Kidnap Slayers Executed

Editor's Note - The writer of the following story was one of three newsmen who witnessed the Hall-Heady execution.

By LARRY HALL
 JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP) - Carl Austin Hall and Bonnie Brown Heady died together in the gas chamber early today for the kidnap slaying of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease, still talking calmly to each other as the deadly fumes rolled up around their faces.
 Just before he was taken into the gas tank at the Missouri State Prison, Hall, the 34-year-old west-reel heir to a $200,000 fortune, puffed on a cigarette. He passed it to Mrs. Heady, his 41-year-old paramour, for a puff as they talked for the last time.
 When they were strapped into the chairs, Mrs. Heady asked Hall: "Are you doing all right, honey?"
 "Yes, Mama," Hall replied.
 His lips were red as if he had received a last kiss from the plump, dark-haired woman who helped him kidnap and slay little Bobby Sept. 23.
 The prison was quiet as the notorious pair went to their deaths. Seven degree cold kept the crowd outside at a minimum.
 As the official witnesses walked through the darkness of the prison courtyard, Christmas decorations made by convicts sparkled on the trees and bushes.
 Elaborate security precautions had been made, with extra guards and highway patrolmen brought in for the execution. But the extra men were not needed. There was no outburst from the 2,500 convicts.
 As the parade of witnesses followed the death cars down to the gas chamber, one convict shouted from his cell: "Pour it on 'em."
 Warden Ralph N. Eldson, who tripped the lever which sent cyanide gas curling around the faces of the kidnapers in a white cloud, said the pair had been "just as normal as they could be" since they entered the prison Nov. 30.
 "I don't think we've had any more normal prisoners than they were down here," he said.
 The Rev. George L. Evans, Episcopal rector from Kansas City, Kan., who was Hall's spiritual adviser, said both prisoners were "absolutely and completely reconciled" to death.
 "They are prepared to meet Almighty God," he said after praying with them in the death chamber.
 Neither of the kidnapers showed any outward signs of fear although Hall breathed deeply while being strapped into the death chair. The chamber door clanged shut on them at 12:04 a.m. Thirty seconds later Warden Eldson tripped the lever which dropped cyanide powder into two jars of sulphuric acid beneath the death chairs.
 White fumes rose around the couple. Hall took a big gulp as the fumes hit his face but Mrs. Heady appeared to hold her breath for an instant.
 Their heads jerked back. There were a few convulsive movements.

MRS. BONNIE HEADY CARL AUSTIN HALL

Both were unconscious almost at once.
 At 12:12 a.m. Hall was dead. Mrs. Heady kept breathing for another 2 minutes and 10 seconds.
 One of the prison doctors, G. Donald Shull, said her breathing lasted longer than any person he had ever seen die in the chamber.
 Some of the official witnesses had figured in the unusual federal court trial when a jury in Kansas City recommended the death sentence Nov. 19.
 Hall's attorney, Marshall K. Hoag of Pleasanton, Kan., an old friend of the family, was one of them.
 But the only representative of little Bobby Greenlease's family present was Norbert S. O'Neill, Kansas City business associate of the child's multimillionaire father. O'Neill was one of the men who negotiated with the kidnapers and dropped a record $600,000 ransom near a bridge east of Kansas City Oct. 4.
 "I came down here," O'Neill said after the execution, "to keep faith with a vow I made several weeks ago. I don't like to see people die, but these people deserved to die. I came down here to see the sentence carried out because I thought it was a just sentence."
 In the last few days law enforcement officers have made strenuous efforts to find out what happened to the missing half of the ransom.
 Another last-minute effort was made tonight but failed.
 "Have you anything to tell me?" U.S. Marshal William B. Tatman asked both prisoners after they were blindfolded and strapped into the death chairs.
 Both shook their heads and Mrs. Heady added aloud: "No."
 Their last audible words before the door was sealed were: "Thanks for everything," and "Goodby" to the guards who had watched over them in the last few days.
 But they kept on talking to each other for the few seconds it took to seal the chamber.
 Did they talk about the little boy they planned to kill even before they abducted him? Their few months of illicit love together? Or were they just human souls trying to brace each other for death?
 Witnesses peering through the thick glass windows of the gas tank couldn't tell.
 All the witnesses knew was what prison and law enforcement officials have reported in recent days; that Hall did not regret the crime so much as he did his own stupidity in getting so drunk he was caught.
 He was arrested in St. Louis Oct. 6 after police were tipped that a man with a lot of money was on a drunken spending spree. He led officers to Mrs. Heady's hideout a few hours later. And that, according to guards who have been close to her, was her biggest disappointment. They had planned a life of luxury with the $600,000 they won in their vicious plot. But today $4.40 worth of chemicals killed them.
 They went to their deaths in simple prison clothing, nothing like the luxurious clothes they used to wear.
 Mrs. Heady was clad in a bright green cotton dress, the standard prison garb. Her dark brown wavy hair was carefully combed and she had on a little makeup. She wore scuff-type sandals but no stockings.
 Hall wore olive green twill pants and shirt, a black stripe down the side of the trousers. He had on unlaced shoes but no belt. His shirt was open at the throat.
 Both were squeezed tight by the straps around their chests and Mrs. Heady complained about that. As they were led into the gas tank, she said: "I can't see

