

Sojourners Dinner Dance In Pine Grove Room

UPPER LEFT . . . Part of the large crowd at the Sojourners annual fall dinner dance in the Willard Hotel, Nov. 14. The club is steadily growing, and continues to make it easy for newcomers to Klamath Falls to have a social life and make friends.

Upper right, committee members, front row (l to r), Mrs. Walter H. Hoag, chairman of the dinner dance; Mrs. Clark Blair, Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Leslie, publicity chairman;

Mrs. C. E. Chase, decorations chairman. Back row, same order, Clark Blair, Mrs. H. L. Robertson, president of Sojourners, and her husband; and C. E. Chase.

Picture lower left, from the left, back row, Mrs. L. E. Haugh, Del Jones, Mrs. Emil Raninen, wife of a new instructor at OTI; Mrs. Del Jones, Emil Raninen and Lavern C. Watrud. Three in front, same order, Mrs. C. E. Chase, L. C. Chase and Mrs. Watrud.

—Photos by Floyd

SOROPTIMIST

WSCS Meeting At Fort Klamath

"Great Moments In The Lives of People When They Give Thanks to God," a deeply moving, inspirational talk, was given by the Rev. Lloyd B. Holloway, pastor of the First Methodist Church at the luncheon meeting of the Soroptimist Club at the Winema Hotel, Nov. 19. The talk was illustrated by a film strip and traced the humble appreciation of the human race to the Creator down through the ages.

Venture Club members sponsored by the Soroptimists were guests for the Thanksgiving program that put members and guests "in the mood" for the holiday.

The Rev. Holloway gave the invocation, Ruth Lobang, program chairman, introduced Joan Rubane, student at Fremont Junior High who played a piano solo and Robert Ellingson Jr., president of the Rotary Club, who sang, "Give Thanks and Sing," and "I Love Life" with Eloise McLayre at the piano.

The unusually beautiful Thanksgiving table decor was the gift of Rita DePew. The floral arrangement on the main table was of pink shaded snap dragons and violets. Tapers in autumn shades and small figures kneeling in supplication centered the other tables.

PORT KLAMATH — Convening at two o'clock Thursday, Nov. 12, members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church were guests for a no-hostess luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson at the Nicholson ranch. The regular monthly business and social hour were held in the living room which was lavishly decorated with arrangements of pastel and bronze chrysanthemums brought from Rogue River valley by Mrs. Myrtle Denton.

The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, president.

The monthly financial report was given by the treasurer, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and routine matters were discussed.

The current project being undertaken by the church group is obtaining new pews for the local church, and a recent special meeting of the committee resulted in purchasing of necessary lumber from Clay Thomas, operator of a portable sawmill on nearby Fort Creek, Richard H. and Carl Wilson, skilled in this line of work, have consented to build sufficient pews for the church, and will start work soon on building the first one to be used as a sample to be submitted for approval before constructing the remaining pews. It is hoped that the project will be completed by Easter of next year. The society's special pew fund and individual case contributions form Fort Klamath residents will finance the church improvement plan.

Further discussion was held in regard to the proposed study period to be held during the coming months by the group, and it was tentatively decided to meet on the second Friday of each month. "The Prophet Jeremiah," by Harold C. Case, plus "The Book of Jeremiah," will be study material, and several copies as well as a guide book have been ordered. Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams will lead the study and discussion.

Mrs. Howard Commons, leader of the local Intermediate Methodist Youth group, announced that a trip from a dessert and candy sale held by the girls Oct. 31 in the C.I. clubhouse, a sum of nearly $17.00 had been realized and given to the Korean milk fund.

Joining the local church society at this meeting were Mrs. Commons and Mrs. Gene A. Page; and by the latter becoming a member of the group, all women of the Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church now belong to the society, making the membership one hundred per cent.

At the close of the business session, Mrs. Edmund Stanton, wife of the Fort Klamath pastor, was the surprised recipient of a large box, decorated in pink and blue ruffled crepe paper, and overflowing with pretty packages presented to Mrs. Stanton in anticipation of a "blessed event" which will occur in late December. Assisting Mrs. Stanton in opening and recording the gifts were Mrs. Harry Orem and little daughter Ann.

Dainty refreshments served later in the afternoon were in the pink and blue shower theme, as were also all appointments. Present were Mrs. Edmund Stanton, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. Edith Moon, Mrs. Howard Commons and Mary Kay, Mrs. Donald P. Veitch, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. Harry Orem and Ann, Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams, Mrs. Gene A. Page and Gayle Opal, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer, and two special guests, Mrs. Joanna Taylor and Mrs. William A. Page.

Sending gifts to Mrs. Stanton were the following: Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine, Mrs. T. R. (Ted) Nicholson, Mrs. Myrtle Denton, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. William Zambum, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley, Mrs. J. L. (Doc) Helms, Mrs. Ralph Vaden and Mrs. Richard O. Varnum.

