Trabert Crushes Rosewall

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) —Tony Trabert, U.S. Davis Cup star from Cincinnati, crushed Australia's Ken Rosewall in straight sets Thursday 6-3, 6-3, 6-2 to enter the final of the South Australian Tennis Championship.

Trabert's victory set the stage for another struggle between him and Lewis Hoad, 19-year-old Aussie star. Hoad outlasted Trabert in a bristling five-set key match in the recent Davis Cup challenge round.

Hoad put on a great rally to defeat titleholder Rex Hartwig 4-6, 4-6, 7-5, 6-1, 6-2 in the other semi final Thursday. He and Trabert play for the championship on Saturday.

Senior Bowl Teams Boast Tough Lines

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — If spectators at the Senior Bowl football game Saturday can take their eyes off the star - studded backfields, they should see some slam-bang action on the line.

The first three All - America teams are represented on the North squad, while the Southerners have two first string All-America guards.

North Coach Paul Brown has chosen All-America Don Dohoney for defensive work. The big end was largely responsible for the great Paul Giel being held to a net gain of only 23 yards by Michigan State in its game with Minnesota.

Also on the defending team are center Jerry Hilgenberg, Iowa's second string All-America, and tackle George Jacoby, third string All-America from Ohio State.

They'll run up against the South's two All-Americas, Crawford Mims of Mississippi and J.D. Roberts of Oklahoma. Mims, also on the All-Southeastern Conference honorary squad, was named the outstanding player in the Miami North - South game.

Brothers Meet In Hockey Tilt

BOSTON (AP) — Brotherly love will be conspicuous by its absence on and after Jan. 20 when the Boston Bruins' Lynn Patrick matches coaching wits with his younger brother Murray.

"Naturally I'm happy that 'Muzz' has returned to the National Hockey League as coach of the New York Rangers," Lynn explained. "But when we meet as rival coaches in New York on Jan. 2, there will be no display of brotherly love. I want my Bruins to beat his Rangers every time they meet."

EUGENE, Ore. (AP) — Idaho put the stopper on Oregon's fast break Wednesday night, subduing the Webfoots 60-53 to gain a split in their inaugural Northern Division, Pacific Coast Conference, basketball series.

The Vandals, whipped 81-63 in the opening game Tuesday night, successfully bottled the Oregon attack and with Harlan Melton and Bob Garrison leading the way launched one of their own.

Melton and Garrison, connecting on push shots, contributed 15 points each while his teammates held Oregon's Ed Halberg, who dropped in 25 points Tuesday night to 12. Max Anderson got only 9, half his total of the previous night.

Idaho went out in front early and at one time held an 8-point edge. But the Ducks closed in and the game was tied 9 times and the lead changed hands 16 times. Tommy Flynn's one-hander with six minutes to go gave the Vandals a 50-48 lead and Oregon never caught up.

Idaho travels from here to Corvallis Thursday to play Oregon State, the nation's No. 10 team, in a two-game series starting Friday.

Chiefs Get George Kelly

WENATCHEE, Wash. (AP) —George Kelly, veteran Pacific Coast League coach with the Oakland Acorns, will manage the Wenatchee Western International League baseball club this year.

Officials of the Wenatchee club said Kelly was picked on recommendation of Oakland president Brick Laws.

Kelly, a former first baseman, played with the New York, Cincinnati, Chicago and Brooklyn teams in the National League from 1915 to 1932.

He will be succeeded as coach and scout on the Oakland club by Cookie Lavagetto, who returned to the Oaks from the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Bob Tyler, Wenatchee club president, said Kelly and Charlie Dressen, Oakland manager, will be guests at a baseball banquet here Feb. 1.

Halbrook In Scoring Lead

By JACK HEWINS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Hardly anybody can be surprised this week to look up—way up—and see the nation's tallest basketball player also measuring highest in the Northwest collegiate scoring race.

This, of course, will be Wade (Swede) Halbrook of Oregon State—all 7 feet 3 inches and 237 points of him. Scoring totals for the Northwest through Saturday showed Halbrook with a comfortable bulge on Leon Keefe of Southern Oregon College, whose 216 counters in 11 games earned him second spot for the week.

Halbrook is somewhat off the pace set last year by little Johnny O'Brien of Seattle University, whose 916 were high for the year in the area. Wade's average is 23.7, while Johnny's was 28.6.

Third place in the scoring scramble goes to a Seattle U. [illegible] tall Joe Pehanick, who caged 211 points in 10 games. Gonzaga's Jerry Vermillion runs fourth with 198, but he got them in only eight games and his average is one point better than Halbrook's.