Athena Lampropoulos Draw High Praise for UW Role

Seattle critics continue to acclaim the vocal (and dramatic) talent of Athena Lampropoulos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lampropoulos. A music major at the University of Washington, most recent appearance in Seattle's "Amahl and the Night Visitors" at the University Playhouse inspired a Seattle Times critic to write:

"With the powerful voice of Athena Lampropoulos the helm, the production off extremely well. The soprano in the role of the Night Visitor is a joy to hear."
 The accomplished 19-year singer will appear in recital in late March under the sponsorship of KUHS a cappella choir featuring soloist on the concert program. The date will be announced later according to Andrew Loney, director.

Santas Now Rented Out
 SEATTLE (AP) - You can put in your order anytime here now for a $6 Santa Claus to save wear and tear on your disposition and clothing.
 They'll do anything Santas do, except slide down chimneys.
 Two enterprising Kelo business men, P. R. Enloe and P. R. Gillman explained Thursday they've extended their "Kris Kringle's Helpers" operations to Seattle this year. They've already got about 500 orders to furnish Santas between 5 and 11 p.m. Christmas Eve, and expect as many more.
 "I got the idea while trying to find someone to play Santa Claus to my own five children," Enloe said.
 "We first tried it in Kelo last year and didn't have a single unsatisfied customer."
 The Santas will be recruited from the ranks of policemen, university students and elderly men. They will get strict warnings to lay off any liquid jolliness that believed fathers may offer them.
 Also, there'll be a de luxe job for $20 - a Santa who'll bring along his own photographer to snap the family.

Cow Causes Fatal Wreck

ELK CITY, Okla. (AP) - A cow strayed onto U. S. Highway 66 for miles east of here last night and two cars, swerving to avoid the animal, collided head on killing a California woman and critically injuring four other persons, including two children.
 The cow, struck by one of the cars, also died at the scene. Its carcass was found 85 feet from the smashed autos.
 The victim was Mrs. Irma Elizabeth Giles, 34, of Hawthorne, Calif. She died instantly. Her 30-year-old husband Charles and their two young children were injured critically.
 The other driver, riding alone, was Robert E. Carpenter of Boonton, N. J. He also was critically hurt.

Crippled Ship Gets Praise

OSLO, Norway (AP) - A throng of 7,000 persons lined Oslo's waterfront last night to cheer the liner Stavangerfjord after her 2,050-mile Atlantic trip without a rudder.
 The big liner, whose captain steered with the vessel's twin propellers after she lost her rudder in a hurricane Dec. 8, docked only two days late.
 Many of the Stavangerfjord's 644 passengers were Americans of Scandinavian origin from Minnesota and Wisconsin going to the old country for Christmas.
 The liner was three days and 1,000 miles out of New York when the accident occurred. The rest of the trip took nine days.

Railway Express Strike Called Off

CHICAGO (AP) - The AFL Railway Clerks Union Thursday called off a strike of railway express agency employees at Detroit, Pittsburgh and Milwaukee and postponed "indefinitely" an extension of the strike to a score of other cities Friday.
 George Harrison, president of the union, said members presently on strike will return to work with the shifts starting after 12:01 a.m. Friday.
 "This return to work and the postponement of the extension of the strike will be done pending the outcome of the investigation of the President's emergency board established Wednesday," Harrison said.
 He added that it is his understanding the board will begin its sessions during the first week in January.

Shostakovich Top of Heap

LONDON (AP) - Dmitri Shostakovich topped Beethoven last night in quantity if not in quality. The Russian Composer's 10th symphony got its first performance in Moscow. Beethoven wrote only nine.
 Announcing the premiere, Moscow radio said the symphony was played by the Leningrad Philharmonic Orchestra, which also introduced the composer's other nine.