On the following afternoon, the Society sponsored a silver tea at the home of Mrs. Varnum, with Mrs. Brewer and Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson co-chairmen in charge of all arrangements. The tea table was lovely, with late fall chrysanthemums in bronze and gold used in combination with yellow tapers in crystal holders. Presiding at the silver tea and coffee services were the president and past president of the society, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley and Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, respectively. All proceeds will go into the special pew fund.

THE RAILROAD HOUR IS COMING MONDAY TO KFJI

FAIR PRICES
FINES PHOTOGRAPHY
STUDIO PHONE 4526

STUDIO

706 MAIN ST.
Messina - Underwood's Camera Shop

ELKS and LADY ELKS ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO THE THANKSGIVING DANCE Elk's Temple

Wednesday, November 25
Music by McDonald-Morgan

Cocktail Hour 8:00 to 10
Dancing 10:00 to 2:00

FREE PRIZES FORMAL FOR LADIES ADMISSION $2.00 (Tax Inc.)

RECENT VISITORS . . . at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Jeffers, 2143 Garden, were their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lester (Irene) Lindon, and 5 1/2 months old Diana Lee. The young misses dad is at present operating a service station in San Pedro, after serving in the U. S. Navy. He attended KUHS prior to enlisting in 1941.

—Photo by Molotore and Wilson

BIRTHDAY PARTY

CHEMULT — Little Marie Galbreath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Corwin Galbreath of Chemult celebrated her third birthday, Friday, Nov. 13, with a host of little friends. After opening the many gifts the guests were served birthday cake, punch and ice cream.

Those present were: Diane, Darlene and Dawn Eylon, Dick and Cathie Carlson, Dickie Searcy, Kathie Farris, Shirley Ramsey, Marilyn and Donnie Bourne, Trudy Stockman, Lynda Jessup, Jimmy and Bobby Galbreath and Bonnie and Ernie Taylor. Several mothers of small fry accompanied their youngsters.

Sojourners Dinner Dance

Elaborate table decorations of late fall and Thanksgiving season greeted the eyes of those attending

Surprise Party

BONANZA — A lovely surprise birthday party was given at the Carl home Nov. 13 in honor of the 17th birthday of Betty Ralph. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Norval Carl, Mrs. Virgil Schmoer, and Ruth Ralph.

Following an evening of games and fun, delicious refreshments were served. A beautifully decorated cake centered the refreshment table.

Present were Alice Graves, Marie Lee, Janey Dixon, Nancy Perry, Karen Schmoer, Mary Ralph, Louise Schmoer, Mary Anne Leavitt, Ethel Perry, Donna Ralph, Virgie Schmoer, Ronald Ketchum, Carl, Jimmy Ralph, Dale Perry, Dolbert Settle, Mrs. Ralph and the honored guest and the hostesses.

Worthy Matron OES Entertains

Courtesy girls, pro-tem officers and past matrons of Aloha Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, were honored at a tea, Saturday, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. Elmer Harnden, 636 Pacific Terrace.

The rooms were decorated with fall flowers and berries. The tea table had grapes in a beautiful crystal cornucopia backed with blending tapers.

Pouring during the tea hours were: Mrs. Ed Chilcote, Mrs. Alva Oldham, Mrs. Paul Jones, Mrs. Earl Sheridan, Mrs. O. E. Powell and Mrs. Raymond Owens. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. W. L. Poole and Mrs. Herman Gisvold.

Here's an easy buffet lunch dish. Open a couple of cans of Norway sardines, turning the tops of the tin back carefully so they look neat. Put the sardines, right in their cans, on a large serving tray with deviled eggs, water creess or other greens, radishes, carrot strips, black olives and snap beans or cauliflowerettes cooked and marinated in a French dressing. Serve a hot soup as the first course and end with a substantial dessert.

the Sojourners fall dinner dance.

The Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel was the gathering place for the Sojourners Club gala event Saturday night, Nov. 14. Twenty-seven couples enjoyed an evening of dining and dancing.

Special prizes were won by Mrs. Georgia M. Jefferies and Del Jones.

The regular Wednesday afternoon meeting of Sojourners Club will be held Nov. 23 at the Willard Hotel. No-hostess luncheon 12:30 p.m.

for festive days..

... when the ripened fields have given forth their mellow richness, and gracious taint throughout the land are set, with the sparkling loveliness of Wallace "Third Dimension Beauty" Sterling. Seven exquisite patterns.

Waltz of Spring

Romance of the Sea

Grand Colonial

Stradivari

Sir Christopher

Rose Point

Grande Baroque

see them today at

Picky's

700 Main St. Phone 3151

FORMAL WEAR RENTED

TUXEDOS or WHITE DINNER JACKETS

Sizes to 46 . . . in Longs, Shorts and Regulars

Make Reservations Now for the Coming Events.

Dick Reeder is Always Glad to Cash Your Pay Check

DICK Reeder's STORE FOR MEN