

Truman Sees Free Speech Under Attack

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman says a fear of Communism is being manipulated by a few so as to cause a wave of hysteria in this country.

"Fear is a great silencer and people are being kept quiet for fear of being accused of sympathy with Communism."

"When people become afraid to speak their beliefs or to defend the innocent or to explore new ideas, then freedom is really in danger."

He said he did not mean "we are about to lose these freedoms," but added, "I will say that they are under attack."

Truman was awarded the AJC's 1952 Stephen Wise award for his "consistent and courageous leadership in the cause of civil rights."

The AJC Monday, at the close of its 17th biennial convention, declared in a resolution that the House Un-American Activities Committee, by its investigation of clergymen, "threatens religious freedom in this country."

It called on religious and secular groups that have agreed to help the committee in its probe to withdraw this decision.

The committee has for a long time used "un-American methods" by "its use of discredited witnesses and the irresponsible release of uncorroborated accusations," the congress charged.

The resolution urged that President Eisenhower set up a commission on internal security and individual rights to help "arrest the growing challenge to individual freedom."

Cattleman's Son Succeeds Father

RED BLUFF—William R. (Bill) Owens of Red Bluff, himself a cattleman of many years standing, has succeeded his late father Roy Owens, as a member of the board of directors of the famous Red Bluff Bull Sale.

The elder Owens, who died Oct. 1, was one of the creators of the sale which has grown in 13 years from a local event to the major bull sale in the nation.

Appointment of Owens to succeed his late father was announced by Charles F. Stover, chairman of the Red Bluff Bull Sale committee.

The new member of the board has been a commercial cattleman for many years, operating a herd of 80 cows in Southwestern Texas and in the Klamath Falls, Ore. area. He also handles approximately the same number of horses.

The Red Bluff Bull Sale committee is fortunate in having as sound and able a commercial cattleman as Bill Owens on its board of directors," Stover commented. "We are sure he will continue the same job his father did for 13 years."

Owens is a graduate of California Polytechnic Institute at San Luis Obispo, and was a member of the college judging team when it won the grand champion steer at the Great Western Livestock Show in Los Angeles.
