

Well-Known Merrill Families United In First Presbyterian

MERRILL — Members of two well known families exchanged wedding vows at a 4 p.m. ceremony held on Sunday, Nov. 19, at the First Presbyterian Church in Merrill. The bride, Joan Dorelle Drager, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. (Lou) Drager, Malin; and the bridegroom, Doyle J. Haskins is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Luther Haskins of Merrill.

Joan's bridal gown was of white satin and Gauntly lace. The fitting bodice and long sleeves were lace; and the full gathered skirt, ending in a court train, was of satin with an insert of lace down the front. The lovely neoprene holding the three-quarter length veil was dotted with rhinestones. Her jewelry was a gold locket, a gift of the bridegroom. Somewhat both "old and borrowed" was a lace handkerchief, which had belonged to her great-grandmother, she had the traditional blue garter and penny in her shoe.

The bridal bouquet was of Cattana oreanus with stephanotis. Her father escorted her down the aisle and gave her in marriage.

The Rev. George Milne read the service before a background of baskets of large white carysanthemums, orchid carnations, palms, and lilies in the background, which were lit before the ceremony by Leonard Will and LaVerne Haskins.

Attendants were Mrs. Leonard Will, sister of the bridegroom, and two cousins of the bride, Sharon and Betty Kothhoff. All wore identical gowns of net over tulle, with long, matching slippers and headbands.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Will, wore mint green; her nosegay bouquet was fashioned of pink rosebuds, white carnations, and stephanotis, with a gold lace frill.

Betty and Sharon wore lavender; their bouquets were of yellow rosebuds, carnations and stephanotis, with silver lace frills.

Lowell Snapp served as best man, and ushers were Leonard Will and LaVerne Haskins, brother-in-law and brother of the bridegroom.

Organist, Mrs. E. I. Gray, Malin, accompanied the soloist, Mrs. George Fabianek of Tulelake.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Drager wore a brown crepe afternoon dress, with velvet trim and matching accessories. Her corsage was of Carica roses, Mrs. Haskins was dressed in navy crepe, matching accessories, and wore a corsage of garnette roses.

The reception was held in the social parlor adjoining the church, Mrs. Paul Kothhoff, the bride's aunt, served the cake. At the coffee service were Mrs. Woodrow Routs, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Frank Lovejoy, the bride's cousin. Mrs. Elmer Prater presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Halbert Wilson and Mrs. Roy McNeill assisted about the room.

The guest book was passed by Betty McVay and Janet Drager; and Dolores and Yvonne Conner were at the gift table.

For travel, Joan wore a beige knit suit, brown coat, and an orchid from her bridal bouquet was pinned at the shoulder.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Haskins left by train for San Francisco to board a United Airlines plane for Detroit. After purchasing a new car, they will drive to New York City, down the eastern seacoast to Florida, and return home through the southern states. They expect to be away one month, and upon their return will live in their ranch home near Tulelake.

Among the many guests present for the ceremony were the bride's maternal and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kottinos of Merrill, and Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Drager of Albany, Oregon. Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Frank Lovejoy, Lebanon; Mrs. Elmer Prater, Madras; and Mrs. A. W. Drager and family, Roseburg; Mrs. Woodrow Routs, Bieber; Ada North, McCracken, Kansas; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Morton and Linda, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shinn and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hansen, all of Medford.

Island Theme At CDA Card Party

Around 300 people took an arm chair trip to Hawaii, via the annual Catholic Daughters card party.

The island theme was carried out in the napkins, on which was printed the traditional greeting, "Aloha," the refreshments of pineapple upside down cake and coffee, and a Hawaiian scene constructed out of pasteboard with a sky blue background.

Around the room were displayed several articles from Hawaii, belonging to Mrs. Carl Coulson Jr., Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. Martin Conlon, Mrs. Otto Ellis and Mrs. Kenneth Moore.

Hostesses for the party, held in the parish hall, wore paper leis in keeping with their Aloha theme. Players' tables were imprinted with a picture of a hula dancer; printing for scoring was done by Mrs. Robert Smith.

A prize was awarded all of the 64 tables playing, and the special prize was awarded Mrs. Otto Ellis.

The party was sponsored by the Catholic Daughters of America, Klamath Court No. 1235, and was under the direction of Mrs. John Kennedy, Mrs. Otto Smith and Mrs. Mike Lavenik.

8th Birthday

MACDOEL—Mrs. Ewald Frost and Mrs. Steve Eskildsen were hostesses, at the Eskildsen home, at a party for their niece, Lynda Holbrook, on her eighth birthday anniversary, Nov. 6.

