

Files Calls Garrett Better Than Lujack, Albert

HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—Veteran observers make Stanford's Bob Garrett their all-time T quarterback.

The finest collegiate passer ever saw," says Maxwell, "is the finest college passer ever seen." Garrett's football chronicle can't be left off an All-American team," insists Bud Jones, sports editor of the San Francisco News. "I've never seen a college passer who, two, could pass him one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four, twenty-five, twenty-six, twenty-seven, twenty-eight, twenty-nine, thirty, thirty-one, thirty-two, thirty-three, thirty-four, thirty-five, thirty-six, thirty-seven, thirty-eight, thirty-nine, forty, forty-one, forty-two, forty-three, forty-four, forty-five, forty-six, forty-seven, forty-eight, forty-nine, fifty, fifty-one, fifty-two, fifty-three, fifty-four, fifty-five, fifty-six, fifty-seven, fifty-eight, fifty-nine, sixty, sixty-one, sixty-two, sixty-three, sixty-four, sixty-five, sixty-six, sixty-seven, sixty-eight, sixty-nine, seventy, seventy-one, seventy-two, seventy-three, seventy-four, seventy-five, seventy-six, seventy-seven, seventy-eight, seventy-nine, eighty, eighty-one, eighty-two, eighty-three, eighty-four, eighty-five, eighty-six, eighty-seven, eighty-eight, eighty-nine, ninety, ninety-one, ninety-two, ninety-three, ninety-four, ninety-five, ninety-six, ninety-seven, ninety-eight, ninety-nine, one hundred."

for the Washington Redskins 17 years ago.

"He's a whiz on defense, too," Garrett is the senior who pitched for 324 yards against Southern California, snapping the Pacific Coast Conference record of 308 set by the renowned Bob Waterfield of UCLA against Idaho in 1942.

"That kind of air travel in a big game against the Trojans, noted for their defense, must be listed among the more remarkable football accomplishments."

When Garrett so unexpectedly upset UCLA after Stanford trailed by two touchdowns, Chuck Taylor said his signal-caller was unconscious, meaning he was out of this world. He has remained that way.

With two games to go, and against severe opposition, Garrett had completed 92 of 158 passes for 1360 yards and 13 touchdowns with only five interceptions.

He is fortunate to have three of the cleverest receivers in the college game — ends Sam Morley and Johnny Steinberg and halfback Ron Cook.

"Morley is truly great catching, but is a bit weak on defense," reports Scout Stiles. "Steinberg is better on defense and nearly as good on offense."

Garrett, left-footed, punts and place kicks. He kicked the deciding extra point against UCLA. Stressing his two-wayness, he leads the league in pass interceptions with seven.

To find someone like Minnesota's Paul Giel, Stiles goes all the way back to Morley Drury, the late Howard Harding Jones' magnificent Southern California tailback of the mid-1920s. Stiles nominates Notre Dame's Johnny Lattner, a repeater who does everything, and the Illinois sophomore, J. C. Carline, as the other All-America backs. Carline broke Red Grange's 30-year-old, six-game groundgaining record with 1333 yards.

"UCLA's Paul Cameron is extraordinary," comments Stiles, "but Carline seems to be another Grange, which Cameron is not. Besides, Cameron is weak on pass defense. Cal's Paul Larson is the top optional pass or run quarterback. I've looked at this fall. The most formidable runner on the Pacific coast probably is the 180-pound Southern California halfback, Aramis Dandoy."

Already an all-time T quarterback and a kid who has broken a Red Grange record.

And this with the platoons out the window.

Arcel's Road Show Credited With Keeping Boxing Alive

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—Ramil Arcel had his head cracked open doing it, but the long-time trainer succeeded in putting the breath of life back in boxing just when it was about ready to fall over seriously dead.

The cowardly attack on Ray Arcel in Boston made it plain that somebody violently objected to his putting televised boxing on the road.

But Arcel, who has been in the beat busting business for 39 of his 84 years, has saved the independent promoter who is the life blood of the sport.

In doing so, the Saturday Night Fights, as they are called, have uncovered badly needed new talent. Included here are the welterweights, Carmine Basilio of Syracuse, Boston's Wilbur Wilson and Chicago's Alan Moody. Charlie Goulard, Boston middleweight, is another hot prospect.

It's Sam Silverman, in Chicago and Milwaukee Irving Schenwald, in St. Louis Hans Bernstein, in Syracuse Norman Rothschild, in Northern California and Butte, Mont., it's Sid Fishery, who controls the many art of mangling mugs there with 40 fighters, including Bobo Olson. In Southern California it's the Hollywood American Legion, SO ON.

In Miami, Fla., after the first of the year, it will be Jimmy White, Lou Messina in dear old New Orleans, Ralph Smith in Houston and Max Yeargan in Kansas City and Topeka and so on down the line.

So, you see, there is vastly more to professional boxing now than the One Big Unhappy Monopoly. The Ray Arcel Enterprises, which started with a telephone booth as an office, could well use the larger arenas, but has done mighty well in the smaller ones.

