John and Son toppled Schneider's 8-1, last night to tie that in for the top spot in the Moose's Bowling League. (Bold & S. notes the top position in the standings on total pins.)

Upsetting the erstwhile league-leaders, Bold & Son added up the 10 scores in team play, a 921 net and 2666 series. So, Oregon was next with 878 and 2561. Ruby Phelps of Stone's Signal Service chalked up the high game, 202, followed by Viola Kenaston of LaRayne Harris, both of So. Music, with 192.

Phelps added 174 and 143 for a 3 series, ahead of Joyce Ross of Id & Son with a 495 three-game series.

Ellen Hankins picked up a 6-7 split, Lillian Carr the 2-7-10 and Harris the 5-8-10.

George Quits Texas A&M

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. — The resignation of Ray George as head football coach at Texas A&M following the departure of 10 assistants, means an almost sure new gridiron regime for an Aggie school.

George, whose team lost its last two Southwest Conference games, Monday by the announced intention of entering private business, he told reporters he is out of the coaching business.

Speculation on his successor named on these names: Mike Michalske, A&M line coach, J. V. Sikes, former Texas A&M football star who resigned as coach of Kansas last November after a 14 season.

Dick Todd, former Aggie and professional football player now an assistant on the Southern Methodist staff.

Maryland Coach Jim Tatum.

Army Coach Red Blaik.

George's resignation is effective Jan. 31.

Women Hold Team Tonight

Women's Klamath Basin Basketball League holds its season meeting tonight at 7:30 on Oregon middle-high court, with at least four teams in the field.

Griggs, Oregon Tech and its sponsored team are entries in the jamboree that pre-start of league play Jan. 11.

Kentucky, Duquesne Win In Breeze

By RIP WATSON

NEW YORK (AP)—It looks like pretty clear sailing now for Kentucky and Duquesne, two members of the basketball big three, but Indiana, third member of the trio, has a rough road to travel.

Kentucky's Wildcats, rolling along at the head of the Associated Press poll, defeated a stubborn Xavier of Ohio team 77-71 last night while Duquesne was beating Dayton 70-52. Indiana, meanwhile, had its second successive close shave in Big Ten competition before downing Wisconsin 70-67.

Kentucky, with eight straight victories in a triumphal return to the college cage scene after an enforced year's absence, now has only De Paul and Vanderbilt to worry about. De Paul is always tough in the Chicago Stadium and Vandy upset Kentucky three years ago in the Southeastern Conference tournament. But they shouldn't prove any more troublesome than Xavier, which outscored Kentucky in the second half but couldn't catch up from an early 22-point deficit.

RETURN GAME

Duquesne, ranked just behind Kentucky, is threatened by a return game with Dayton and another match with Niagara, a five-point victim of the Duquesne in the Madison Square Garden Festival Tournament. Lanky Dick Ricketts showed Dayton the same brilliant shooting he flashed against Niagara as he popped in 34 points last night. The victory was No. 12 for the unbeaten Duquesne.

Indiana, which went down to the final seconds against Michigan Saturday night, ran up a 15-point lead against Wisconsin, then had to play strict possession ball to stop a Badger rally. Big Don Schlundt, playing in the corners instead of his accustomed pivot role, dunked in 29 points for the Hoosiers.

HOME AND HOME

Indiana has two games against sixth-ranked Minnesota and also has home and home dates with Illinois, a 66-65 winner over Northwestern last night. The Hoosiers' Saturday night date in Minneapolis should tell the story.

Conference competition got going with a bang last night. Kansas, which bowed to Indiana in the NCAA final last year, began defense of the Big Seven title by squeezing past Oklahoma 76-72; Duke, No. 2 team in the country, rolled along in the Atlantic Coast Conference by flattening South Carolina 89-69; and Wichita won its Missouri Valley opener with a 77-75 overtime victory over Detroit.

In other Big Seven openers last night, Nebraska turned back Iowa State 74-60 by sinking 11 of 13 fourth quarter attempts in the fourth quarter and Colorado downed Missouri 66-62 after nearly blowing a 13-point halftime lead.

In other Big Ten games, Iowa opened with a 73-63 victory over Michigan State, and Michigan downed Ohio State 85-76 despite 35 points by the Buckeyes' Paul Ebert.

Bill Slattery of Navy stole the ball and fired in a basket to give Navy a 67-66 edge over Princeton.

Fodman poured in 33 points in the final period to overwhelm New York University 87-60. Maryland beat Richmond 72-64, Utah edged Utah State 71-58 and Wyoming belted New Mexico 81-61 in other leading games.

Raiders Snip Losing Skin

ASHLAND (AP)—Southern Oregon College of Education snapped a four-game losing streak Monday night, defeating the Portland State College basketball team 78-56.

