Beta Sigma Phi Sponsors Plans For Nu Phi Mu

Final plans for the organization of a local Nu Phi Mu sorority have been completed, and the program for the rushers is underway. Nu Phi Mu, an international organization, is the junior affiliate of Beta Sigma Phi and is being formed under the sponsorship of the three local Beta Sigma Phi chapters. Xi Delta, Kappa and Tau. Mrs. John (Wanda) O'Brien of Kappa chapter will serve as director for the new sorority.

The Greek letters Nu Phi Mu stand for youth, friendship and happiness. The purpose of Nu Phi Mu is to create and maintain an organization for young women in their late teens and early twenties dedicated to the promotion of culture and understanding among its members through a program of community service and benevolent undertakings, and through discussion and study of the liberal arts, the fine arts, politics, history and economics, and all other branches of learning. The first chapters were founded in 1930, and became international when the first Canadian chapter was formed in 1944.

Today there are 50 chapters and 10,000 members. Planning together, the members decide on the carry out all their own activities. Cultural programs are selected from a series of outlines prepared by the international office, and these are discussed at meetings held twice a month, with any organizing help that is necessary from the Beta Sigma Phi adviser. Members are admitted by invitation, and Beta Sigma Phi members have been busy the past weeks with the project. An interesting rushing program has been arranged for the "little sister" sorority, beginning with a luncheon party to be held on Tuesday, Nov. 24.

The rush will also be a model meeting held at later dates. Anyone interested in further information may obtain it by calling Luella Murphy, 2-3510, or Wanda O'Brien, 2-3050.

Pete Olsen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Iver Olsen, came to Oregon from Norway in 1880—73 years ago. Of all the members of this family, well established as Oregon pioneers—the Olsens' other daughter, Gertrude (Mrs. Gordon Shirley) has an out-of-Oregon address. She and her husband and children, Alice Ann, Laura Lee and son Gordon, live in Hanford, Calif.

The two Olsen sons, Ivan, his wife and daughters, Barbara and Carol; and Raymond and his wife and son Lee, live in Madras and Roseburg, respectively. Daughter Alice is only child living in Klamath Falls.

From out of town for the celebration, were Mr. and Mrs. Hans Olsen and Tony (Mr. Olsen's brother and family); Mr. and Mrs. George Olson (his nephew), from Silverton; Mrs. Oscar Olsen, Portland (who celebrated her Golden Wedding in March this year); Mrs. Anne Hansen, Astoria; and Mattie Olsen's brothers and wives, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Woodside, Portland; and Mr. and Mrs. Dee Woodside, Maupin.

Mrs. Vitus gave the anniversary party, and the other three children presented their parents with a miniature evergreen tree—sprayed with glittering gold—bountifully decorated with silver dollars wrapped in gold foil—and at the very top was a $100 bill. A lively contest ensued after the children announced that the $100 went to the parent who picked the most gold-wrapped dollars off the tree.