Arcel is first to prove that boxing can live with television provided the site of the match is backed out. Arcel not only gives the local promoter an occasional video shot, but encourages and helps him put on non-TV'd productions.

New Rule Can't Be Blamed

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—The fact that football injuries have increased 30 per cent at one school, the University of Virginia, under the one-platoon system cannot be taken as a conclusive indictment of the new rule.

Many more returns will have to come in, perhaps from every major team in the land, before it can be said for certain that more boys are being hurt this season than last. Any one school is prone some years to suffer a disproportionate series of injuries, as any coach will tell you. It could have happened to the Cavaliers.

If there has been an increase of breaks and sprains nationally, it has not been noticeable in a routine check of the sports pages from every section. The toll seems to be just about normal for a sport that never has been a gentle one.

Hoad In Win Over Rosewall

By GORDON TAIT

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Young Lewis Hoad, who bowled over Tony Trabert, the U.S. champion in the semi-finals, followed through Saturday by beating his Australian countryman, Ken Rosewall, to win the New South Wales singles tennis championship.

Hoad, who'll be 19 on Monday, had to battle every step of the way before overcoming his 19-year-old opponent in a 2½ hour struggle before a capacity crowd of 11,000. The scores were 8-6, 4-6, 9-7, 10-8.

THRILLING

Hoad, who has been playing the best tennis of his career, finished the match in thrilling style.

Behind 8-7 in the fourth set and with Rosewall having set point, Hoad whipped over a forehand return of service for deuce. Then he forced two errors from Rosewall to tie at 8-8.

This apparently was the turning point. Between games Rosewall received attention for a blistered right hand. After that Ken won just two points as Hoad quickly won the next two games.

CRISP

The last was a love game on Rosewall's services, a crisp cross-court volley gave Hoad set and match point.

Rosewall lost the first set when his racket fell from his hands, after serving. Hoad's return went right by him for set point.

After the match Hoad told reporters "I think I can get a little better before the Davis Cup." He referred to the challenge round matches next month at Melbourne.

Landy Runs 4:09.2 Mile

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP)—John Landy, the Australian who started the track world last December by running a 4:02.1 mile, ran his first mile of the new season Saturday. He was clocked in 4:09.2 over the Olympic Park course.

Before the race he declared he had no intention of trying for Gunder Haegg's world record of 4:01.4. At the finish he had virtually stopped to a walk, but still won by 110 yards.

"I could have turned in a 4:07 mile today," Landy said later. "But it was not worth it. The atmosphere was so heavy it was putrid. I was not at my best by a long way. I just kept plugging along feeling all the time I was in a boiling bath."

The temperature was 86. The humidity was high with gusty winds. Nevertheless he easily bettered his first performance of last season when he ran a 4:17 mile.

Smith, Nelson Dake and Jenner scored for Monroe. Crowover got two more for winners.

Steelers Next For Cleveland

By SHELDON SAKOQITZ

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, striving to become pro football's first undefeated team since the Chicago Bears won 11 conference games in 1942, put their eight-game victory streak on the line against the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday in one of the top weekend attractions in the National Football League.

The Chicago Cardinals visit Philadelphia tonight while Sunday's action includes Detroit at the Chicago Bears, Los Angeles at Baltimore, San Francisco vs Green Bay at Milwaukee and Washington at New York.

Otto Graham and company seem to be getting better as the season progresses and they're rated a 10-point favorite to lick the Steelers for the second time. In their previous meeting Cleveland won 34-16.

Detroit, which took over the Western Conference lead last week and is a half-game ahead of Los Angeles, rules a 7½-point choice to turn back the improving Bears. The defending champion Lions have a 6-2 record while Chicago has won two, lost five and tied one.

FAVORED

The Rams, who tied the Cardinals a week ago, hope to get back on the victory trail at the expense of Baltimore. Los Angeles (5-2-1), runnerup to Detroit, is favored by 14 points over the Colts (3-5-0).

San Francisco, after bowing to Cleveland last week to drop out of a first place tie in the Western division, should find the going a lot easier against Green Bay.

The high-scoring Philadelphia Eagles still have a mathematical chance to overhaul the Browns and they're favored by 14 points to overpower the winless Cardinals and keep their faint hopes alive. Philadelphia has won five straight and its overall record is 5-2-1.

In the only game which has no hearing on either league race, the New York Giants are a slight choice to shade the Washington Redskins.

Hayward Smashes Record

MOTSPUR PARK, England (AP)—Wally Hayward, 45-year-old South African, set a world record for running Saturday — covering 15½ miles, 562 yards in 24 hours.

Hayward had to be assisted off the tiny Motspur Park cinder track. He flopped exhausted on a dressing room bench and scarcely seemed interested as aides told him he had smashed every known record from eight hours up.

During the monotonous jogging around the oval track he lost seven pounds.

On hand to cheer Hayward home was a 70-year-old Canadian, Arthur Newton, who set the old mark of 152 miles, 540 yards in 1931. Hayward topped that distance at 22 hours, 41 minutes, 21 seconds.
