Tulelake, Calif.
Rev. Richard E. Graef, Pastor

THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH will see a change in ministers this Sunday when the Rev. Donald Cassidy conducts his farewell services before leaving to assume the pastorate of the Hope Congregational Church in Newport, Wash. Pictured above is a portion of the new addition, which has been in use about a year. Finishing touches on the interior will be the work of the Rev. Cassidy's successor in Klamath Falls.

Local Congregational Pastor To Assume Washington Duties

The Rev. Donald Cassidy, pastor for three and a half years of the Congregational Church, 3154 Garden, will leave Monday for Newport, Wash., where he will assume the pastorate of the Hope Congregational Church.

An interim pastor is expected to be called this Sunday, who will serve for about nine months while the congregation locates a permanent pastor.

Farewell services will be held this Sunday at the regular 11 a.m. Morning Worship.

The Rev. Cassidy is originally from Larkspur, Calif., just north of San Francisco. He attended the University of California, Marin Junior College, spent some time in the Navy, then graduated from San Jose State College in 1947 and from Pacific School of Religion in 1950. The Klamath Falls church was his first pastorate, and was assumed in June of 1950, immediately after completion of study at Pacific School of Religion.

Active in community affairs during his stay in Klamath Falls, the Rev. Cassidy has served on the City Library Board, was president of the local chapter of the National Association for the Advancement

Ten Commandments Is Sermon Subject At First Baptist

Dr. E. M. Causey will preach a series of sermons on the Ten Commandments at the First Baptist Church beginning Sunday, Jan. 10.

Bob Pierce Missionary Movie To Be Shown at Armory Jan. 12

The newest Bob Pierce missionary film document, "This Gathering Storm," is being released soon in the new wide-screen dimension. Specially designed optics in high intensity arc projection and a portable 50-foot-wide screen where auditorium proscenium will use it, otherwise a 34-foot screen, have been constructed for World Vision, Inc., Portland, by Great Commission Films, producers of the film.

"This Gathering Storm" is a heart-searching story of the impending storm breaking over Asia as seen through the eyes of Dr. Bob Pierce in his missionary journey. The film has been typed by such outstanding Christian leaders as Evangelist Billy Graham, Sunday School worker and lecturer Dr. Henrietta C. Meares, Evangelist Jack Schuler and others as the most comprehensive study of missions ever released to the public.

In a vital moving way, the viewer is taken along the Korean battleground with Evangelist Billy Graham preaching to United Nations troops and Korean refugees, to the masses of India and their restless search for peace and to the shores of Japan where nationalism is experiencing a rebirth. Such actual scenes as snake charmers, Hindu religious rites and dances, multitudes bathing in the Ganges River, the sacrificing of a bull in religious ceremony, contrasted with thousands listening to the preaching of Dr. Bob Pierce, bring the viewer very close to the land of India and the great conflict taking place there.

Narrated by Dr. Pierce, with Joyce Compton, Edo Mita, Aly Wassil, Rhoda Williams and Gregory Walcott in character roles, "This Gathering Storm" is seen in beautiful natural color and is 65 minutes in length.

This film will be shown at the Armory Tuesday, Jan. 12, at 7:45 p.m., admission free.

IOOF To Sponsor Klamath Or Lakeview Youth On Trip To UN Headquarters

For the first time in five years that the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows has sponsored the Youth Pilgrimage Tour of the United Nations, Klamath and Lake County high school students will compete with each other for the chance to make the coveted trip.

Sponsored by Oddfellow Lodges in Klamath Falls, Merrill, Bonanza, Lakeview and Paisley any high school student between the ages of 15 and 17 inclusive, living within the boundaries of one of the two counties, boy or girl, sophomore or junior, regardless of whether their parents are members of the IOOF, are eligible to enter the essay contest.

Final plans for the contest are being completed, according to Herbert Munsell, local chairman of the Youth Pilgrimage Committee. The topic to be used in the essay contest will be announced Jan. 25 and will pertain to some phase of the United Nations and may contain not more than 5,000 words, Munsell stated.

Fourteen students will be selected from the state of Oregon to attend the six day U.N. assembly along with winners from Washington, British Columbia and Alberta. This group will congregate at Spokane about July 10 and travel by bus to New York arriving there in time for a tour of United Nations buildings starting July 15.

