State Dulles to tell him some things she didn't put in the stories she wrote on her Russian experiences—things she says "I can't talk about."

A reporter asked:

Had Mrs. Mesta seen anything on her Russian visit that might make her think the Russians could be willing to cooperate in pooling atomic power efforts, as suggested by President Eisenhower?

"I saw nothing in Russia," Mrs. Mesta replied firmly, "that would make me think they wanted to cooperate with us. But that was a month ago."

As to her future, Mrs. Mesta said:

1. She is going to give a party

"just as soon as I find a house."

2. She is beginning a new chapter in her life—writing and lecturing.

Writing a book? "Several publishers are interested." And the lectures? "Never gave a lecture in my life," but she is signed up for 10. The first will be in Houston Jan. 16.

"What will I lecture about? All kinds of things. I'll talk about Washington, Luxembourg, London, Russia."

Her recent articles on Russia were published in this country and in about 18 other countries.

"All the money I make on those, on my lectures and on the book are going into a scholarship fund," she said.

The fund, she said, will underwrite expenses—"all expenses, even toothpaste"—of some foreign students, brought to this country.

"Every country in which a newspaper buys my articles will get to send a student," she said.

Does she plan to run for political office?

"Definitely not—but then I always do the things I say I won't," she said.
