.00 4.6x6 . . . $100.00 9x12 . . . $365.00 9x15 . . . $465.00
SELECT NOW FOR CHRISTMAS — EITHER ON LAY-A-WAY OR SPACED PAYMENTS

Klamath Furniture Co.
221 Main St. "Four Floors of Fine Furniture and Floor Coverings" Phone 5353 or 5339