HAROLD S. VANCE (right), president of The Studebaker Corporation, and Paul G. Hoffman, Chairman of the Board, were in a reflective mood as they stood beside the Conestoga, Studebaker's brand new, all-steel station wagon for 1954. Designed for "people who go places," the car was named for the original wagon in which the founding brothers of Studebaker travelled to South Bend, Ind., from Ohio more than 100 years ago. Like the new sports models and sedans, the Conestoga was designed for Studebaker by internationally famous Raymond Loewy. It is available in both the popular Champion and Commander V-8 series in eight solid and five two-tone color combinations with harmonizing vinyl interior trim. The new Studebakers are now on display at McCulloch Motors, Klamath at 7th.

Donna Lee Hickey's Story Has Cinderella Touch In It

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD — Cinderella stories are getting scarce in the movie world, but here's one of a New York girl who changed her luck when she changed her name. Her real name is Donna Lee Hickey, which has a nice lilt to it. But you know how movie studios are. She was signed to play the feminine lead of May Wynn, the night club singer, in "The Caine Mutiny." Nothing would do but that she change her professional name to May Wynn.

Donna is now stuck with May, but she doesn't seem to mind. "You can call me anything you want, as long as you want me to sign on that dotted line," she told Columbia bosses.

As Donna Lee Hickey, she had only middling success in the show world. The daughter of a vaudeville, she matriculated at the New York Copacabana when she was 17. Talent scouts passed her up because she was too young for movies.

She became a veteran among Copacabana girls, maturing under the eyes of the talent seekers who viewed each opening night. They overlooked her for the newcomers. Finally she decided to try her fortune in Hollywood.

She toured the studios. No luck. She was about to head East when she discovered a letter she had mislaid. It was a note of introduction from 20th Century-Fox's New York talent scout to William Gordon of the studio's casting department. Gordon gave her a starlet's contract.

"My experience at Fox was not a happy one," she commented on the set of her second big picture, "The Wood Hawk." "I had bits in three pictures. And I mean bits. You have to look fast to even see me."

"I didn't even work during my last six months there. Every week I hired a taxi, drove to the studio, picked up my check and drove home. They said they would hire me for another year at the same salary. I said no thanks."

Donna took off for Las Vegas, Nev., where she was seen by Max Arnow, Columbia's talent head. He had wanted to sign her before, but hadn't been able to locate her. He invited her to test for "From Here to Eternity," but she lost out to another Donna — named Reed.

"Then came 'The Caine Mutiny' and May Wynn. Our girl tried out for it and won. But her own name had to go."

"Stanley Kramer, the producer, said there hadn't been a May on the screen since the days of May McEvoy and Mae Murray," she remarked. "He also said May Wynn was good because it couldn't be mispronounced."

"He was right. I receive fan mail addressed to May, Mae or Mai and Wynn, Wyn or Winn. It always gets to me."

Duck Ordered To Quit Garden

DALLAS (AP)—Mrs. Higginbottom, the delinquent duck, waddled out of Corporation Court yesterday under injunction to stay out of the neighbor's flowers.

The complaining neighbor, Mrs. Ethel J. Cope, testified the duck had made various excursions into her garden to nip at the pansies and gobbie asparagus tips.

In court also were the duck owners, Tommy Pisillo, 7, and Linda Pisillo, 8; and their grandmother, Mrs. Nelle Connelley. Mrs. Connelley blamed the duck's wandering on Mrs. Cope's cats. She said the duck was actually chasing the cats and only stopped incidentally to nibble asparagus.

Judge Frank O'Brien ruled, with Mrs. Cope's agreement, that everything would be all right if Mrs. Higginbottom stayed in her own yard.

Samish Draws Prison Term

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lobbyist Arthur H. (Artie) Samish, 55, was sentenced Wednesday to three years in prison and was fined $40,000 for federal income tax evasion.

He was convicted of cheating the government out of $71,878.

Federal Judge Oliver D. Hamlin sentenced the 250-pound liquor industry lobbyist to three years on each of the eight counts on which he was convicted, with the terms to run concurrently.

He also fined him $5,000 on each of the eight counts, for a total of $40,000.

Samish, once called "the secret boss of California" because of his activities as the state's best-known lobbyist, also faced civil liabilities which might run as high as a million dollars.

He will have to pay the cost of his trial, estimated at around $5,000. The trial ran more than three weeks.

Rose Tourney Queen Named

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Barbara Louise Schmidt, a 17-year-old brunette with dimples and brown eyes, will reign as queen of this season's Tournament of Roses.

Harry W. Hurrey, tournament president, announced her selection today from a group of seven rose princesses. These were chosen from some 2,500 coeds at John Muir and Pasadena City Colleges, where the competition started six weeks ago.

Barbara goes to Pasadena City College. She is 5 feet 6, weighs 118 pounds and her measurements are bust 35, waist 24 and hips 34.

Same Name, So Tornado Aid Asked

MONTROSE, Calif. (AP)—A service club here has suggested that 16 other towns named Montrose join in a campaign to rehabilitate victims of the tornado which struck Montrose, Ark., last weekend.

Peter Paola, chairman of the Verdugo Hills Serotoma Club, said telegrams were sent to the mayors of Montrose in Alabama, Colorado, Georgia, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nebraska, New York, Pennsylvania, South Dakota and West Virginia.

Cats Adopts Little Squirrel Okay

AGOURA, Calif. (AP)—Mr. Peabody, a sharp-toothed squirrel, has been adopted by Mrs. Timothy, a cat which has three kittens.

Mrs. Max Goldsmith found the baby squirrel, put him on a bottle, and then—

"I waited until the cat was away and then stroked the kittens just after petting the squirrel in order to transfer the squirrel's odor to Mrs. Timothy's babies. When the cat returned she sniffed around a bit and soon began licking the squirrel."

Sheriffs, Deputies To Go To School

BALEM (AP)—County sheriffs and their deputies will be here Thursday and Friday for a course in how to collect taxes.

The course, first ever held in Oregon, is sponsored by the State Tax Commission.

All phases of collection of property taxes will be discussed, including new legislation, disposition of foreclosed lands, legal aspects, keeping records, and collection of delinquent taxes.
