A CANDLELIGHT SERVICE... In the First Methodist Church, Nov. 7, united Marian Renee Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Carson, Midland Road; to Richard Lee Derby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Derby, 720 Wocus. The 8 p.m. ceremony was read by the Rev. Lloyd Holloway; and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Derby-Carson Rites Nov. 7 In First Methodist Church

An 8 p.m. candlelight service in the First Methodist Church was read by the Rev. Lloyd Holloway, Nov. 7, uniting Marian Renee Carson and Richard Lee Derby in marriage. Bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Carson, Midland Road; and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Derby, 720 Wocus. The bride was given in marriage by her father; wedding music was played by Mrs. Gordon Morris; who also accompanied the bridegroom's vocal solo, "O Promise Me." The wedding gown was of white Chantilly lace, satin and many yards of tulle. The bodice was of lace as were the long fitted sleeves. An off-the-shoulder effect was achieved with scalloped detail of the lace on the choker neckline yoke of tulle. The floor length skirt featured four rows of lace inserted tulle with graduated fullness to the wide hemline and four-foot train. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white roses. The "something old and borrowed" was a hand made handkerchief edged with lace tatting, which had belonged to the bride's grandmother. She wore the traditional blue garter and a lucky charm was in her slipper. The generously gathered fingertip veil of tulle was a filmy cascade from the tulle of seed pearls. Making arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Robertson, chairman; assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hopson, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tucker and Dr. and Mrs. John Merryman. Dancing will be to the music of Sync Halaas and a midnight supper will be served.

Surprise Party Honors Couple

Exchanging vows in Reno Friday, Nov. 6, were Lucille Austin and Floyd Whitlatch both of Merrill. Mrs. Whitlatch is chief operator for the Columbia Utilities Company, and they will live in Merrill where Whitlatch is troubleshooter for the company. A surprise party was given for the newlyweds Monday evening by the company employees at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kirby, with Mr. and Mrs. John Kirby, Medford, assisting. About 40 guests were present and a complete silver service for eight was given the honored guests. A beautiful three tiered wedding cake centered the refreshment table. A successful business executive declares that "a cake of soap and a lipstick are all the cosmetics a working girl should indulge in—at least while she's on the job."

SOME SWEET SCENES FROM A SWEET WEDDING... happiness expressed in all the smiles in the above picture were evident throughout the ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Nov. 1, when Marian Lee Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lessert, Klamath Agency, and Robert McDole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy McDole, Ordinance, Ore. The Rev. Galen Onstad officiated at the 3:30 p.m. service. MR. AND MRS. ROBERT MCDOLE AT HOME IN FT. KLAMATH AFTER TRIP TO COAST

St. Paul's Episcopal Church was the setting for a pretty and impressive wedding, Nov. 1, when Marian Lee Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lessert, Klamath Agency, and Robert McDole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy McDole, Ordinance, Ore., exchanged nuptial vows in a 3:30 p.m. service read by the Rev. Galen Onstad before a background of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums. The bride was escorted to the chancel rail by her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a white floor-length gown of nylon embroidered net, styled with a full satin under-skirt edged with a full net ruffle; and the strapless, snug-fitting bodice was topped with a long-sleeved jacket of the same embroidered net. A crown of net encrusted with sequins and seed pearls held her fingertip veil. Her corsage was a small arrangement of stephanotis tied with satin streamers and centered with a white orchid. Mrs. Lessert wore a Parma violet soft wool suit with gray accessories; and an orchid shoulder corsage. Mrs. McDole chose a wine crepe afternoon dress with black accessories; and her corsage was the same as Mrs. Lessert's.

The reception was in the parish hall of the church immediately after the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Butler, Klamath Agency; and Mrs. LeRoy Forest, Albany, Calif., poured; Mrs. William Rogers, Klamath Agency, cut the cake; Marilyn Hayne, Fort Duchesne, Utah, assisted; and Mrs. H. G. Wilson, Medford, registered the guests. For travel, the new Mrs. McDole wore a tan suit with poodlecloth jacket, and black accessories. After a trip along the Oregon coast to Newport, the couple is at home in Fort Klamath. Marian is a graduate of Blackfoot High School, Blackfoot, Idaho, class of '52; and is now employed as a clerk on the Tribal Loan Board, Klamath Agency. Her husband was graduated from Ontario High School in 1948, and from Oregon State College in 1952. He is employed by the United States Indian Service.—Solt Moisture Conservation Division. He was transferred to the Yakima Reservation to the Klamath Reservation in September of this year, where he is stationed as soil scientist.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elroy McDole, Mrs. Elizabeth McDole, Ordinance, Ore.; Mrs. Bertha Brownlee, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Orlan Bolton, Esparta, Calif.; Mrs. Fred P. Hayne, Marilyn Hayne, Fort Duchesne, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Forest, Albany, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wilson, Medford; Mrs. Cherry Robbins, White Swan, Wash.; Irene Hidalgo, Fort Hall, Idaho; Petra Hidalgo, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ledbury, Gresham, Ore.; Mrs. Marvin Black, Salem; Mrs. Delores Busby, Toppensish, Wash.; and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Olson, Corvallis.

SCALLOPED POTATOES
Use that last cup of cooked chicken, ham or turkey to make a casserole dish with scalloped potatoes. Gently mix together the diced ham or fowl, with one can of condensed cream or chicken or mushroom soup, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, pepper, 1/4 cup finely chopped onion, 5 cups sliced, cooked potatoes, 1 tablespoon butter and 2 tablespoons diced pimiento (optional). Four mixture into lightly greased casserole. Dot top with butter. Cover; bake at 400 degrees for 20 minutes. Uncover to bake the last 10 minutes so potatoes are browned on top. Serves six.

Reames to Stage "Little Reno"

Members of Reames Golf and Country Club will enjoy an informal evening of games and dancing Saturday night, Nov. 21, from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m., when the clubhouse will be converted into a "Little Reno." Making arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. Harold L. Robertson, chairman; assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hopson, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tucker and Dr. and Mrs. John Merryman. Dancing will be to the music of Sync Halaas and a midnight supper will be served.

QUICK CHEESE SAUCE

A rich sauce to serve with cooked broccoli (enough for one package of the frozen vegetable) can be quickly made with a can of condensed cream of mushroom soup blended with 1-3 cup milk. You can make this a mushroom-cheese sauce by adding 1/2 cup shredded cheese to the hot soup, stirring until blended.
