TID-BITS FOR YOUR GUESTS HIGHLIGHT HOLIDAY FARE

Easy-to-make appetizers, that stimulate the appetite rather than satisfy, are fun to serve before dinner to your Thanksgiving guests, particularly when the preparation can be done days in advance.

Pictured here are spicy little tid-bits made from cereals. The recipe came to us from Mrs. Floyd Landon, wife of the Oregon manager for Associated Press. Caroline always shows up with something entirely different in the line of nibbling material at newspaper conventions and, although a great many of her concoctions are original, she always graciously shares recipes. For these she uses cereals you can buy on your grocer's shelves—Cheerios, Wheat Chex, Rice Chex, little slim pretzels and Spanish peanuts. Mix all together in largest mixing bowl and butter as you would pop corn using a quarter of a pound of melted butter to which has been added two tablespoons Worcestershire sauce and a good dash of liquid smoke. Mix with onion salt, garlic salt, monosodium glutamate, chili powder and powdered curry. Seasoning should be to taste. Two tablespoons of cur-may like more or less. They should be spicy, but with a gentle "marriage" of the various seasonings. These can be made in advance but it is suggested that they be poured onto a flat cookie sheet and crisped, not toasted, in the oven for a few minutes the day they are to be served.
