Yacht Club Teenage Dance At Festive Christmas Party

Informal and in the holiday mood is the tenor of Teenage Party at the Yacht Club, Tuesday, Dec. 29, from 9:30 p.m. to half-past midnight, with dance music by

WSCS CIRCLES

The circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met Thursday, Dec. 19 for the usual business, devotional and study period.

Mrs. Will Wood, 2030 Fremont, was hostess to Mary Circle, assisted by Mrs. H. W. Fales. A dessert luncheon was served as soon as the members arrived. Small tables were centered with miniature trees in the holiday mood. Christmas carols of tiny gilded cones and colorful ribbon bows were presented to each guest.

Study of the book "Where is the Sun?" was continued and Mrs. Harold Peterson reviewed a portion of the book.

Each Circle met with Mrs. Elise Hayden at her home, 1740 Berkeley Street for 1:30 dessert luncheon.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Otto Spiker.

Christmas boxes were prepared for foreign exchange students at the University of Oregon; and money donations were allotted to each for Christmas dinner.

Martha Circle met at the home of Mrs. Gene Woods, 2202 Oregon Avenue. Mrs. H. Mather Smith was hostess assisted by Mrs. Weeks.

Dessert was served on trays in heart of an open fire.

Brass bird cages filled with holly were placed at either end of the mantle, and masses of holly and pine cones and a large white candle were on the dining room table.

Mrs. Joe Kennedy led the devotions.

Members plan to fill two Christmas baskets to be given to needy families decided upon later. It was also decided to send cookies to exchange students at the University of Oregon.

Ruth Circle met with Mrs. Frank Reele, 525 North Ninth Street, with Mrs. H. K. Tavenner co-hostess.

Mrs. E. F. Stephens led devotions.

Each circle reported good attendance with Ruth Circle having the largest with 20 present. Mrs. Ann Richards was a special guest.

Next meeting date is Jan. 14, meeting places to be announced later.

Guild Circles At Tulakee Meet

TULAKEE — Both circles, Ruth and Martha, of the Guild of the Tulakee Community Presbyterian Church met Dec. 16 in the fireplace room of the annex for installation of new officers and the annual Christmas party.

Devotions on the spirit of Christmas were by Mrs. Marvis Keyser, Mrs. Carl Jensen, retiring chairman voiced appreciation to the committees that worked with her during the past year.

During a short business meeting it was voted to prepare several Christmas baskets for local families.

Mrs. George Milne, Merrill, was in charge of the impressive installation ceremony. Mrs. Amos Hoyt is the new chairman; Mrs. Marvis Keyser, vice chairman; Mrs. Carl Jensen, secretary; and Mrs. Ross Ragland, treasurer.

A duet, "Take My Life and Let It Be," was sung by Phyllis and Carol Wynant, Merrill.

A gift exchange followed.

Refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table, an arrangement centered with the Christmas motif. Hostesses were Mrs. Merton Brown, chairman; Mrs. Clark Penser, Mrs. E. C. Schweitzer, Mrs. Dan Crawford Sr., Mrs. William Haynes and Mrs. Burton Hoyt.

In addition to a large number of members present there were also several guests. Mrs. George Milne, Mrs. Frank Howard and Mrs. W. F. Jinnette, Merrill; Mrs. Lela Jacobs, Orange, Calif. guest in the Dan Crawford Sr. home and Mrs. Needham, guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester J. Main.

DKG News

The Delta Kappa Gamma group met for their regular meeting at the Presbyterian Church parlors, Saturday evening, Dec. 5, at 7:30.

Irene Foster speaker of the evening, told of the customs at Christmas in several foreign countries. Those of Germany were of particular interest, since it was there that the origin of Christmas began. It was here also that two of our most beloved Christmas carols were written: Luther's "Glad Song" and "Silent Night" by Mohr.

Christmas carols were sung following the program.

A "Dutch" auction of cooked foods provided much fun for members as well as a money making project.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses: Mabel Humble, Irene Foster, Elida Fletcher and Olive Wilson.

Each circle reported good attendance with Ruth Circle having the largest with 20 present. Mrs. Ann Richards was a special guest.

Next meeting date is Jan. 14, meeting places to be announced later.

THE LATCHSTRING IS ALWAYS OUT AT SOJOURNERS — newcomers are warmly greeted in this Chamber of Commerce sponsored club — Sojourners provides a social outlet to all members and is a perfect contact to many suddenly transplanted from established and congenial community life "here" — to the oftentimes strangeness and indifference of "here". It aims to satisfy the capable clubwoman through its offices and to furnish entertainment to the more socially minded through its card parties and luncheons.

Fort Klamath WSCS Meeting

FORT KLAMATH — Regular meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Fort Klamath Community Methodist Church Dec. 1, was at the home of Mrs. Hansford T. (Mike) Williams. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Raymond S. Lossley, president.

Routine matters were disposed of and the treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Richard H. Wilson in the absence of Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson.

The first study hour in a series of six was devoted to a discussion of "The Book of Jeremiah," under the leadership of Mrs. Williams.

A special meeting for the second hour of group study, scheduled for Dec. 18, has been postponed until Thursday afternoon, Jan. 7. Mrs. Donald P. Veatch will be hostess at her home. Otherwise, the meetings will be as planned until study of The Book of Jeremiah is completed.

Refreshments were served at the Dec. 16 meeting by the hostess to Mrs. Raymond S. Lossley, Mrs. William Brewer, Mrs. James F. Leggett, Mrs. Richard H. Wilson, Mrs. James F. Van Wormer, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. Harold L. Wimer and Mrs. Donald P. Veatch and daughter Susie.

