Milk to Go Up in Spots

PORTLAND (AP)—The state Milk Marketing Administration Wednesday ordered an increase in the minimum price of milk that is expected to make a 1 cent boost in nine counties.

The order makes 23 cents a quart the minimum which can be charged for standard milk in Multnomah, Washington, Clackamas, Columbia, Yamhill, Polk, Marion, Wasco and Hood River counties.

William Weidel, milk marketing administrator, said that at the producer level the order adds 3 cents a pound butterfat, but makes no change for nonfat solids. This, he said, was a point sought by Jersey and Guernsey breeders who had complained that earlier orders had favored those with low butter fat producing breeds.

RED AID
TOKYO (AP)—Peiping radio said today Chinese Communist soldiers are helping to rebuild Pyongyang, the rubble capital of North Korea.
