

Yuletide Greetings

Herald and News

Saturday, December 19, 1953

"POOR TIRED SANTA! . . . He works so hard for little boys and girls all over the world . . . so I'll just sneak back upstairs 'n let him sleep."

Three year old Linda Ann (Hopper) Hosley, of course can't read yet so doesn't know that Santa had finished his list. Hopper COULD be worried also . . .

thinking that Santa had given out before he finished his rounds and some little children would be left out. Hopper has a sister, Diane Ellen (Danny), five; and a brother, Mark Edward, 14 months. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. John E. (Eddie) Hosley, 1143 Alandale; and they have a grandmother living here, Mrs. Maud Hosley, 623 High.

Picture was taken at the home of the childrens' uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Martin, 1111 Pacific Terrace. And Santa is known to the grown-ups as S. E. (Dutch) Gallup. Milly Ramsby — Photo by Kettler