NEW PANCAKE BERET

129

By CAROL CURTIS

They smartest "pancake" of the year is flat, colorful, crocheted, flattering, easy to wear, easy to make! Ours is done in worsted sport yarn in dark red, lipstick red and a sort of purplish red. Crochet it with a double strand of one color, a single strand of each of the other colors for gayest effect. Use navy with varying blues, smoke grey with two darker greys; champagne running into the keep beige shades, white, black and two tones of grey. Do it in all black if you like—it's goodlooking in any color! It can be made in one and one-half hours!

Send 25 cents for the Crocheted Pancake Hat (Pattern No. 129) all crocheting instructions, your name, address, pattern number to Carol Curtis, Herald and News, Box 229, Madison Square Station, New York 10, N.Y.

Patterns ready to fill orders immediately. For special handling of order via first class mail include an extra 5 cents per pattern.

Terrible-Tempered Father Day to Be on Television

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Father Day, the terrible-tempered parent of the stage and screen, will soon be blasting away on the TV screens.

Mr. Day, the central figure of "Life With Father," had a historic run on Broadway, chalking up a record 401 weeks. At one time, four companies were playing the show in the United States. The film version, starring William Powell and Irene Dunne, grossed over five million dollars in this country and Canada alone.

The Day family of 1880 New York will be seen on CBS-TV starting Sunday, Nov. 22. The stars are Leon Ames as father and mother is Lurene Tuttle. He has long appeared in films and she has been radio's busiest actress (She has given up an average 15 shows a week to become Mrs. Day.)

Both players, as well as the four boys who play their sons, have had to submit to red dye jobs on their hair. No, they're not getting ready for color TV. It's just that they all must appear to have the same shade of red hair on the black-and-white picture.

Here to help the show get on the air in the proper spirit is Mrs. Clarence Day, widow of the man who wrote the stories about his irascible father. I found her to be a cheery New Englander of firm convictions.

"We're like that in New England, you know," she said over lunch. "I grew up in Concord, Mass., and my family was inclined to do things according to tradition. I raised my daughter that way. She never was allowed to touch her back to the chair while eating and of course she never put her elbow on the table. Sometimes I think I was too strict, but later at school my daughter said she was glad I had been. She said the girls who didn't have strict upbringing didn't get along as well.

"Perhaps in New England we have too much tradition. Here in the West you don't have enough."

Mrs. Day said she will stick around for a few shows so that the new Days will adhere to the established characters. She advises on the costumes and sees that the scripts keep the spirit of her husband's stories. She performed the same function when the movie was made, but admitted that some things got out of hand.

Helena Rubinstein invents
whipped cream for soft, inviting hands
HAND DELIGHT

Put your hands in Helena Rubinstein's capable hands and they'll lead a softer life than they've ever known. Her new Hand Delight is a beauty-treatment-and-protector made with the most beneficial ingredient known to hands, now in a completely non-sticky form at last! And in its own pressure atomizer that's safely unbreakable, wonderfully convenient and very, very pretty.

Just the right amount of this light, heavenly whipped cream fluffs out at the pressure of your finger...melts into your skin in no time at all. It forms an invisible "glove" that guards you through repeated soakings in soapy water, through cold weather. You'll protect hands with it often...before and after dishes, laundry, exposure... sometimes for the sheer luxury of it, it's so invitingly fragranced, so phenomenally smoothing.

Hand Delight is an economical pleasure, for out of a single dispenser come up to 200 beauty treatments at just 1.25 plus the tax.
