

Orioles Could Use Players to Go With Franchise

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor
 NEW YORK (NEA)—If you could find a few strong enough, they'd throw you out.

Perini took a reinforced and pretty fair country squad to Sudsville, headed by and splashed with the color of young Eddie Mathews, the new home run king.

Outside of three young and big right-hand pitchers, Don Larsen, Bob Turley and Mike Blyzaka; another right-hand chucker, Duane Pillett; and outfielder Vic Wertz, No. 7 Vecek didn't give Baltimore too much for his money.

And Baltimore long since has been a racing town with 288 days of the runners, not to mention the trotters, and 22 tracks within a No. 7 iron shot.

The University of Maryland, with one of the country's great football teams, has failed to successfully back the bangtails.

Brooklyn knew what it was selling when it dealt Vecek Shortstop Bill Hunter, the Fort Worth shortstop, for $100,000. A season's play demonstrated that the young man can't hit American League pitching and he's just another fielder. Alongside of him is Bobby Young, little more than run o' mine.

Clint Courtney lost his value as a catcher and Les Moss is only a sustaining backstop. Roy Sievers has a bad shoulder and Dick Kryboski won't do at first base. Jim Dyck is barely above Triple A at third base.

Dick Kokos is a pretty good hitter in the outfield, but the Tigers definitely had the right line on Johnny Groth.

So Clarence Miles and his associates will have to find some ball players to keep the customers away from the many open air gambling casinos.

If Del Webb, the Yankee owner who at first opposed the move, had as much sense as he has in the contracting business, he'd slip the new Orioles one of his numerous surplus hands and have the other outfit do likewise.

Baltimore is going to need help in this bold venture.

Until the 1954 season gets under way, Baltimore will live on tradition. To this day, the pennant-winning Orioles of 1894-95-96 remain baseball's most famous club. Managed by Ned Hanlon, he was one of the first players to

KEEPS SPARE HANDY
 ALTON, Ill. (AP)—Anthony McClintock recently broke a leg while playing. It didn't bother him much. He had a friend rush him home where he picked up a spare. Then he returned and finished his match. McClintock lost his right leg in World War II.

"I always keep a spare artificial leg around home just in case of trouble," he says.

Gavilan 8-5 Favorite

Bratton, Kid Mix Tonight

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
 CHICAGO (AP)—Kid Gavilan, razor-sharp and making the 147-pound weight limit without a strain is a solid 8-5 choice to retain his welterweight championship tonight against a threatening and determined Johnny Bratton.

The 15-round fight, promising to be a scorcher, will be televised (NBC) and broadcast (ABC) nationally starting at 10 p.m. (EST). The Chicago area is blacked out on TV, boosting the Chicago Stadium crowd to an expected 17,000 with a net gate of about $130,000.

Bratton, who at 26 has been in the ring professionally for nine years, will receive 20 per cent of the net and $10,000 from a TV cut—in all approximately $36,000 that should get him out of hock after a spending spree as a teenage phenom.

SEVENTH
 Gavilan, making his seventh defense of his crown since taking a 15-round decision from Bratton, then the NBC titleholder, in New York two years ago, will get 40 per cent of the net gate and TV.

It will be the third meeting of the two. Gavilan became the third fighter to fracture Bratton's jaw in their first scrap and Bratton also broke his hand in that match. Later in 1951 they met in an overweight non-title bout at Chicago Stadium that was ruled a draw. Gavilan claimed he was a victim of a home town decision and says: "I whip him for sure this time. . . There are no doubts." Interest in the Cuban Hawk's defense tonight is sharpened by his uninspired job in September at Syracuse against Carmen Basilio. Basilio scored a knockdown and Gavilan was hard pressed to get a decision.

SHED POUNDS
 Gavilan had to shed eight pounds in two weeks to make the 147-pound weight for Basilio. This time he has trained faithfully and should have no excuses if he loses.

In 112 fights, only Ike Williams and Basilio have floored the Kid. Bratton has been down only once, knocked by a guy named Robert Earl in 1945. He got up and chilled Earl in the same round, the third.

If Bratton ever needs a victory it is now. He knows he has everything to gain, and a loss would slide him back into the category of just another welterweight on the peanut circuit.

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP)—Danny Summers, veteran defense star of the Syracuse Warriors in the American Hockey League, is mighty proud of his brother, Bobby, also a sports hero. Bobby is one of Canada's leading jockeys. He had a mount in the Kentucky Derby last spring.

Wisconsin In Way Of Bowl-Favored Illini

By BEN PHEGAR
 NEW YORK (AP)—The Illinois football team, which would like nothing better than to spend the Christmas holidays in California, runs into its biggest stumbling block when it meets Wisconsin at Madison tomorrow.

Unbeaten in the Big Ten, the Illini need one more victory to assure themselves of at least a tie for the conference title and its accompanying trip to the Rose Bowl.

Wisconsin, beaten in the Big Ten family only by Ohio State, still has conference title hopes and Badger Coach Ivy Williamson claims he knows how to stop J. C. Caroline and Mickey Bates.

At East Lansing, Michigan State, the other main candidate for the Big Ten crown, engages Michigan in the television game of the day. The Spartans figure to win. If they do they'll finish the conference with a 5-1 record.

Illinois was ranked third in the nation in this week's Associated Press poll. Michigan State was No. 4.

First-place Notre Dame journeys to Chapel Hill, N. C., to meet North Carolina, the nearest thing to a breather on the Irish schedule. Most folks think the Tar Heels should be given a couple of touchdowns just for showing up.

Maryland, the No. 2 club, plays host to Mississippi, No. 11. Like Notre Dame and West Virginia, Maryland is unbeaten. It was at this point last year too. Then came Mississippi and a 21-14 licking. It looks as if it will be close again.

Fifth-ranking Georgia Tech, which probably will operate without halfback Leon Hardeman, headlines the Southeastern Conference's top attraction at Birmingham against Alabama, where the Crimson Tide are reported to be upset-minded.

Oklahoma has a chance to become the first team to clinch a major bowl bid this season. The Sooners entertain outclassed Iowa State while Kansas State, the second-place team in the Big Seven Conference, is the underdog against Missouri. An Oklahoma victory and a Kansas State loss would wind up the Big Seven race, which carries an Orange Bowl invitation. Oklahoma is ranked No. 6.

UCLA returns to action against Washington after a week's rest. The seventh-ranking Bruins, very much in the Western half of the Rose Bowl picture, can tie for the Rose Conference lead since Stanford will be playing an outside date with San Jose State.

West Virginia, fresh from a couple of close ones against Penn State and Virginia Tech, probably won't find South Carolina much easier but the Mountaineers are expected to win.

Baylor's Bears expect to start another winning streak at the expense of Houston and Texas, conqueror of the Bears last week, entertains Texas Christian.

Three Webfoots May Sit It Out

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Injuries may keep three Oregon reserves on the bench during Saturday's Pacific Coast Conference game with California. Coach Len Casanova said Thursday.

He listed end Emery Barnes, tackle Chuck Laird and guard Don Hedgepeth as doubtful.

CATCHES PARTRIDGE
 BERLIN, N.H. (AP)—Robert Holland got his first partridge of the season. It was wounded by a bedroom screen and retrieved by a three-year-old boy. Holland, a well-known hunter in this area, had tramped through the woods for 15 days with no luck. But one morning he heard a thump at his bedroom window.

Looking out, he saw his three-year-old neighbor holding a dazed partridge.