Dick Pierce led the winners with 18 points. Portland States' Don Porter scored 14.

Southern Oregon held the lead at the quarters, 23-16, 36-41 and 59-45.

Whitworth Nips Cougars, 56-50

SPOKANE (AP)—Ron Bennink tallied 23 points for Washington State College Monday night but the effort wasn't enough as the Cougars fell 56-50 before Whitworth's Pirates in a basketball game ending WSC's pre-conference tuneup campaign.

The loss left Washington State with a season record of six wins, including an earlier 53-48 decision over Whitworth, and five losses.

The Cougars open their Northern Division schedule with two games with Washington at Pullman Friday and Saturday nights.

Jack Kramer Would Finance Development of Net Talent

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—All sorts of schemes have been advanced for almost a week on how the United States can win back the Davis Cup from Australia, but Jack Kramer, one of America's greatest stars, today came up with a new one. And it might work.

He wants to give his time and money to developing new talent. The former amateur ace who only a few years ago ruled the game offered to contribute $7,500 and two months of his time in an effort to develop young players.

The plan sounds sensible and should prove practical if the United States Lawn Tennis Assn.—the governing body of the amateur game—approves.

Kramer figures he will visit about 85 cities on his professional tour the first five months of this year. At each stop he would like to have the local professional or school coach bring a group of the most talented youngsters to him. He, along with Pancho Segura, Pancho Gonzales and Don Budge,

Vandals Picked Over UO

EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—It's the Oregon Ducks vs. the Idaho Vandals Tuesday night in the inaugural of the 1954 Northern Division basketball campaign.

Idaho rates as a slight favorite here as the teams open the struggle for division and Pacific Coast Conference honors, but the Vandals will face rougher going later in the week.

After games Tuesday night and Wednesday night, Idaho moves to Corvallis for meetings Friday and Saturday with Oregon State, No. 10 on The Associated Press poll and the team picked by most observers as the probable successor to defending champion Washington.

INJURIES

While both the Vandals and Ducks rank next to OSC as title contenders Idaho drew the favorite role here on the basis of reports that two of Oregon's key players are handicapped by injuries.

Ken Wegner, Oregon's leading scorer in pre-conference games, injured an ankle in practice and may see only limited action. Forward Jerry Ross also is out with an ankle injury and is expected to miss the series.

Coach Bill Borchers said he will start Wegner, a guard, at forward with Ed Halbert, Max Anderson at center, and Barney Holland and Howard Page at guard. Bob Stout, Kent Dorwin and Ray Bell will be available to replace Wegner if his ankle gives out, Borchers said.

STARTERS

Idaho Coach Chuck Finley named Harlan Mellon and Tom Flynn to start at forward; Dwight Morrison at center, and Bob Fash and either C. W. Totten or Bob Garrison at guard.

Idaho boasts a 6-1 pre-conference record as the campaign gets under way. Oregon has won eight and lost three.

Hartwig Drubs Vic Seixas

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Australia's unpredictable Rex Hartwig scored a smashing upset over veteran Vic Seixas of Philadelphia Tuesday in the quarterfinals of the South Australian Tennis Championships.

Hartwig won the match, 5-7, 6-3, 6-1, 6-2.

Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, probable opponent of Australia's 19-year-old wonder Lewis Hoad in the finals, entered the semifinals with a 6-3, 6-3, 6-3 straight set conquest of Aussie lefthander Merwyn Ross.

NCAA Knuckles Down To Business Today

By FRITZ HOWELL

CINCINNATI (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Assn., after a day of dilly-dallying in Executive Committee sessions, gets down to business today at its 48th annual convention.

The American Football Coaches Assn. and the NCAA Television Committee are slated for executive sessions, but no drastic recommendations for changes are expected from either.

LIBERALIZE

The coaches, with 1954 rules topping their agenda, are tipped to string along with the one-plateau system, with proposals to liberalize substitutions to some extent. Some also want to do away with the four-minute rule at the end of the second and fourth periods forcing an "all-the-way" game under the same set of rules.

In the television sector the only fight against the current restricted program appears to be coming from the Big Ten conference. It would like to have one of its games televised on a regional basis each Saturday, and the powerful circuit may lead the way toward some loosening of the restricted plan in vogue in 1953.

SUGGESTIONS

The Television Committee meets today and tomorrow, and will submit its recommendations to the NCAA business session Friday. The coaches will offer any rule change suggestions to the NCAA Rules Committee, which meets Jan. 11 in Sarasota, Fla.

A year ago the Rules Committee ignored a coaches' poll which favored the two-plateau system by a 9-1 margin, and installed the limited substitution plan. Lou Little of Columbia, chairman of the coaches committee on rules, said the current poll was overwhelmingly in favor of the single plateau style of play.

