

HATFIELD-MASON VOWS EXCHANGED IN SETTING OF GLOWING FALL COLORS

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

LOVELY OCTOBER BRIDE . . . Tall and willowy Shirley Anne Mason whose marriage to David B. Hatfield was an event of fall in First Presbyterian Church Oct. 25. She is the daughter of Mrs. Carl H. Mason, 2025 Lawrence; and her husband is the son of Mrs. William H. Hatfield, Oakland.

LEAVING THE CHURCH . . . for the reception in the Pine Grove Room at the Willard Hotel, where some 200 guests were received. The new Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield and bridesmaid, Mrs. Martin Franz, on stairs in background.

BEFORE THE CEREMONY . . . the bride arriving at the church. Mrs. Thomas Barnes, matron of honor, and sister-in-law of the bride assists her from the car. Bridesmaid, Barbara Rae Osborn at left. (Story and additional pictures on inside page.)

Photos by Wes Guderian

REAMES AUXILIARY STAGES ANNUAL COSTUME PARTY

EVERYTHING FROM SPACE SPECTERS TO NAPOLEON AND JOSEPHINE
AT CLUB ON OCTOBER 30

UPPER LEFT CIRCLE . . . Napoleon and Josephine are identified as Mrs. W. Ray Lamb and Mrs. Dick Miller Sr. Circle directly to the right, Mrs. Bob Hopson, left, and Mrs. Harold Robertson as the Toni Twins. Lower left, Mrs. John McCulloch, left, and Mrs. T. F. Farley as the Smith Brothers of cough drop fame. The trio to the right as "space men", are, (from the left), Mrs. Fred Burgoyne, Mrs. Andy Brink and Mrs. John O'Neill. In circle below, dubious bathing beauties are Mrs. Greer Drew, left, and Mrs. Martin Swanson.

Photos by Forebee

UPPER RIGHT . . . group picture, from the left, Mrs. Gus Anderson, fresh from Scandinavia; Mrs. Elbert Stiles, oriental dancer; Mrs. Loren Palmerton, (in back) as a Svenska cleaning woman; Mrs. Charles Fyock, football player; Mrs. Harry Fredricks, devil; and Mrs. George Clark, femme from the "Roaring Twenties". Mermaid and fisherman were a bit of fantasy portrayed by Mrs. Adolph Zamsky and Mrs. Thomas Perkins. Circle lower right pictures Mrs. Robert Sproat Jr., as a Stanley Steamer "hot rod" and "his" saucy siren is Mrs. Paul Farrans.