

Now or Nevers' Annual Dinner

MERRILL—The annual dinner and gift exchange of the Now or Nevers Club was held Sunday Dec. 6, at the Merrill Recreation Club. Organized some 20 years ago, the group has met each month since that time, and annually closes the year with a Christmas party.

Roufs-Dunlavy Wedding Rites

He is now at home, 2312 W. 1st, after a wedding trip to Whitman, Los Angeles, and other points in Southern California. Both are employed locally. Glen was a student at KUHS before he enlisted in the navy, and Barbara is a graduate of the same school. Special out-of-town guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Garmire, Ysabel, Calif., and her great-aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Garmire, Marysville. Mr. and Mrs. Rickard, Medford; Mary Garmire, Mr. and Mrs. John Spring, Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. Corvallis; Mr. Robert Thomson, Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. Dil Shupler, Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Wilker, Astoria.

PRE-NUP TIAL SHOWER
Mrs. T. (Kit) Johnson was hostess to a shower Nov. 20, honoring Barbara. The party was given at the Johnson's newly purchased home on Lakeshore Drive. Just about a week after they had moved into the new home, Mrs. Johnson was in the list of 20—were Mrs. E. Dunlavy, guest of honor's mother; and Mrs. W. J. Runnels, the (then) prospective bridegroom's mother.

Library Club

MERRILL—Merrill Library Club held its annual Christmas gift exchange and potluck dinner Thursday afternoon at the recreation hall. Mrs. Warren Walker was chairman, assisted by Mrs. Bruce Owens, Mrs. Harvey Denham and Mrs. George Rankin. Miniature marshmallow snowmen, pine cones and Christmas ornaments were effectively used as table decorations.

Mrs. Tom Chatburn Sr., the club president, gave a resume of the year's activities, and announced that the club's two main projects for the year, the pre-Easter food sale, and the fall rummage sale, were a financial success. A new children's book, gift of Merrill Chapter 18 Women of the Moose, was on display, and will be added to the children's section at the city library.

New officers were elected to take over next month. Mrs. Harvey Denham is president; Mrs. Warren Walker, first vice president; Mrs. Max Hartlerode, second vice president; Mrs. R. L. Drappo, secretary; Mrs. William Walker, treasurer; and Mrs. M. A. Bowman will be parliamentarian. Retiring president, Mrs. Chatburn, was presented a gift.

New members of the club are Mrs. James Kirby, Mrs. Carl Coulson, Mrs. Howard Dewey, Mrs. Frances Brandenburg, Mrs. Lawrence Geraghty, Mrs. C. E. Sharp, and Mrs. J. D. Moore.

An entertaining program was presented following dinner. Jane Denham, Cheryl and John Chatburn, Beverly Walker and Sandra Beatty, danced. Accompanist was Mrs. George Rankin. Mrs. William Walker sang several solos accompanied by Mrs. Lawrence Geraghty. The entertainment concluded with a community sing led by Mrs. Sherman Waldrup.

The next regular meeting of the club is scheduled for Jan. 7, at the home of Mrs. T. W. Chatburn Sr., who will also entertain the Library Bridge Club on Jan. 14.

Altar Society At DeBel Home

LANGELL VALLEY—Mrs. Frank DeBel entertained the Altar Society of St. Frances Cabrini at her home on Dec. 3. Mrs. Florence McCarty was in charge of the meeting.

Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. DeBel to Father Chelan, Katherine Jendrzewski, Florence McCarty, Martha Hunt, Billie Colwell, Sadie Walker, Irene Koepfel, and Hattie Walker.

Games and singing followed dinner. Those present included T. A. Blake, and Mr. and Mrs. Ad Blake and Kay of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hallett of Central Point; and from Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Falvey, Mr. and Mrs. William Falvey, Terry and Dana; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cole and family; Mr. and Mrs. Paschal Hodges, and family; Mr. and Mrs. Don Harris and family; Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. William Walker, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Walker.

Xmas Program At DAR Meeting

Members of Eulonia chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Monday evening, Dec. 7, at the home of Mrs. Harry Goeller for their regular monthly meeting with Mrs. Charles R. Waters, regent, presiding. A varied and entertaining Christmas program, arranged by Eva Burkhalter with the assistance of Ruth Lobough, preceded the short business meeting. The first part was a delightful recorded Christmas story of early France, narrated by the well-known story teller John Nesbitt. Second was a clever juggling and sleight-of-hand performance by three circus clowns, Ron Henon, Wes Sine and Ed Hake, under the direction of Mrs. Roberta Blomquist. Following the clowns, a group of 6th and 7th graders from Roosevelt School sang several carols and Christmas songs. The pupils were directed by Mrs. D. E. Van Vactor.

Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg displayed several Red Cross knitted articles of a new type, which are quite different from items formerly knitted, and suggested that anyone interested may secure materials and instructions from the Red Cross office.

The proposed by-laws were read by Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm, chairman of the committee, and were approved by the chapter.

Mrs. Robert Odell, chairman of the American Indians committee, stated that some bedding and a box of clothing were being sent to Chemawa School and the Celilo Indians.

Mrs. Lewis Hornby said she expected a sufficient number of Children of the American Revolution papers would be approved soon thus enabling the group here to complete its organization. Anyone interested in the society may call Mrs. Hornby for more information. The regent expresses her thanks to the members who were responsible for the successful rummage sale.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses: Mrs. Goeller, Mrs. B. W. Zollman, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, and Mrs. H. A. Nitschelm.

The next meeting will be Jan. 4, at the home of Mrs. Charles J. Martin.

Aloha Social Club Xmas Party

Members of Aloha Social Club met in the parlors of the Masonic Temple Friday, Dec. 4, for a potluck luncheon, business meeting and Christmas party. The luncheon table was decorated with greens, candles, tiny Christmas trees and angel chimes.

Decorations for the smaller tables were colored gum drops surrounded by mistletoe. The center of attraction was a beautifully decorated large Christmas tree and gift table attended by Mrs. Santa Claus (Clara Sherman).

Committee members responsible for the decorations and luncheon arrangements were Ada Matthews, Aline Thomas, Verla Land, Betty Thornton and Lucella Chilcote. Paul Jones donated the tree.

During the party hour, Mrs. Santa Claus distributed gifts to all members present. Rhoda Harnden presented gifts to Lucella Chilcote, president; Edna Jones, secretary; and Leona Angel, publicity chairman; for services rendered during the year.

The next regular meeting will be a 1:45 dessert luncheon, Friday, Jan. 1, at the Masonic Temple. There will be an election of officers at this time. All members are invited to attend.