The afternoon was spent playing games and party favors were passed out.

Refreshments of ice cream and punch were served with the heart-shaped birthday cake to the guests of honor, her aunts, Diana Pettigrew, Sheila Winebarger, Marcella Holden, Susan Kaylor, Rochelle Cordis, Tommy and Oda Eskildsen, Sylvia Holbrook and Maryeda Frost.

HER WEDDING . . . was an event of fall in the First Presbyterian Church in Merrill. The bride, upper left, is the former Joan Dorelle Drager, and her husband, shown with her as they cut the wedding cake, is Doyle J. Haskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Luther Haskins. Parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. (Lou) Drager, are shown on the page, above, top picture, the bride with her father as they enter the church; and in the circle, Mrs. Drager hands her daughter the bridal bouquet.

Lower left, is a pretty group, including her bridesmaids, left, Sharon (adjusting the train), and Betty Kothhoff, cousins of the bride; and at right, Mrs. Leonard Will, matron of honor and sister of the bridegroom. After a month's honeymoon trip by train to San Francisco; by plane to Detroit to pick up a new car, they will drive to New York City, down the Eastern coast to Florida; and return home through the Southern states. They will live in their ranch home at Tulelake, where he is in business. —Photos by Ferebee

ANW Members Peruse Scrap-Books On Oregon Compiled by Mrs. W. Jones

Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, 219 Pine, was hostess at the ANW Club, Nov. 19. Last year's art and needle society's president, Mrs. Z. L. Powell, and guest of the afternoon Mrs. M. Stewart Biden assisted Mrs. Wattenburg in serving a 1 p.m. dessert to the following members: Mrs. Harold M. Brown, Mrs. J. C. Hunt, Mrs. C. H. Underwood, Mrs. W. P. McMillan, Mrs. R. H. Anderson, Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, Mrs. Marion Hanks and Mrs. Carey M. Ramsby.

Mrs. Wilbur Jones, member of ANW Club, and well known Oregon historian, now living at 30 Lotus Road, Pittsburg, Calif., was well represented at the meeting—when a letter from her was read (including the above address) and a number of historically important scrap-books compiled by her were perused by the group. One bulged with many pictures and clippings of early days in Southern Oregon—and another gave the history of Tulelake chapter Daughters of the American Revolution with detailed facts in the many pages of clippings and pictures. Mrs. D. V. Kuykendall, 646 California Ave., hostess for Dec. 2, announced that next meeting would be a 2 p.m. dessert instead of 1 p.m.

If you are reducing, try this for a mid-morning snack and pick-up, or for a first course at lunch or dinner. Put about a cup and a half unflavored gelatin over the juice and stir well. Place over moderate heat and stir until the gelatin dissolves and tomato juice is hot. Nice to drink!

Delta Kappa Gamma Meeting

The home of Nell Olson, 2529 King was the scene of the regular meeting of Alpha chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma, Saturday, Nov. 7. Hostesses for the dessert were, Florence Gilliam, Irma Wauchope, Augusta Dunbar and Nell Olson.

Mabel Humble, president, conducted the business meeting. Lantelle Lemont, became a member of Alpha chapter by transfer from Alpha Omicron chapter at Devils Lake, Minn. Miss Lemont is a member of the local high school faculty.

Isabelle Bixner, chairman of the membership committee, requested names of possible new members to be submitted at once. Mrs. Bixner also asked for material on any Oregon pioneer teacher. Marguerite Parker, service committee chairman, announced the purchase of a Bible for the children's chapel of the Presbyterian church. This Bible is a memorial honoring a Klamath pioneer teacher, Mrs. Ida J. Gerber, whose daughter, Stella Bowin, is a member of Alpha chapter. An appropriate plate will mark the Bible which will be a part of the chapel.

Velma Ternery, apron project chairman, made a report on the making and sale of the aprons. There have been made for some time by members of the chapter, and may be ordered.

Beulah Elliott, program chairman, presented a panel on International Relations. Elda Fletcher spoke on Indo-China, stressing its importance in the production of tin and rubber. This section of the world is now a "hot spot" due to Russia's interest in its products. Isabelle Bixner showed films of Malaya that gave an insight as to its occupation and people.

Helen Budd, a member of Zeta chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma in Kentucky, was a visitor. She now lives in Hemet, Calif.

WCSO Study Group
The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church have completed a four weeks' study of missions, both foreign and domestic. Two hour classes were held each week with Marian Smyth in charge.
The classes were well attended and as a result, the group decided to increase free will donations to a mission field, specifically named at a later date.
