

WINTERTIME CONSTRUCTION was underway at the Monroe Boat Docks when the Herald and News photographer took this picture of a new pumice brick showroom, storehouse and the Yacht Club.

Phoenix Man Admits The Strangling Of His Aunt

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — "I just choked her. That's all I can remember."

This was the statement given police by Bruce Bennett Hancock, 23, Phoenix plasterer, when he confessed the slaying of his aunt, Mrs. Myrtle Thelma Allen, 40, Mesa, Ariz., near Miami, Ariz., Monday night.

Mrs. Allen was tentatively identified as the step-mother of movie actor Rex Allen.

Hancock told the Maricopa County sheriff's office here he had been on a day-long drinking spree. He and his aunt had motored from Phoenix to Miami (Ariz.) Monday and visited several bars along the way, authorities were told by Hancock.

"I just went berserk," Deputy Sheriff Vernon LaMore said Hancock told him.

Two hunters, Paul Billingsly and Stanley Mikulski, found the body of the woman in Hicks Wash about 14 miles north of Miami. There were indications she had been criminally assaulted and some of her clothing had been removed, officers said.

Hancock was back on his job here when apprehended. He later made a full confession.

Officers claim Mrs. Allen was beaten over the head with a rock and then strangled. Hancock says all he remembers is the choking.

A first degree murder charge has been filed against Hancock.

Friday Was A Bad Day For Carl Hall

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) — Carl Austin Hall, the Greenlease kidnap killer, left the Missouri State Penitentiary on parole last April 24, a Friday, after serving part of a five-year term for robbery.

He came back to the same prison's death row Nov. 20, a Friday, after being convicted and sentenced to die.

And a few minutes after midnight tonight, he dies — on Friday.
