Good Takes All

Noah's day, business good on Main Street. Things going on as usual. Then of odden, God sent the flood — H'S FLOOD. So we call it. All kind then perished from off the earth, — all except Noah and his family. God honored Noah's faith. As in Noah's day, mankind will again fall into unspeakable sin and God will again sweep out all mankind. — Luke 17:26-27. Whether God's patience with us, gives out soon or not, God changes not. Faith in God ah. And may you put in a work already done God put your sins on He writes your name in of Life when you take having died to clear you. — Christ's blood that them all away. World War Two Mine Kills Pair

FROSINONE, Italy (AP)—The explosion of a World War II mine yesterday killed two young sons of an Italian farmer now working in Venezuela.

The blast near this central Italian city also critically injured another of the farmer's sons and two cousins of the boys.

The dead were Franco Marcoccia, 10, and his brother Enzo, 8. Their father, Loreto Marcoccia, emigrated to South America to find work.

More than a thousand Italians, mostly children, are killed each year handling explosives left from the war.
