Fort Klamath

By MYRTLE WIMER

Unintentionally omitted from the list of out-of-town relatives attending the Thanksgiving Day open house held by Mr. and Mrs. Ober Brown was that of a most important guest, his mother, Mrs. Carleton O. (Alice) Brown, Crystal, who called during the afternoon.

Summoned to Cottonwood, Ida. by news of the serious illness of a son and brother, Pres Thomas and Clay left Tuesday, Dec. 8. The patient, Haskell Thomas, 49, at the Cottonwood hospital suffers from a peculiar malady as ferocious as any yet undiagnosed by attending physicians, Mrs. Orland Lynch, Klamath Falls, a daughter of Pres Thomas and sister of Clay and Haskell Thomas, accompanied the two local men on the trip. In addition, two other brothers, accompanied by their families, came from their homes in Salinas, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. McAuliffe moved Friday to their winter home at Red Bluff, Calif., following the last shipment of cattle south from pasture on the Emmett Sweeney ranch. Their daughter, Geneva and son, Ambrose will remain at Sacred Heart Academy in Klamath Falls where they are boarding pupils; their older son, Jackie, is attending Belmarine Academy in San Jose, Calif.

Also going to Red Bluff Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Paddy Kenneally and Dora Lee. Kenneally is Joseph McAuliffe's year-round ranch hand. The Kenneallys have been living at the Denton ranch, occupying the smaller of the ranch residences. The Denton land was leased to McAuliffe who pastured part of his cattle there for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas moved this week to their Klamath Falls residence where they will remain until Spring. Their son Paul has been attending Klamath Union High School while staying with relatives in Klamath Falls and has now joined his parents. Mrs. Thomas will resume employment in Crater Lake National Park next spring; and Thomas is employed by the State of Oregon Game Commission.

Overnight guests Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vaden and Anita were Chris Vaughn and little Karen, here from Lebanon for a brief visit. After enjoying a day of duck hunting, Vaughn and his daughter returned home. The two are distant relatives of Mrs. Vaden.

Pic. Leonard (Soko) Smith left Sunday evening for Ft. Lewis, Wash., where he and three other members of his unit will be assigned to duty with a radar division of the U. S. Army somewhere in Alaska. Previous to his month's furlough spent here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Smith, Pic. Smith had been stationed for several months on guard at the Hanford atomic plant in Washington.

Going south Monday were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Floyd and two small sons. They will winter in Red Bluff at the Ira and Harry Orem ranch where Floyd will be in charge of the Orem cattle taken there recently for winter pasture. In the spring, when conditions warrant shipping stock back for seasonal pasture to the Wood River Valley, the young Floyds will return to their home at the Harry Orem ranch here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. (Dink) Reese left Tuesday, Dec. 15, for California. They will do some fishing and visit relatives before settling down until next spring at their winter home in Bakersfield, Calif. They own and operate the Fort Creek Motor Lodge and service station but have closed the business pending their return here in the spring.

NAILING TIP

In laying close-grained hardwood flooring, it is important to nail both the subfloor and the finish floor securely. This prevents squeaking and channels the floor movement in one direction. Use screw type nails (all spiraled) because of its unusually good holding and non-splitting qualities.

Legal Notice

Vandenberg, Judge of the above entitled court, made and entered the 4th day of December, 1933, the first publication to be made on the 7th day of December, 1933, and the last publication to be made on the 4th day of January, 1934.
