CHILOQUIN

By DARLENE WOLFF

"The happiest season of the year," the Christmas season, brought many Chiloquin families together to celebrate. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman drove to Klamath Falls the Monday preceding Christmas to get their daughter Ethel, at the airport when she flew in to spend a couple of weeks here after an absence of more than two years. Ethel had worked for lumber firms here, in Seattle and in San Francisco State College. A little over two years ago she went to Washington, D.C. to take a training course and then to Japan to work for two years as a civilian with the army.

A the end of her work there, rather than return across the Pacific, she traveled to Hong Kong, Macao, Singapore, Bombay, Cairo, Capri and Rome. During that trip she visited famous shrines, observed many customs of the countries, tried unusual foods, rode a camel at the Sphinx. In Rome she began a 32 day train, at the European countries, covering Italy, almost completely, and also visiting Switzerland, Austria, Germany, France and England. After four days in London she flew to New York, on to Washington, D.C. and to San Francisco to visit with friends.

When she leaves here she will visit her sister and brother-in-law in St. Louis, Mo., then to Washington, D.C. for a few months' training course with the state department before going somewhere overseas in an administrative capacity. Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman and Ethel were Christmas Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Stagger. Ethel has shown her colorful 35 mm. pictures to several small groups of friends during her stay here.

Interesting bits of news heard during vacation — Ethel Zimmerman met a former Chiloquin resident while in Japan, George Doney, who is now a major in the Marines and has a wife in California.

The Zimmerman's other daughter, Pal, who lives in St. Louis, is appearing on television as a home economics demonstrator. At the Forest Freid home Mrs. Freid's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Leonard Buck and her sister Eugene Buck, all of Tualatin, were guests for four days. Other guests on Christmas Day for both the early morning tree and for a turkey dinner later in the day were Mrs. Freid's other sister, her brother-in-law and infant nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Geinger and Roy.

Next door to Freid's, at the Leroy Geinger Sr. home, the Leroy Geinger Jr., family spent part of the vacation. Other guests on Christmas were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kircher, Mr. and Mrs. James Rodgers and Becky of Sprague River, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Kircher and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolff.

At the reporters' home grandparents on both sides of the family gathered to see thrilled children open presents, followed by the holiday meal. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren of Redding were here from Thursday until Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolff of Williamson River were here for Christmas Eve.

ROBERT MICHAEL . . . 13 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Schroeder, (Della Michael), Crescent City, formerly of Klamath Falls. His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Michael, 5116 Bristol; and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Schroeder, live in New Plymouth, Ida. His mother attended Klamath Falls schools from the first grade through KUHS.