Twenty players have scored 120 or more points this early in the season, none of them needing more than 13 games. All players in the top ten have made 150 or more, and eight schools are represented in the leading ten, Seattle U. and Oregon landing two spots each.

The scoring leaders through Jan. 2:

	G	FG	FT	Pts
Halbrook, OSC	10	81	75	237
Keefe, So.Ore.	11	75	66	216
Pehanick, SU	10	81	49	211
Vermillion, Gon.	8	67	64	198
Trutanich, Port.	13	60	68	188
Bennink, WSC	10	69	48	186
Glowaski, SU	10	72	36	180
Wegner, Ore.	11	51	58	160
Halberg, Ore.	11	59	40	153
Edwards, EWCE	9	56	40	152

Others with 120 or more: Parsons, Washington, 146; Marshall, Portland, 146; Holland, Oregon, 136; Hubert, Pacific, 135; Anderson, Oregon, 131; Grove, Oregon College of Education, 139; Moyles, Puget Sound, 128; Agee, Pacific, 127; Reed, Willamette, 126; Frantz, Oregon College of Education, 123.

L. A. Open Tees Off Friday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — All is ready for the start of the 1954 tournament campaign for the nation's finest golfers, leading off Friday with the 28th annual Los Angeles Open with a purse of $20,000.

Lloyd Mangrum heads the lineup as the favorite to win the event for the fourth time and the second year in succession in a tournament that will be played in new surroundings for the first time since 1946.

Fox Hills Country Club in the rolling section of Southwest Los Angeles is the scene for the first time. Revamped and toughened for the Los Angeles Open, it measures 6,981 yards and has a par of 35-36—71.

Mangrum, whose 4-under par 280 won the 1953 event, said to "watch out" for Cary Middlecoff and Jack Burke Jr. The latter was runner-up for the big prize of $2,750 last year, five strokes behind Mangrum.

Top money this year amounts to $4,000 and second will be worth $2,300.

Virtually every name professional, with the exception of the ailing Sam Snead, Ben Hogan, Freddie Haas and one or two others, is on deck.

SHUFF STUFF

Bill's Place and Suburban Tavern lead the City Shuffleboard League after both turned in second shutouts last night.

Bill's Place blanked Tat's Tavern, 4-0, and Suburban Tavern did the same to VFW. Wocus also turned in a shutout over Roundup.

DON SUTPHIN'S injured foot has had more than two weeks to heal but his starting against Eastern Oregon Monday night here is still doubtful. The high-scoring Oregon Tech guard suffered the injury in the Dec. 22 game against Olympic JC. The Monday-Tuesday series here are Oregon Collegiate Conference games.

Owls, EOC Tip Off OC Action

The Oregon Tech Owls end a three-week basketball vacation Monday and Tuesday nights when they open Oregon Collegiate Conference play in a two-game ruckus with the Eastern Oregon College Mountaineers on Tech's mile-high court.

It's a busy week for the Owls when they follow the EOC series with a two-day rest, then travel to Monmouth for two games (Friday and Saturday) against Oregon College, another league set.

Tech Coach Skeet O'Connell was mum on his starters but said he would announce his nominees Friday.

The Mountaineers, under Coach Bob Quinn, invade Klamath Falls with a perfect 4-0 record in king's-X play. They whipped College of Idaho 78-77, Whitman 82-66 and Seattle Pacific twice, 87-81 and 96-83.

Larry Pryse, 6-3 letterman, is leading the scoring race with 96 points in the four games. Other lettermen on the starting five are forward Ken Westenskow (6-1), center Bob Adrian (6-5) and guard Gary Burton (5-9).

A newcomer, a transfer from Napa JC (California) has worked into the starting lineup at a guard position and is currently second to Pryse with 91 points. He is Ted Schadewitz.

Vance Savage, a freshmen brother of halfback Lorence, sees his share of action, trading off with Burton.

O'Connell said he wasn't sure of the condition of Don Sutphin's foot. The veteran guard injured his heel early in the Dec. 22 Olympic JC game and was sidelined for the rest of the contest.

The Owls held a night workout Wednesday and will do the same tonight. They go back to the dayside Friday and start tapering off Saturday for the OCC double date with the La Grande five.

National Guard won its fourth straight without a setback last night in a high-scoring 81-75 win over Beatty Lakers in one of two City League games at Altamont.

Metler Bros. whipped Klamath Sons, 43-27, in the other game on the double bill.

The Guard-Laker game was close all the way after the Guards posted a 19-11 first-quarter lead. The Lakers closed it to 31-33 at the half and the score was tied 55-all going into the last frame.

