The McKays Make Talks

WASHINGTON—A horse and a 12-egg angel food cake aren't a usual combination, but they went together every well — as covers seasonal centerpiece — when Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Douglas McKay held a small court of their own at a recent big embassy party.

The horse's proper name is Eugene Peavine but it is called "Gene" by the McKays. The Secretary rides it nearly every Saturday and Sunday. He had it shipped East from Oregon last September. "I brought my wife and secretary with me when I came to Washington," he told me. "I couldn't leave my horse behind."

The angel food cake is the one Mrs. McKay makes after her own favorite recipe. It has won her many prizes. "I won first prize for years in a row at the county fair until they finally ruled me out of the contest," she laughed, "but I still whip up the cake for the family and my friends. One time I made 17 in advance for three buffet parties in Salem when Mr. McKay was governor."

"With your recipe your husband ought to run a little egg business on the side like Secretary Ickes did," I suggested. "I haven't got any hens," the secretary replied, "but I've got the same chauffeur who used to deliver the eggs for Ickes. Once a newspaper wanted to take his picture with the eggs. He delivered the eggs first, then offered to pose."

The McKays are enjoying their life in Washington. They live in a large two-bedroom apartment, but they miss their five grandchildren and daughters, Mrs. Wayne E. Hadley and Mrs. Lester D. Green in Salem. They are looking forward to their trip West for Christmas.

The secretary showed up at the party in tux and black tie and Mrs. McKay, an attractive woman with soft grey hair and brown eyes was in a grey lace dinner gown with diamond necklace. They were going on to a formal supper party.

The McKay's social obligations keep them pretty busy. "At home as Governor's wife I used to have Tuesdays as a day for calls," Mrs. McKay said. "Here people call any day, at any hour and expect you to be in. Sometimes I have to call the apartment house reception desk and ask them to say I'm out, just to get personal things done — like baking a cake, for instance."

It takes Mrs. McKay two hours to make a cake. She does all the beating by hand and increases the heat of the oven every 10 minutes during the hour of its baking.

NEW OFFICERS OF THE KLAMATH COUNTY Council PTA who will serve during 1954 are far left, Mrs. H. A. Moore, president; Mrs. Eldred Hansen, vice president; Mrs. John W. Insley, secretary and Mrs. Alexander Luff, treasurer.

How To Lose 20 Pounds In Two Weeks

Editor's Note: With those extra pounds slipping up on us during the holidays, a repeat print of the following diet has been requested by feminine readers who want to regain their svelte-like figures.

If you're 15 pounds heavier than your desirable weight—then you're overweight — and let's face it, there's only one answer: diet. The editors of Pageant Magazine have come up with a new one which is supposed to lop off 20 pounds in 14 days, provided you follow it to the letter, making no substitutions, no additions, no subtractions.

1. If you're suffering from high blood pressure, arterio-sclerosis or kidney ailments, you should steer clear of this high protein, high cholesterol diet, cautions Pageant—but normally healthy would-be reducers have only to observe these precautions:
1. Check with your doctor before starting diet.
2. Follow with menu exactly — add nothing, change nothing.
3. Eat everything that is listed.
4. Eat only lean parts of meat.
5. Eat vegetables without butter, salad without oil.
6. Use no cream or sugar in coffee.
7. Use salt sparingly.
8. Vary preparation of eggs, using minimum of fat.
9. Where no quantity is given, amount is of no great importance.
10. Omit all alcoholic and soft drinks.
11. Repeat diet for second week and diet for two weeks only.

Now you're on your mark — so get set . . .

Civil Defense Not Good Enough

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. — The nation's civil defense workers are doing a "good job" in defense preparations, but not good enough to meet the emergency of an atomic attack.

Navy Wants To Rent Landing Ship

ORANGE, Tex. — The U. S. Navy wants to rent a ship. Eighth Naval District headquarters in New Orleans announced yesterday that its Military Sea Transportation Service has requested private ship owners to offer a medium landing ship for time charter by Feb. 15.

SAVING SAVVY

If contour sheets which take a lot of punishment begin to tear along the corner seam line, reinforce the seams with heavy tape.

DITCH THE TREE

Be sure to take your Christmas tree down and move it out of the house before its dryness becomes a fire hazard.

MILLER-WILLIAMS is the new name for the photo studio at 512 Main in the downstairs store at Miller's. The business, formerly, Miller Brumbaugh, has been purchased by Clyde and Mary Williams. Mrs. Williams, known for several years to patrons of Klamath Falls studios will be in charge. Her husband, also a photographer, employed at J. W. Kerns will assist her. Mrs. Williams was with Kennell-Ellis and the Brumbaugh studios. Rita Full will also be associated with Mrs. Williams. The new owners will specialize in portraits, weddings and copies.

