

Here's to a and Bright
Happy!

THE FAMILIES ON TODAY'S PAGE are all prominently identified with major local industries — farming and lumber. The Macartneys with both; Denis Babson farms; and Mrs. Lamm with lumber. The late Wilfred E. Lamm headed the Lamm Lumber Company, at Modoc Point.
Here they also typify the spirit of the American holiday season, with emphasis placed on substantial family life.

MRS. WILFRED E. LAMM . . . with her "only three" . . . children of her only daughter, Winifred, Mrs. Eugene H. (Gene) Favell. Their father is also an only child; so the children are the "top trio" in the two families. They recently moved into their new home, 1201 Eldorado, which is very near Grandmother Lamm's residence, 1918 Manzanita. Paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Favell live in Lakeview.
From the left, Douglas Bernard, two months; Janet Ruth, one and one-half years; and Alice Catherine (Mrs. Lamm's namesake), is three. Picture was taken by Stanley Miller.

"CHRISTMAS IN THE COUNTRY" . . . at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Denis G. Babson, Crystal Springs Road, was shared with the Alvin E. Macartneys (he's Mrs. Babson's brother), and grandparents. Above, Mr. and Mrs. Macartney and their three children. From the left, Carol Durment, 11, in the 6th grade at Roosevelt; David Alvin, 14, a freshman at KUHS, and president of his class; and Kate Elizabeth, three. Picture taken at their home, 2025 LeRoy. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Macartney, 729 Pacific Terrace; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moore, 304 North Carroll. The Babson family at the right, (also at home), Ann Perkins, standing by her father, is 7, and a 2nd grader at Henley; Joan Farrell, on his lap, is two; Marcia Marie, the baby, was born Sept. 16; and Stephen Denis is five. Their paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Babson, live in Los Angeles; and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Macartney.
— Photo by Kettler

SOCIETY

By Milly Ramsby

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

and

Every Good Wish for the Holidays

