

Bryngelson-Lacey Wedding Vows Taken In Presence of 500 Guests

MERRILL — Palms, white tapers banked with red carnations and large white chrysanthemums decorated St. Augustine's Catholic Church in Merrill recently, when Helen Lacey and John Bryngelson recited their vows in the presence of nearly 500 guests.

IN ST. AUGUSTINE'S CHURCH . . . scene of the wedding of Helen Lacey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lacey, to John Bryngelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Bryngelson, Mora, Minn. The Lacey name has been a prominent one in the Klamath Basin, where the bride's father has extensive ranching interests.

William (Bill) Falvey and Tom Lacey, brother of the bride. In front; same order, Hazel Fox, bride's niece, flower girl; Jamie Fox, nephew of the bride, ring bearer; Terry Falvey, (carrying a basket of small packages of rice); and Mara Fox, also niece of the bride, flower girl. In other pictures, the new Mr. and Mrs. Bryngelson pose after the ceremony; and in the other, they are about to leave for their honeymoon trip to Minnesota, to visit John's parents and other relatives.

"MAGIC CARPET" — is the phrase suggested by some of the details on Winifred Gillen's European trip — Ott and Claire Ellis received word from Rome that her interesting itinerary includes Naples — Capri — Switzerland — Germany — and 2 wonderful weeks in Paris before sailing home to the U. S.

RUTH KING — recently had a feature story on Minnie Bussey (Minnie Dillard-Davis) who taught school in Klamath County for 33 years—and had the reputation of being a "teacher's teacher."

ARMISTICE DAY — will be observed as Lorene Crawford cheer's birthday anniversary — she's the first child of Dr. and Mrs. Dale N. Scheer (Marilee Crawford) and weighed 5 lbs 12 oz when she arrived in Ontario on Nov. 11 — grandmother Mrs. C. C. Crawford had to make great changes in the date she had set to be with her daughter during the expected event — her granddaughter arrived much before the scheduled date — Mrs. Crawford left Nov. 14 for Ontario.

"EARLY DINNER" — for EARLY SHOOTERS — was served to guests of Peg and Deb Addison at the Yacht Club last Sat night — The Robert Bertches and young son Mike from Eugene were house-guests at the Addison home on Lakeshore Drive — S—o with children adequately taken care of—the adult "early shooters" and other guests shared the early evening of fun and fine food—George Stevenson, the Nelson Reeds, Howard Barnhills, the Frank Jenkins, Orth Sisemores, Richard Smiths, Ed Gearys, Henry Gerbers and the guests from Eugene.

WE'RE EAGER — to see the pictures that were taken at the big party for the King and Queen of Greece in Cali—The Gus Vilhos were there—and are momentarily expecting the pix to arrive.

THE USUAL EXODUS — of football fans are off in all directions to cheer for various teams at various games—THAT presages winter! of which we've had one unpleasant taste—me—I'm agin' it—and will do my usual carping about the snowy season.

A NEW ADDITION — to the Tom E. and Ann Waters household is another son—5 lbs 12, oz—born Nov 15 at 10:30 p.m.—in Klamath Valley—named Thomas Benton after paternal g-father—the new arrival has 2 brothers—Paul—6—and Scott—3—and now there are five grandsons for the senior Tom Waters—dr Margaret Ann and husband Roy Whitlatch have Dick—6—and Jerry—5.