Dick Lundsten scored 20 points for the Guards while five other players chipped in with two figures.

Four Beatty cagers were in two figures, led by Buddy Faithful with 23 points. Ralph Weiser added 18, Plummer 17.

In contrast, none of the players in the Metler-Sons game found two figures but nine players hit the scoring column for the winners, Charles Tiplitz, Larry Jeter and Dick Joslyn with eight each.

Elwood Miller was high for the game with 9 for the Sons.

Dorais Buried

DETROIT (AP) — A multitude of his friends saw the beloved Gus Dorais to his rest Wednesday.

Mourners filled Gesu Church for funeral services for the former University of Detroit and Detroit Lions football coach who with Knute Rockne created the forward pass as it is known today.

Dorais, for years one of the nation's most prominent coaches, died at 62 Sunday. He was then long retired as a coach.

Six high school coaches who played for Dorais in his 17-year span at U of D carried his casket. There was a solemn requiem high mass. Internment was at Holy Sepulchre Cemtery.

KICKOFF — Vern Gagne opened his Madison Square Garden wrestling match with Walt (Killer) Kowalski with an ungentlemanly kick in the face. The 275-pound Canadian caught on fast, learning the tricks so well he was disqualified.

Crusaders Win Ninth

By BEN PHLEGAR

NEW YORK (AP) — Holy Cross, long a power in Eastern basketball, appears headed for one of its best seasons since the Crusaders won the NCAA title back in 1947.

Off to an all-winning start the Crusaders polished off their ninth victim last night—a 91-62 breeze over American International — in a triumphant return from the South where they won the Sugar Bowl tournament.

Their New Orleans' success shot the Massachusetts sharpshooters into seventh place in the Associated Press poll.

Togo Palazzi, a silky smooth operator from Union City, N.J., leads the Holy Cross attack and needs just over 100 more points to wind up his career as the second highest scorer in the school's history. He added 22 last night [illegible] limited service.

TOUGH

The Crusaders still face a tough road. They meet Notre Dame in Boston next week and have future engagements with Niagara and unbeaten Connecticut, which won its 11th game last night, 104-48 over New Hampshire.

Among the other nationally ranking clubs, only Duke, No. 8, and Navy, No. 18, saw action last night and both won with ease. The Blue Devils from Durham, N. C., swamped Virginia Tech 82-45. Don Lange set a Naval Academy scoring record of 43 points as the Middies overpowered Johns Hopkins 94-50.

SHATTERED

A couple of other individual scoring records also were shattered. All America Tom Gola established a La Salle mark of 41 points in a 97-62 romp over Loyola of Baltimore and Bevo Francis scored 48, a Butler Fieldhouse record, as little Rio Grande clipped Butler 81-68.

Fordham, generally figured to be the best of a mediocre assortment of New York City teams, was upset 53-49 by St. Francis of Brooklyn. The Rams had lost only once before, to Louisiana State in the Sugar Bowl.

Dartmouth was surprised by Yale 60-58 in its Ivy League season debut. The Indians, beaten just once previously, were considered serious challengers to Cornell in the Ivy.

Louisville folded in the final quarter and bowed to Notre Dame 72-52. Gene Shue scored 34 points as Maryland beat Clemson in an Atlantic Coast Conference game. Ohio State led Pittsburgh all the way in winning 74-55.

Georgia edged Tennessee 71-69 in the Southeastern Conference. And out West Idaho turned the tables on Oregon 60-53.

Four On Ski Team

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP)—The ski team that will carry the United States banner into world-championship competition in Sweden next month had four members Thursday.

Crosby Perry-Smith of Leadville, Colo., Marvin Crawford of the University of Denver and George Hovland of Duluth, Minn., finished in that order in the combined jumping and cross-country tryouts.

Nine skiers competed in the combined event. The jumping had been completed Sunday at nearby Paul Smiths, where tryouts have been going on for the last two weeks.

A New Englander, Robert Pidackx of Rumford, Me., was also placed on the team by the National Ski Assn.

Smith Quits East Texas

COMMERCE, Tex. (AP) — Milburn (Catfish) Smith, who coached small - college East Texas State Teachers College to the nation's longest football win streak, resigned Wednesday.

He said he had a wife and two kids to support and in his business the time to get ahead is while your're up.

There was immediate talk the colorful 41-year-old Smith might be considered for the Texas A&M head coach job, vacated Monday by Ray George.

The Dallas News said it had learned a group of Aggie alumni is working for Smith's nomination.
