EUGENE, Ore. (AP)—Oregon applied the pressure in the second half Tuesday night and surprised the favored Idaho Vandals 81-63 in their Northern Division Pacific Coast Conference basketball opener here.

The Vandals fought the Ducks on even terms for the first two periods but faded after the intermission and trailed by 30 points at one point in the fourth quarter.

The Ducks, ranked by Oregon State and Idaho as top contenders for the Northern Division championship, were regarded as underdogs in the series here because of an ankle injury hampering the play of high scoring Ken Wegner.

Ed Halberg filled in for Wegner, however, and paced the Oregon attack with 35 points. Wegner took 5.

Halberg's two free throws with only 10 seconds remaining in the second quarter gave Oregon a 37-36 halftime lead and the Ducks never again were headed.

Dwight Morrison was high man for the Vandals with 21 points. The teams play again Wednesday night.

By JACK HAND. NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Norris will try again today to talk Manager Al Well into a Feb. 24 heavyweight title defense by Rocky Marciano at Miami Stadium.

Although Well says there is a "very slim chance" of the champ fighting in Miami, the president of the International Boxing Club still hopes to promote a title fight this winter.

After talking to Well yesterday for two hours, Norris said he "got the impression that Al is not too anxious to box until June." But Norris planned to remain in town for a week in an effort to make a match.

Marciano already is at Grossinger's where he trains for his fights. At present he is "resting" but Alie Colombo, his co-trainer, is due Sunday. According to reports, Marciano plans to stay for at least a month. Sparring partners have been alerted.

"I'd like to run a match in Miami," said Norris yesterday at a press conference. "The best match for Miami would be Dan Bucceroni or Nino Valdes. I think either would do $250,000 to $300,000."

Bucceroni outpointed Germany's Hein Ten Hoff last night in a 10-rounder at Milwaukee.

Norris said four opponents were discussed with Well — ex-champ Ezzard Charles of Cincinnati, Don Cockell of England, Valdes and Bucceroni. He preferred to hold out Charles for the summer.

"As far as Charles is concerned," said Norris, "I'd like to see Marciano fight him in a New York park fight in June. Al would like to have it in San Francisco but, after all, we operate in New York and have deals with the ball parks."

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (AP)—The Big Four pungles up the first ante this weekend in the Southern Oregon Conference basketball pot in Friday-Saturday series.

The Klamath Falls Pelicans host the Medford Black Tornado in a two-game set on Pelican Court.

Ashland goes to Grants Pass Friday night and trades courts with the Cavemen for the Saturday night ruckus.

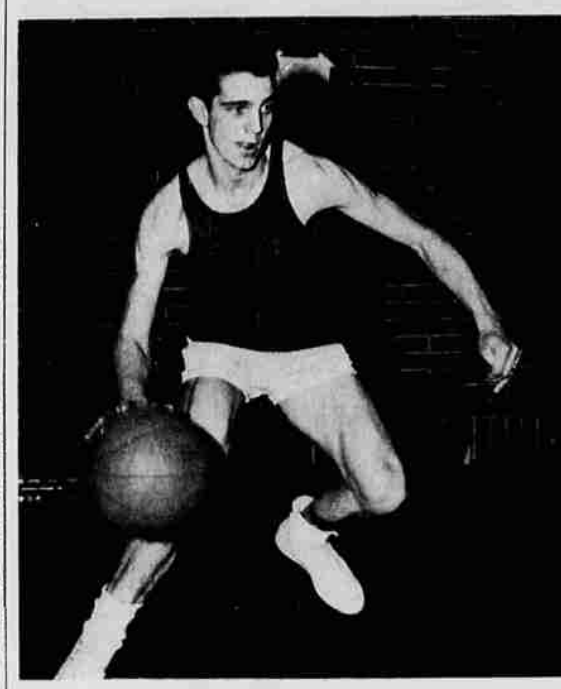

Klamath Coach Paul McCall said today David D'Olivo would be back in shape and would see action in the pivot spot, weak point for the Pelicans in the recent Jefferson series.

The 6-3½ center may not start, McCall said, but he "will be in there."

McCall was expected to name his starting lineup for Friday's district opener Thursday.

It's likely if D'Olivo, who has been out with an infected foot, doesn't get a starting nod, that job would fall to Guy Munsell.

Jimmy Bevans and Larry Yarnell are almost certain to open at the guard positions, while the forward spots are still a question mark.

PIGSKIN COACHES SEEK SUB CHANGES

By FRITZ HOWELL. CINCINNATI (AP)—America's college football coaches, saddled with the one-platoon system for at least another season, want substitution rules relaxed to protect their players.

But the usually militant mentors appear slightly subdued. Their 8-10 poll in favor of two platoons was ignored a year ago when the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. rules committee surprised everyone by instituting the current "both way" style of play.

The Rules Committee of the American Football Coaches Assn., which annually recommends several changes for the NCAA to consider, offered only two yesterday.

RE-ENTER. One would allow a player to re-enter the game once each period, and eliminate the four-minute sessions at the end of the second and fourth periods.

The other would penalize on the ensuing kickoff any defensive team guilty of an infraction during an unsuccessful try for extra point.

Lou Little of Columbia, chairman of the coaches rule group, in chatting about the proposed change, reiterated:

"Two-platoon football is the better football."

