

METLER-KARNES RITES SOCIAL EVENT OF FALL

MRS. HAROLD METLER . . . the former Betty Karnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vinton Karnes, Lakeshore Drive, employed interesting shades of blue with white throughout her wedding color scheme. Her marriage to the son of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Metler, 2927 Bisbee, was solemnized in the First Presbyterian Church, Nov. 29 when the Rev. David F. Barnett Jr., officiant, read the 2 p.m. double-ring service. Upper right, at the reception, the first bite of their wedding cake is shared by the bride and bridegroom. Upper center, Mrs. Karnes arranges the full, floor-length veil for her pretty daughter. In circle, the happy couple hurries through a heavy shower of rice. Betty and her attendants before the wedding. From the left, Mrs. Duane Karnes, bride's sister-in-law; Mrs. Richard (Dick) Douglas, Sheryl Metler, cousin of the bridegroom; and Doralyn Parton, bridesmaid; and Bonnie Karnes, who was maid of honor for her sister. The white lace-over-satin bridal gown and bouquets were a striking contrast to the varied hues of the attendants' net and velvet dresses. (Story on inside page)

Job's Daughters'

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

HONORED QUEEN . . . Carolyn Boyd, (center of page) with Junior Princess, Jackie Ackerman, left; and Senior Princess, Judy Clark, right. Senior Princess Judy and Tom Humble, at the left, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clark. Peeking out between the two pictures is a small sample of the beautiful story book decorations (see inside page). Upper right, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Boyd, daughter, Honored Queen Carolyn, and Elvis Mitchell. Circle foursome in front (l to r), Ann Peterson, organist; Jim Craig, Susan Peak, librarian; and Richard Ward.

"Story Book Dream" Dance

—All Photos On Page by Guderian—