Hoff Eyes Bout With Marciano

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Philadelphia's Dan Bucceroni, a 2-1 favorite, and Germany's Hein Ten Hoff Tuesday night box a 10-rounder which could increase the crowd hunting a try at Rocky Marciano's heavyweight title.

The bout, which will jam an expected capacity 7,150 into the Milwaukee Auditorium, will not be televised or broadcast.

If the rangy, 215-pound Ten Hoff, former European heavyweight champ, should upset Bucceroni, an offer stands ready to bring Marciano to Berlin for a summer title defense against the 32-year-old Hamburg veteran.

Joachim Goetter, Berlin promoter, Monday wired Ten Hoff's manager, Fred Kirsch, he would dangle a "sizeable sum" to lure Marciano to a defense in Berlin's Olympic Stadium.

The 29-year-old Bucceroni, 190, who like Ten Hoff has lost only three pro bouts, however, hopes to use the German as a spring board to a Miami title bout with Marciano in February of a summer meeting wherever the cash might grow the greenest. Bucceroni currently ranks the No. 4 challenger to Marciano.

Heinrich Inks With NY Giants

NEW YORK (AP)—Don Heinrich, the University of Washington's "Arm" during his college playing days, will make his professional football debut with the New York Giants, probably next fall.

The National Football League club announced Monday it has signed the Bremerton, Wash., quarterback, the nation's leading college passer and an All America selection in 1950 and 1952, to a one-year contract.

Heinrich was drafted by the Giants at the end of the 1952 season. But the Army had a prior claim. His Army hitch will be up in August and Heinrich is expected to be available for the start of the 1954 professional season.

During his Army service, Heinrich was quarterback of the Fort Ord, Calif., Warriors. The team was unbeaten in 12 regular season games and another the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in a postseason Salad Bowl encounter.

Baker Pro Low For L.A. Open

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 28-year-old Baker, Ore., professional, Dick Lundahl, topped the qualifiers for the 28th annual Los Angeles Open Golf Tournament, which starts Friday at Fox Hills.

There were 72 qualifiers Monday over eight courses in the Metropolitan Los Angeles area, but Lundahl, who makes clubs during the winter at an Escondido, Calif., golf factory, fired the low 138. He had a 73 in the morning round and then contributed a sensational six-under-par afternoon round of 65.

Five competitors tied for the second spot—Babe Lazane of Bakersfield, Calif., Ralph Evans of Whittier, Calif., Gene Webb of St. Louis, Pete Fleming of St. Andrews, Ill., and an amateur, Dave Stanley of Montebello, Calif. They had 139's.

There were two aces in Monday's play, one by Bobby Pinnell of Seattle on the 180-yard second hole at Inglewood.

COP Coach Favors National School

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—M. T. (Van) Sweet, College of the Pacific basketball coach, suggests a national basketball school to standardize officiating.

"In every section of the country, we found a different set of standards," Sweet told sports writers Monday of his team's December trip to Illinois, Wisconsin, Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas.

Pacific Edges OCE by 54-51

Wildcats, Duquesne One-Two

By BEN PHEGAR

NEW YORK (AP)—Duquesne's towering Dukes crept up on Kentucky in this week's Associated Press basketball poll but the all-winning Wildcats held on to first place by a narrow margin of 81 points.

They led by 150 points a week ago but Duquesne's sweep through 11 straight games and the Garden Holiday Festival in New York sent the Dukes' stock soaring. Duquesne and Kentucky both won again last night after the polls closed. The Wildcats have won 8, Duquesne 12.

Indiana stayed in third place and Minnesota in sixth but the rest of the positions underwent a thorough shakeup, mainly as a result of holiday tournaments.

MOVES UP

Oklahoma A&M, winner of the All-College Tourney at Oklahoma City, moved up from fifth to fourth, and Western Kentucky, seventh a week ago, jumped to fifth after winning the Louisville Invitational. Western has broken 12 straight this season.

Holy Cross broke into the top 10 in seventh place as it ran its record to 8-0 in winning the Sugar Bowl Tournament at New Orleans. The biggest advance, however, was by Duke, winner of Raleigh's Dixie Classic. The Blue Devils were unranked a week ago. This week they finished eighth in the voting by 89 sports writers and broadcasted. Ten points were awarded for a first-place vote, vote, nine for second, etc.

DROPS

Oklahoma City moved up from 11th to ninth and Oregon State, beaten twice in three games in the Dixie Classic, dropped from fourth to 10th.

Illinois, North Carolina State and Fordham, 8, 9 and 10 a week ago, dropped out of the top 10.