Highlights of the tour include a visit to the U.N. Secretariat Bldg., and a session of the General Assembly where they will have an opportunity to study the functions of different branches of the United Nations. They will hear the delegates talk in foreign languages and hear the translation into English by the use of head-phones.

A tour of Radio City and a visit to the Statue of Liberty are on the agenda as well as a stop at International House where students from all over the world will be on hand to greet the westerners.

In addition to the Pacific Northwest winners, five other groups of approximately 90 students each will make the tour at different times during the summer.

The delegates making the trip will be fully insured against any injuries and one chaperone will be delegated to each ten students.

The essay contest will be handled through the cooperation of High School principals and contestants may sign up at their respective schools at a date to be announced later.

Judging of each schools contestants and final judging to select the two-county winner will be done by men and women not connected with the school systems or the Oddfellow Lodges, according to Munsell, and no strings will be attached to winners, other than that they must be willing upon their return to their schools to give talks before civic groups about his or her impressions of the United Nations.

Gunman Runs Into Trouble

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A bragging New Jersey gunman who said he came to "kill some people here who cheated me" was captured last night in a tavern rendezvous set up by police.

Police said he identified himself as Joseph R. Reilly, 30, and said he was a personal friend of New York bank robber Willie Sutton, now in prison.

Police Lt. Vic Soule said Reilly is wanted for questioning in the "revenge killing" of the New York man who helped send Sutton to prison.

Earlier last night, Soule said, Reilly took $20 at gunpoint from a 45-year-old hairdresser.

The victim reported the theft to police and said Reilly telephoned him later and demanded a second meeting. Police went along, and grappled with Reilly when he reached for a pistol in his belt.

Arnold Schuster, 24, was shot to death on the street near his Brooklyn home March 8, 1952, a few weeks after he spotted Sutton and tipped police.

The slaying remains unsolved. Schuster recognized Sutton on a subway train from a picture of the fugitive he had seen. Schuster trailed Sutton and notified police who seized him.

Sutton, a notorious bank bandit and jail breaker, is serving a 30-year term at Attica (N. Y.) State Prison.

Officers on duty at New York City police headquarters say they knew of no man named Reilly having in connection with the Schuster slaying.

Brothers Hurt In Sled Accidents

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Six-year-old John Deiler went sledding near his home yesterday and crashed into a parked auto.

While he was being taken to a hospital, his 5-year-old brother, Sam—unaware John had been hurt—also went sledding and rammed into a tree.

The brothers are in serious condition at the same hospital today, John with a brain concussion and Sam with a possible skull fracture.

Student Juggled For Assault

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 17-year-old high school student who punched his teacher in the eye was sentenced yesterday to an indefinite term in the Cleveland Boys School at Hudson.

Juvenile Court Judge Albert A. Wolman said the pupil "struck a blow not at this individual teacher but at our entire school system."

Ernest L. Cookson, 62-year-old science instructor, suffered a laceration above his eye after he asked the boy to take his seat in class.

Tourist "Drops In" On Resort

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—A tourist literally dropped in on Colorado Springs yesterday—from 20,000 feet straight up.

It happened because M. Sgt. James Ayres, crew member of a B50 bomber from Walker Air Force Base at Roswell, N. M., mistook an airplane alert for the ball-out signal.

Ayres hopped out of the plane, pulled the ripcord and landed safely in a field east of Colorado Springs. He then hitchhiked here.

Maj. C. W. Simonsen, commander of the big bomber, said he pressed the alert signal after one of the B50's four propeller-driven engines acted up. He landed the plane at Lowry Air Force base in Denver.

Busy Beavers Have Neighborhood Upset

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Eager and busy beavers are causing concern in southwest Albuquerque.

It's not so much that they've built three dams across an irrigation ditch, and have chewed at aged shade trees until they're in danger of falling. What people in the area are really unhappy about is that the beavers can be heard at night chomping on the trees.

This starts the neighborhood dogs barking and causes considerable lack of sleep.

Six Killed In Auto Accident

BASTROP, La. (AP)—Six persons died—five from one family—in a head-on automobile crash north of here yesterday. Two others were injured.

Police said Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lynn, both in their 30's, and their three children, Danny 7; Curtis 2; and Derral, an infant girl, all of Bastrop, and Mrs. Ida Moore of Jones, La., were killed.

Five-year-old Donnie Lynn was among the injured.