Sojourners' Year Climaxed At Festive Christmas Party

Sojourners' year of '53 reached a grand finale Wednesday, Dec. 9, when members and guests gathered in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel for a Christmas party and installation of officers ceremony.

The stage was literally set for the occasion, decorated with a brightly decorated Christmas tree and baskets heaped with colorfully wrapped presents. Elaborate table decorations included miniature white Christmas trees glistening with silver stars and snow arranged with tall white candles.

Each guest was given a corsage of holly; and a gift and corsage was presented to Mrs. H. L. Robertson, outgoing president, as a token of praise for her successful six months in office. She officially started the party; Mrs. Orman Giddow was installing officer; and other outgoing officers included: Mrs. Bert Henson, vice president; Mrs. L. C. Watrud, secretary; and Mrs. R. W. Fodder, treasurer.

A resume of the past six months history of the club was read by Mrs. E. M. Raymond, historian; after which the new president, Mrs. Bert Henson, turned the meeting over to party chairman, Mrs. J. R. Rhodes.

Mrs. R. C. Hopson arranged the musical program which featured club member, Mrs. L. E. (Gertie) Haugh, who accompanied songs and played several arrangements of her own on the electric organ.

Linda Williams and Nancy Hopson sang harmony to their own ukulele accompaniment. Later Carol and Evelyn Jones and Linda and Nancy sang "Winter Wonderland". As a solo, Carol sang "White Christmas".

The Christmas story from the Bible was impressively narrated by Mrs. A. V. McVey. Before the exchange of gifts and serving of refreshments the Sojourners chorus and the high school girls who had appeared on the program sang

Xmas Party And Gift Exchange

Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Cook, 1806 Portland, were hosts last Sunday afternoon and evening for an annual potluck Christmas dinner and gift exchange. The custom began in the 1940's with several couples then living in Chiloquin. Only two of the original couples now live there.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kircher, of Chiloquin; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mercer, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kellison, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Schuck, Mr. and Mrs. Al Castiel, former Chiloquin residents but now of Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jones.

Guests played bridge and pinocle following the dinner and gift exchange.

Get Together Club Meeting

DORRIS—The Get Together Club met Dec. 3, at the home of Mrs. Jennie Hadwick with 17 members present for the annual election of officers.

Mrs. Jewell Garey of Macdoel was elected president; Mrs. Elsie Ramsey, vice president; Mrs. Janice Clawson, secretary; Mrs. Viola Hayes, assistant secretary; and Mrs. Sally Andrus, treasurer.

For the afternoon of Dutch whist, Mrs. Emorine Kappen held high score; Mrs. Bea Hall, second; and Mrs. Mary Porterfield low.

Mrs. Garey won the raffle and Mrs. Margaret Robinson the traveling prize.

Others present were Mrs. Joan Christenson, Mrs. Mae Glynn, Mrs. Maude Holmes, Mrs. Lona Humphrey, Mrs. Jennie Lang, Mrs. Lila Marshall and Mrs. Eva Young.

Next meeting will be the group's annual Christmas party Dec. 17 at the Star Inn at Dorris. Luncheon will be served at 1 p.m. and the names of the 1953 "secret pairs" will be disclosed.

Beta Sigma Phi Dinner Dance

Members of Kappa Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, their husbands and invited couples enjoyed a formal dinner dance at the Willard Hotel Saturday evening, Dec. 12. In addition to the Christmas theme was the observance of the 15th anniversary of the chapter. The focal point of the evening was the presentation of a large birthday cake attractively decorated with a spray of yellow roses, official flower of the Sorority, and a lighted candle to commemorate each year of the chapter's life.

In charge of arrangements were Alice Badley and Mary Cottingham.

Leneve-Anderton Rites

MR. AND MRS. DON V. (Chet) LENEVE... married recently in Peace Memorial Church. Bride is the former Carol Jean Anderton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Anderton, 4813 Cottage; and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Leneve, Coos Bay. They are now at home in Eugene, where the bridegroom is employed. They spent their honeymoon in Canada.

HEIRLOOM PIN WORN BY BRIDE AT WEDDING IN PEACE MEMORIAL

A pearl pin belonging to her maternal great grandmother was worn at the throat of her wedding jacket by Carol Jean Anderton when she was married Nov. 25 to Don V. (Chet) Leneve. The wedding was at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church. The Rev. D. Proett, read the ceremony at 7 p.m. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Anderton of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Leneve of Coos Bay.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white lace and nylon tulle over satin. The dress had a long-sleeved lace jacket and very full skirt. She carried a white orchid with stephanotis and streamers atop a white Bible.

Joan Tucker of Klamath Falls was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina-length dress of pink net and lace and carried a bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums. Candelights were Kathy Dougherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dougherty, and Jim Anderton, both of Klamath Falls, the latter the bride's brother.

A cousin of the bridegroom, James Wilson Jr. of Coos Bay, was best man and Ralph Foster of Klamath Falls ushered guests.

Tall white baskets holding lavender and white chrysanthemums and white candelabra with white tapers were church decorations. Margaret Sheridan sang "Benediction" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. John Hamilton, who also played the wedding marches.

Close friends of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty, were hosts to the wedding reception at their home in Klamath Falls, 5038 Cottage St. Mrs. Emil Wells cut the tiered cake which was all white with decorations of white and silver. Mrs. Ralph Foster and Mrs. James Dougherty served punch.

For their honeymoon to Victoria, B. C., the bride wore a soft purple check suit with black and white accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Mrs. Leneve, a graduate of University of Oregon, is a teacher at River Road School. The bridegroom also attended the University of Oregon and is employed in Eugene. The couple is at home at 119 Knoop Lane.
