

NUPTIAL MASS CELEBRATED AT DALTON-MURPHY WEDDING IN SACRED HEART CATHOLIC CHURCH

MRS. WILLIAM C. DALTON JR. . . who was Julianne Murphy before her wedding Nov. 7. The 9:30 service united two prominent Basin families. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Jerry C. Murphy, 432 N. 10th Street; and is the last of five daughters to wed in Sacred Heart Church. Bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William C. Dalton, Malin.

HER FOUR SISTERS . . . surround the bride before the wedding. They all in turn wore the same wedding gown, veil and slippers at their previous weddings. Nancy (Mrs. Marvin Schultz), matron of honor, holds the mirror for her sister. Her other sisters were bridesmaids. (l to r) Joan (Mrs. Phillip Maechling), Theresa (Mrs. Ed Calhoun) and Pat (Mrs. Carl Coulson Jr.)

MRS. DALTON . . . at the left, mother of the bridegroom, with bride's mother, Mrs. Murphy.

DAN MURPHY . . . with Julianne, who is the fourth sister he has given in marriage. Dan is the only brother of the five Murphy daughters.

— Photos by Guderian

Klamath Falls Shrine Club Annual Dinner Dance

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

ONE OF TOP SOCIAL EVENTS OF YEAR . . . annual dinner dance given by the local Shrine Club Nov. 7 in the Armory. Hospitality hour at 7 p.m., and dinner at 8:30, were followed by dancing. Special feature was the Ben Ali Oriental Shrine Band from Chico. An orchestra of some of the band members played for the dance; and several skits by band members entertained the 560 Shriners and their wives; Daughters of the Nile; and invited guests.

Top row, from the left, 1st picture, Mrs. Tony Webber, Lakeview; Don Kenyon, Assistant Rabbah, Hillah Temple; and Mrs. Kenyon. 2nd, Queen Wilda Tardy of Zuleima Temple No. 13; with her husband, Gene Tardy, Immediate Past Potentate, Hillah Temple; from Grants Pass. 3rd, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Fredrick, general chairman for the evening. 4th, Jake Renie, president

Klamath Falls Shrine Club; and Dr. Louis Ofker, director of the Ben Ali Oriental Shrine Band, admire some of the decorations.

Lower left, Mrs. George Guldager, Princess Royal of Zuleima Temple No. 13; her husband, Dr. George Guldager, High Priest and Prophet, Hillah Temple, from Eugene; George Hillis, Past Potentate, and Ed Ostendorf, Rajah, Hillah Temple. Center of page, from the left, in charge of the Jobs Daughters hat checking concessions, are members Gail Nerseth and Phyllis Dannelley. All money received by them went to Jobs Daughters. Checking their wraps are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Coulson Jr., Tulalake. Lower right, Mrs. Les C. Taylor, Les Taylor, Illustrious Potentate, Hillah Temple; from Medford; and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. (Jake) Renie. Bottom Center, Dr. Ted Lindley, Ed Ostendorf and Willard Ward.