Rainbow Girls Malin Assembly

MALIN — A reception honoring Ruth Kalina, grand representative to the state of Iowa, was held Sunday afternoon Nov. 1 by the Malin Assembly of Rainbow Girls.

The reception was held during the hours from two until four o'clock at the Malin Masonic Hall. Presiding in the east was Daria Sarutski, worthy adviser who introduced the following honorary guests to be introduced and escorted to the east with her, Mrs. Ethel Hamilton, district deputy for Rainbow in Oregon; Marilyn Wilson, worthy adviser of Tulalake Assembly of Rainbow; Jerri Lou Waltemeyer, past worthy adviser of Tulalake assembly; Mrs. Emma White, past mother adviser of Malin Assembly; Mrs. Hazel Bowman, mother adviser of Malin Assembly; and Mr. Hollis Boyd, worthy matron of Tulalake Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. Also escorted and introduced were past matrons of Prosperity Chapter, Mrs. Leah Street, Mrs. Hazel Kalina, Mrs. Marian Wilson and Mrs. Gladys Halousek.

In an addendum given by 12 girls of the Malin assembly, Ruth, grand representative, was honored. The girl addendum was finished with a gift presentation and a bouquet of carnations given the honored guest.

Musical entertainment for the afternoon reception was two vocal soloists, Janet Elmore, accompanied at the piano by Mariena Vacknitz; and a tap dance by Diane Micka, accompanied by Omer Schneider. Piano solos entitled "Dorothy" and "Winter Tales" were played by Marie DeMott.

Following the musical program several were called upon for brief speeches, after which refreshments were served.

SOROPTIMIST

Soroptimists met Thursday, Nov. 12 for a luncheon business meeting in the Winema Hotel, presided over by President Ruth Adams.

Announcements of the annual checkered food sale sponsored by the Soroptimist club, to be held at the hotel dining room, Dec. 3 and the Civic Drama Guild plays sponsored by the Business and Professional Women were made by Mary Bothwell.

Tickets are on sale for the three BFW sponsored plays, "Lo and Bebold," Jan. 23, "Be Your Age," Feb. 20 and "Mr. Roberts," March 2.

A letter of appreciation was read from Mary Jo Huston, attending nurse's school at St. Joseph Hospital, San Francisco, on a $200 scholarship from the Soroptimist Club.

Members voted to purchase two $10 books of UNESCO stamps and to cash a savings bond maturing this month, money to be placed in the project fund.

Members are considering sponsoring a second project for service work in addition to the nurse's scholarship fund.

The Boy's Glee Club of Fremont Junior High presented a group of college songs, under direction of Ruth Lobaugh, music instructor.

The next meeting will be a Thanksgiving program, Thursday, Nov. 19 with Venture Club members sponsored by Soroptimists as guests. Ruth Lobaugh will be chairman.

ANOTHER BIG DAY AT REAMES . . . was the annual Women's Auxiliary fall luncheon, election of officers and the awarding of tournament trophies. The trophies were especially outstanding — lovely sterling silver pieces and combined sterling and crystal; selected and presented by Mrs. Robert Sproat Jr., tournament chairman.

Mrs. H. O. Juckeland was luncheon chairman; and Mrs. Robert Kent, Mrs. Melvin Miller and Mrs. George Clark were decorating committee. The clubhouse was the essence of fall; with colorful autumn leaves, pottery and stuffed pheasants expertly manipulated into the beautiful and unusual table arrangements.
