

SPORTS AND SOCIAL CIRCLES... will be interested to learn of the marriage of Louis O. (Mike) Shade, to Lois Ann Matthius, Nov. 6 in Mattoon, Ill. The Rev. E. T. J. Birner officiated at the wedding ceremony in St. John's Lutheran Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Matthius, of that city; and "Mike" is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. (Jack) Shade, Tucson. The bride's sister, Nancy, was her maid of honor; and F. DeLoss Shade Jr., attended his brother as best man.

Mike is remembered here prior to his graduation from KUHS, as a pitcher for the Pelicans; leader of a local dance band; and afterwards, as pitcher for the Gems. He is at present, pitcher with the Philadelphia Phillies and is under contract with the Terre Haute team next year. The new Mrs. Shade has her own talents, she is an accomplished pianist and vocalist. After a honeymoon trip to Indianapolis, they are now at home in Mattoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ober Brown Open House In Observance of Thanksgiving Day

PORT KLAMATH—Mild weather to snow on the ground; and hundreds of Hereford feeder cattle all grazing on local ranch menows all very unusual conditions at this time of year — was the background for Thanksgiving Day in the Wood River Valley. A spirit of friendship and hospitality prevailed at many homes, where happy gatherings of friends and relatives assembled for the traditional holiday feast of turkey with all the fixings.

One of the most enjoyable holiday events in Port Klamath in many years was the open house held from 10:30 a.m. until 9:30 p.m. by Mr. and Mrs. Ober Brown at their local home (the former W. J. (Billie) Unk) Roland place) which Brown has been busy renovating and redecorating since October 1952.

Brown home and share their hospitality included his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bud McCrae, sons Robert, Jerry, Mickey and John, Vancouver, Wash.; his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, sons William Jr. and Jeffrey, Malin; a cousin and her family, Mrs. Muriel Cooper, daughter Lucille and son Bruce, and a friend, Lloyd Ruhl, all of Turlock, Calif. (this group spent Thanksgiving at Crystal with Mrs. Cooper's parents, brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Brown and infant son.) Browns aunt, Mrs. Francis D. Brown, her son and his wife,

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brown, of Crystal, and Mrs. Dan Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Morris, Ashland, Ore., at the Brown home in Crystal for the holidays; also Mrs. Francis Brown's daughter, Mrs. Gail Danforth, Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Brown, also of Crystal, (the former is Ober Brown's cousin and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Brown, Crystal).

Friends from out of town who called to enjoy the Thanksgiving hospitality included Joe Perry, Klamath Falls, here to spend the day with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Wright; Albert Brisco, Williamson River; Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Dilling, Ernest and Grover Plantz, of the Agency Lake District.

Seventy-nine guests called during the day and evening, and all were surprised and pleased to note the changes made in the interior of the residence in little over a year.

In keeping with the Thanksgiving season, walls of the living room were decorated with huge sugar pine cones in antique vase holders, and over the doorway hung a beautiful large wreath, also fashioned from pine cones and tied with bright red ribbon, all producing the cheery atmosphere of Thanksgiving in the Brown home. A most interesting and unusual display arranged on plate rails around the walls was that of a collection of souvenirs of World War II brought back by Brown from Okinawa, where he was stationed with an anti-aircraft division of the U.S. Army—they are dishes which he dug from the ground at Okinawa, and form a priceless collection to the Browns.

Buffet refreshments, including turkey sandwiches and many Thanksgiving delicacies, were served during the hours of the open house by the hosts, making a happy holiday for those who enjoyed their warm hospitality.

Moving pictures were taken during the day by Mrs. Brown's son, Geo. Morstad of Klamath Falls, and will be shown here later. Mrs. Morstad, daughter Beverly, and son Michael, also spent the day here. Other relatives from outside points who called to admire the

ZULEIMA NILE CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON

Members of Zuleima Nile Club of Klamath Falls met Dec. 2, at the Willard Hotel, for one of their gayest and most beautifully appointed luncheons of the year. Tables were decorated with greens, candles, and colored Christmas tree lights. The centerpiece for each table was a clever winter scene designed by Ninon Nyback. At each place setting was a tiny potted Port Orford cedar tree. These trees, according to Olive Cornett, were provided by the State Board of Forestry, through the Klamath Forest Protective Assn.

The Altamont Junior High School Glee Club, under the direction of Violette Moore, delighted the group with a wide variety of winter and Christmas songs. While the chorus sang "Christmas in Killarney," a group of students depicted the gay holiday scene. Nile members responsible for the entertaining program were Lillian Hillis, chairman, Melvane Nitscheim, and Gene Oldenburg.

President Charlotte Osborn introduced Virginia Brown, general chairman of arrangements, who presented her committee, composed of Bertha Massey, Lydia Loney, Nina Budd, Olive Cornett, Luster Nerse, Ninon Nyback, Zepha Warren, Marguerite Ward, Margaret Wirth, Pauline Parnell and Ruby Kenyon.

The following guests were introduced and presented with corsages: Vera Wixner, Mildred Fredricks, Wyoming Stiles, Trudy Bramlett, Ellen Orstad, Mary Totten, Florence Litwiler, Gladys Herriott, Helen Rajna, Geraldine Duncan, Alpha Phelps, Gretchen Thompson, Altha Smith, Patsy Lindley, and Florence Griffin. Ninety-seven guests were present.

Roma Thomas and Trudy Bramlett were presented birthday gifts. Peggy Wiesendanger won the special prize.

Grace Huls, sickness and distress chairman, secured the signatures of those present on a cheery card to be sent to Ruth Stroud, who is convalescing at the University of California Hospital, San Francisco. Mail will reach her there.

Sewing chairman, Dixie Beber reminded members that those not working on the regular sewing project could contribute pink or green wash cloths or white towels at any luncheon meeting.

Olive Rasch, chairman of the Thanksgiving box, reported 89 pints and 13 quarts of jam and jelly and numerous packages of candy, gum, and nuts were sent to the children at the Shriners Hospital in Portland.

Jean Coddington thanked the group for the generous number of gifts brought for the Christmas box which will be sent to the Greenville, hospital. Those who were not able to contribute at the regular meeting may leave gifts at 515 Main Street on or before Dec. 11 and they will be included in the box.

Cards were played in the Blue Room following the meeting. Lorraine Miller was in charge.

Merrill Couple Wed in Nevada

Janet Dierdorff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Dierdorff, and Gordon Lousignont, son of Mrs. Lois Lousignont, all of Merrill, were married in the First Methodist Church in Carson City, Nev., Oct. 25. The Rev. John E. L. Swineford was officiating minister.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wynant, Merrill, and the new Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Lousignont are now at home there.

Rebekah Social Club

The Rebekah Social Club and Past Noble Grand Club will hold annual Christmas party and turkey dinner in the IOOF Hall, Wednesday, Dec. 9, at 1 p.m. Refreshment and decorating committee members include Hannah Hickson, Arlos Andrus, Bernice McCracken and Anna Bean.

There will be a gift exchange.

NEPHEW AND AUNT... are these two dolls. It's easy to tell which is the nephew—but for the record, Douglas Roy Lien, left, is shown with his aunt, Deborah Jean Burnett, who is one month and two days younger than he. She was two months old when the picture was taken. Deborah is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Burnett, 2815 Kane; and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bodenhamer, 4104 Bisbee; and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Burnett, Grants Pass. Douglas Roy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Lien, 2602 Kane; grandson of Mr. and Mrs. George Burnett (Deborah's parents); Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Lien, 3950 Summers Lane; and great-grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Call, 1847 Burns; and Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bodenhamer.