Correct Candlelighting Adds Charm And Grace To Modern Living

You don't have to be an interior decorator nor a display artist to set a beautiful table. With a little imagination, an assortment of candles and a few simple rules, you can create an attractive table for any special occasion of the year — holidays, weddings, anniversaries, birthdays and parties.

Here are a few helpful tips from the Will & Baumer Candle Company. Begin by buying the better grade of hand-dipped candles made with firm-fitting ends, which fit most easily into the holder socket and keeps the candles securely in place. This way your candles will be straight and prevented from tilting and burning unevenly.

In purchasing candles it should also be remembered that the length of the candle should bear some relationship to the height of the holder in which it is to be used. Use tall, stately tapers in low candle holders and shorter candles in tall candlesticks. And for the comfort of your guests use tapers sufficiently tall so that the flames stay above eye level for the duration of the meal. Keep lighted candles out of drafts, thus preventing drippings.

In setting your table avoid the stereotyped arrangement of bunching your candles in the center, thereby leaving the guests at the ends in semi-darkness and the mistake of too few candles. The number of candles to be used in setting a traditional or a striking contemporary table will be determined by the length of the table. A good rule of thumb is to use at least four candles to light the average dining table. And do not restrict candles to the table, place them in other parts of the room to contribute light and charm to your room.

If necessary, use supplementary electric light—preferably side lights so you'll have ample illumination. You don't have to eat in semi-darkness to enjoy the charm of candlelight. Your candle arrangement can be as formal or as informal as you like depending upon how and with what the candles are used. Don't be afraid to mix or blend colors or use candles of different shapes and heights together. A change in candle holders and use of new colorful candles will go a long way toward giving your setting that certain individual flair. And don't let lack of candle holders deter you—you can improvise good candle holders from many household accessories.

Keep an assortment of candles in your buffet drawer, so you will never need to be without a frequent change of candles. Candles will improve with age if left in the package. They will store indefinitely at room temperature.

The following are the leading types of candles made for decorative and home use.

TAPERLIKE CANDLES

The traditional hand-dipped candle that gives a festive air to even the simplest family dinner. These graceful colorful candles are also perfect for the new modern brass and wrought iron holders that are now available in a variety of shape and heights.

TAVERN CANDLES

The design and rich uniform coloring of these hand-dipped saffron finish candles will add glamour to any table setting, modern or traditional. They are equally beautiful for mantel, sideboard and console candlesticks.

A beautiful renaissance designed candle that adds the finishing touch to the most elegant centerpiece . . . Use these colorful candles to grace a buffet . . . bestow beauty on a mantel . . . or to endow console groups with special grandeur. This artistic twist candle is popular everywhere as a decorative centerpiece.

PRINCESS CANDLES

The tall, slender graceful lines of the white Princess candles are ideally suited for the new modern Dutch and Swedish designed candlesticks that are so popular today in contemporary homes.

VASSAR CANDLES

The distinctively beautiful formed Vassar candle is specially designed for the discriminating hostess who wants quality hand-dipped candles on her dinner table. There is a size and color to add fresh new beauty to every table. Vassar candle is the natural choice of gracious homemakers.

MARBLE CANDLES

There are the correct candles for weddings, formal dinners and other occasions where dignity and stateliness prevail. The simple lines of the white Marble candle complements all types of candleholders . . . found in every kind of interior decoration, whether traditional or modern.

PATROLITES

The lovely new Patrolite . . . a glass-enclosed windproof candle . . . will add warmth and friendliness to your home. But do not limit the colorful Patrolite to your terrace, patio or garden . . . use them to create a dramatic table arrangement . . . as mantel and sideboard ornaments, night lights in guest rooms . . . and as a guardian light for archways. During the holidays . . . line your walkway with Patrolites and they will sing out a warm welcome to your guest.

Evergreen Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the senior branch of the Evergreen Garden Club was held Monday evening Jan. 4, at the Altamont Junior High School to hear Joe Schuh talk on insects and their control. Hostesses were Lillian Kamarad and Blanche Montgomery. An attractive arrangement of juniper branches was furnished by Hallie Miller.

The club has received an appreciated gift from Robert Morrow of 4428 Bisbee who does cabinet work of all kinds. He presented a beautifully made cash box of mahogany to Esther Daulton, club treasurer.

Alma Uppendahl who has charge of the next meeting announced that Clarence Bussman of Murphy's Feed Store will be the speaker at the February meeting. Bussman will have films to show on African Violets, a subject of interest to many people. The meeting will be on Feb. 1.

NOT TOO "TUFF"

Keeping Venetian blinds clean isn't as formidable a job if you use your vacuum cleaner brush attachment to remove loose dirt.

GOOD IDEA

Use the family camera to record more than the day to day activities of the children. "Before" and "after" pictures of a home improvement project will give you proud proof of your talents.

Restore suede shoes that are matted down by rubbing spots with emery board, steaming and then brushing thoroughly.
