AFTER THE CEREMONY . . . in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Oct. 22, when the marriage of Jeanne Larson and Ted Paillette was solemnized in a 10 a.m. service read by the Rev. Galen Onstad.

Shower For New Mrs. Snell

LANGELL VALLEY—A very lovely wedding shower was given at the Parish Hall in Langell Valley the afternoon of Nov. 15 in honor of Mrs. Herbie Snell, the former Marianna Heleksson. Hostesses were Mrs. Lloyd Gitt, Mrs. Orville DeVaul, Mrs. Wesley Dearborn, Mrs. Russell Walsh, and Marilee Keyser.

The gifts were arranged on lace covered tables at one end of the large room. A beautiful cake with a big pink heart and the names Frankie and Herbie, were on the refreshment table, flanked with tall candles. After the opening of the gifts a social time was enjoyed.

Those honoring the new Mrs. Snell were Mrs. Willard Noble, Mrs. John Heleksson, Mrs. Bob Colwell, Mrs. Christ Hood, Mrs. Marion Lindsay, Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mrs. Leland Harris, Mrs. Ted Albert, Mrs. Charles Partridge, Mrs. Howard Schmidt, Mrs. Bill Custer, Mrs. Grace Blaser, Mrs. W. D. Campbell, Mrs. Francis Lilly, Mrs. Mae Gale, Mrs. Carroll Brunton, Mrs. Bessie Campbell, Mrs. Howard Koertje, Mrs. Jack Weimer, Mrs. Ishmel Dick, Mrs. Doug Smeicer, Mrs. Kermit Keyser, Mrs. Frank Grobs and Mrs. Merle Settle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Paillette To Be At Home in Astoria

St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the setting for the Oct. 22 wedding of Jeanne Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Larson, 1346 Lakeview Street, to Ted Paillette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Paillette, 2007 Wantland. The service was read at 10 a.m. by the Rev. Galen Onstad.

Autumn flowers were used to decorate the church for the small informal wedding attended by parents and relatives of the young couple. A soft blue suit with white accessories was worn by the bride. She was attended by Nancy Kellogg, KUHS classmate; and Ted was attended by Ross Coble.

Jeanne is a senior at KUHS, and will finish high school in Astoria where Ted is stationed at Tongue Point Naval Base. He is a hospitalman 3rd class, and was with the marines in Korea. He was captured and was a prisoner of war for 10 months; with 9 months to serve at present. The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Astoria, and will be at home, No. 10 Moffett Way.

OTI Faculty Wives Club

Faculty Wives and Women of OTI held their regular meeting on Tuesday evening, Nov. 10.

The business meeting was conducted by the vice president, Mrs. Grant Bailey. Thirty one members and one guest were present. Mrs. Emil Ranninen, whose husband is a new instructor at OTI, was introduced to the club members.

A report was given to the effect that Mrs. Wallace Uerlings, president of the club, had left the hospital and was recuperating at home after major surgery.

Plans were started for a Christmas party scheduled for next regular meeting night, Tuesday, Dec. 8. The husbands will be guests at this party, which will be held at the Student Lounge.

After the business meeting a delicious lunch was served by the social hostesses of the evening, Mrs. Roy Green, Mrs. Edwin Olson, and Mrs. Edwin Stang. Thanksgiving decorations were used. The remainder of the evening was spent playing cards. Special prize was won by Mrs. Charles Jacobi.

Eugene Girl Claimed as Bride In Hometown Church by KF Man

Arrangements of chrysanthemums in fall colors decorated the altar at the First Congregational Church in Eugene, Saturday evening, Oct. 17, for the wedding of Patricia Guntly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Guntly, Eugene; and Jack D. Bronson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bronson, 1709 Bisbee.

Dr. Wesley G. Nickelson officiated at the 8 o'clock single-ring ceremony. Special music was by Lowell Chase, who sang "Calm as the Night" and "I Love Thee." The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of champagne lace and tulle over satin ballerina length. Her fingertip illusion veil was held by a halo type headress. She wore a matched pearl necklace and earrings and carried a cascade bouquet of eucharis lilies.

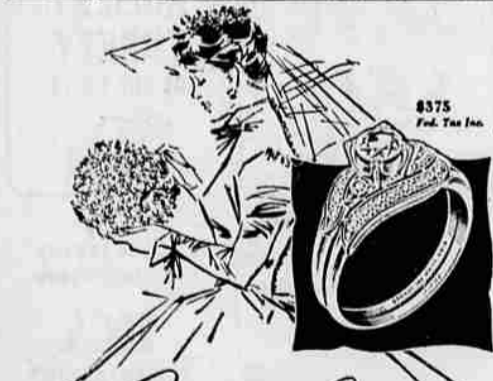

Matron of honor was Mrs. Donald Ruth who wore a ballerina length gown of pale green taffeta with beige velvet sash and beige halcyon-type headress. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaid, Jo-Ann Puseas, wore a ballerina length gown of champagne colored taffeta with brown velvet sash and brown headress. Her bouquet was of yellow chrysanthemums. Stanley Guntly, brother of the bride, was candlelighter. Best man was Arnold Mignaccio and ushers were Earl Hilton and Joe Sellers all of Klamath Falls.

A reception followed in the Wheeler Rooms of the church. Decorations arrangements of fall flowers. Mary Platt was in charge of the guest book. The bride's mother received in a gold tweed suit with brown accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a grey suit with black accessories. Yellow chrysanthemums formed their corsages.

For the wedding trip the bride wore a three piece grey suit with black velvet hat and grey accessories. The couple will live in Eugene while the bridegroom continues his studies at the University of Oregon.