He said 219 coaches in his current poll voted to retain the one-platoon system, 189 favored the 1952 rules, and 257 wanted the present regulations liberalized to some extent.

CHANGED. "It just shows how our thinking has changed," he said. "A year ago the coaches were 8 to 1 in favor of two platoons. Now only 189 want that style, and 576 want the single platoon plan or some liberalization of it."

Some coaches said they voted as they did because they felt there was no chance for return of the two-platoon setup, and they wanted to salvage what they could by netting more liberal substitutions.

But Little said he didn't believe checking his condition.

"The rule would help smaller colleges," he said. "I think the coaches were sincere in their voting," he said.

Little disclosed his poll also showed 108 colleges reported an increase in injuries, 69 a decrease, and 95 no change under the single-platoon system.

On the proposed substitution rule, to be considered Jan. 11 in Sarasota, Fla., by the NCAA committee, Little said:

"We feel a boy should be allowed to re-enter the game once in each period. Under the current rule coaches are hesitant about removing a star player because of a minor injury, but they'd act quickly if they knew they could get the boy back into the game after a rest of individual players."

The 48th annual convention of the NCAA and several allied groups were ready to swing into action today.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Bobby Dykes never has lost a fight in Miami Beach Auditorium but the odds are 2-1 he'll lose tonight when he meets Joey Giambra, Buffalo, N. Y., middleweight in a 10-round engagement.

Dykes, 25-year-old native of San Antonio, Tex., who now calls Miami his home, scored two knockouts since Maston O'Neal, Miami contractor, took over as his manager. He said he liked the role of underdog.

PRESSURE. "It sort of takes the pressure off you when you know the other guy is the favorite," he explained.

Dykes has had 107 fights, winning 91, drawing 5 times and losing 11. The only time he was knocked out was by Johnny Bratton in Chicago two years ago.

Giambra, fourth-ranking middleweight, has lost only two of his 39 professional fights and fought one draw. He has scored 21 knockouts.

EAST. Giambra said he intends to take the fight to Dykes. "I like to go right in fast and keep hitting," he explained.

Dykes, who has a style similar to that of Giambra, uses a neat left jab and smashing straight right. Both are clever boxers.

The fight will be televised nationally by CBS.

CHIEFS Win Tenth in Row. TACOMA (AP)—Seattle University's high-scoring Chiefs hung up their 10th straight basketball victory Tuesday night, an 84-65 decision over the College of Puget Sound Loggers.

The Chiefs, tied with Kansas in the No. 16 spot in The Associated Press poll this week, ran away from the Loggers in the third quarter when Joe Pehanick netted 19 of his 25 points.

Pehanick was helped by Stan Glowaski, who contributed 14 points, and Bob Godes, who added 12. Warren Moyles led the Loggers with 16.

DeMolay, Herman's Post Wins

DeMolay and Herman's won opening games in Victory League play last night at Fairview.

DeMolay, winner of the Christmas tournament, downed Peace Memorial, 50-44.

Herman's clobbered YMCA, 46-21.

Larry Dearing scored 17 points in a losing cause for Peace Memorial as DeMolay overcame a 21-23 halftime score and went ahead 39-32 going into the last period.

Mike Hayden led the DeMolays with 14 counters.

Richard Berg led Herman's with 15 points in the rout of the 'Y.' Games Thursday put the Sixth St. Wreckers against Gun Store, tournament runners-up, in the 6:45 opener; and DeMolay against YMCA in the afterpiece.

SHUFF STUFF

In shuffleboard play last night, Mecca, Eagles and Suburban Tavern turned in shutouts and Summers Lane Tavern whipped Schuss Tavern, 3-1.

Mecca blanked Tiny's, 4-0; Eagles did the same to Jonesies and Suburban Tavern to Roundup.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. NEW YORK (AP)—Western Kentucky today held the longest winning streak among major college basketball teams—13 games without a defeat—and it appears that the Hilltoppers are going to make another serious bid for national honors.

Ed Diddle's outfit recorded an easy triumph over Middle Tennessee, 98-67, at Bowling Green, Ky., last night to move one-up over idle Duquesne, which has won 12 in a row.

Western Kentucky has only one more game this week, against Murry State on Saturday, and that should not be too tough an assignment for the fifth-ranked team in the weekly Associated Press poll.

However, next Monday, the Hilltoppers face both Dayton and Eastern Kentucky State, either of which could snap the skein.

9-1 RECORD. Oklahoma City, No. 9, was the only other team in the top 10 in the country to get into action and it coasted to a 56-39 triumph over Oklahoma Baptist to run its record to 9-1.

George Washington and Niagara, tied for 12th spot, both won. The former kept its record unblemished by crushing Clemson 95-55 for its 91-62.

The last of the 18 teams that have been running in the playoffs wound up when Southern turned back the State 87-70 in the final for Bowl event.

There were two upset proportions. Oregon was 10-1 in the 1957-58 season, but one of the preseason favorites, the Northern Division Coast Conference crown, never was headed after losing seconds and drove victory over Kansas State that was rated one of the threats for the Big Seven.

MOMENTUM. In conference races, just gathering momentum, land halted Virginia Tech in the Atlantic Coast Conference elj turned back Columbia, the Ivy league; and the Southwest Conference for edged Texas A&M. Texas vanquished Texas 54-47.

At Madison Square, a small crowd of about 100 out to watch Seton Hall Forest 89-78 and St. Joseph past West Virginia 87-70.
