Justweds Entertain Wedding Party At Dance in Dorris City Hall After Wedding Reception and Dinner in K. Falls

St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the setting for the pretty and impressive wedding, Oct. 10, when Nancy Irene Mulligan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mulligan, 2135 Darrow, became the bride of Donald Eugene Kucera, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kucera, Meadow Grove, Neb.

Following the double-ring service read at 4 p.m. by the Reverend Galen Onstad, Mr. and Mrs. Al Long and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Loftsgaard sang "Blessed Be the 'Ties That Bind," accompanied by Mrs. Stanley Kendall at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle, made en train. She wore a Juliet cap of lace and tulle which held in place the finger tip veil of illusion. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of red roses centered with an arrangement of white roses.

Ruthmarie Mulligan, Marysville, Calif., served her sister as maid of honor. Joan Morris, Dorothy Patterson and Joan Nelson were bridesmaids. All of the attendants wore floor length frocks of net over tulle with lace bodices in colors of lavender, blue, pink and green; and all carried bouquets and wore floral bandeaus of matching pom-pom chrysanthemums.

Judy and Fayrene Hall, 6 and 4, were flower girls, and wore yellow frocks which were miniature replicas of the other attendants.

Terry Ronningen, 6, and Garry Wilson, 7, ring bearers, carried the

DO-SI-DO CLUB COSTUME PARTY

Do-si-do Hall at the airport was packed Saturday night with a noisy, clamorous crowd of ogres, witches and other bewitched, unidentified characters, who came out to square dance on Halloween.

B. M. Antle, club caller, was lost in the shuffle and couldn't be found until everyone unmasked. Meanwhile, squaring went ahead at top speed under the capable direction of Ernie Dailey, who acted as master of ceremonies, for the early part of the evening.

The dancers let down their hair and took off the false whiskers during the 10 o'clock intermission. After coffee, cider and doughnuts the enthusiastic crowd danced on until 1:30.

Edward Brautlaucht, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Marchington, Mr. and Mrs. Layton Hoback, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Frioux, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. William Lorenz and Mr. and Mrs. Friedman Kirk.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

BONANZA—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hartley entertained Oct. 31 with a small party for their granddaughter Susie Wooten who was 5-years-old.

Susie's cake was bright with Halloween decorations. After she cut it, it was served with ice cream and other party tid-bits.

Those helping Susie celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Clarke, Mike and Dan from Gold Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hartley, Bob and Billy, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wooten and Scott, Cindy and Charlie Dehlinger, Karen Grimes, and Frances DeBel.
