

REFLECTIONS FROM

Milly's Mirror

LAD WITH A "STRAD" — was the 11 yr. old son of Bert Muehlen, the evening appearance of Erica Morion at the Pelican Theater — carried the artist's priceless Stradivarius from the car to the dressing room — and no field 1 (one) of the 500 Strads believed to be in existence — His other—well known locally in music circles—was a 1934 sort of a Concert Association to the idea and her sister, Alice (Mrs. M. Wolski), who was accompanied at night—Erica wanted a pre-empt rest—so our hostess took on to the hotel—but sister Alice wanted to practice and Bee said "Comma my house" — and was hereby treated to some terrific and tricky technique—Alice Wolski's piano in SF — and Bee Muehlen whose musicianship is considerable — was impressed and did for the record that she considered her visitor a brilliant artist—The sisters liked Klamath Falls—and they were impressed with the metropolitan and cosmopolitan atmosphere of our town expected to appear on nothing less than the large stage of the Pelican—and Bee gave them some wild preserves — which they promptly sampled—it was their last taste—but not their last—for they found that it could be purchased locally—another thing that impressed them was the heated glow of Explanade—which is getting national recognition—My! it sounds like they were impressed we hope so—for WE were impressed with THEM!

FOR THOSE—who knew the Guy Ferguson when they lived here before moving to Reno—and who haven't heard about it, Marlowe this is it—She finished college at the U of Nevada—was a Tri-Delt and member of scholastic honorary Phi Kappa Phi—was active in Rainbow For Girls—Order Eastern Star also went to College of the Pacific and was stewardess for 3 years for Pan-American World Airways—Now she's married to James John. Kellies — also with Pan American—and they met in Hong Kong—wedding was Dec. 6 in Reno—and they won't be home until March—they're now on an around-the-world trip by plane—and when they are at home—it will be in Seattle—where Kellies continues with Pan-A as ground service supervisor—The Ferguson's lived at 629 Jefferson—he and he was local manager of Woolworths for 10 years prior to the move to Reno.

BY INVITATION — Keith and Clarice Moon could have paraded their Pompos at TWO of the most important — end-of-the-year events—the Shrine East-West football game—at Kezar Stadium in SF — and the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena—the Moons accepted the invitation given first—and were part of the spectacular parade in Pasadena — Keith on "Country Wheat" — and Clarice on "Golden Linda" — what they were in is what intrigues — Clarice was a divided skirt of turquoise with a good 25 yards of ruffling around and around—each ruffle outlined with black lace and sequin banded — with a sprinkling of rhinestones over-all — Her jacket was solid with sequins—and her lace mantilla was also dotted with rhinestones—Announcers along the path of the parade were heard describing in detail her stunning costume — even to the Spanish comb—and repeatedly was said—"Beautifully matched Palominos!" Keith wore his new pearl gray Spanish don garb — the jacket was trimmed with varied-sized diamonds of silver embroidery—larger on the back of the jacket to smaller on the sleeves and all were outlined with rhinestones and studded with different colored jewels within the diamonds—The trouser legs were also trimmed with diamonds (smaller) up the sides—with the same jewel and rhinestone treatment — The sash and inserts were fuchsia—his matching sash also carried out the diamond motif—with the rhinestone and jewel detail—on a background of silver — embroidered scrolls—the brilliant stones flashed in the slight smiles—Keith wore a white Spanish don hat with engraved silver band—and the horses — oh yes—the horses—well — they were all Spanish trappings—topped with simply gorgeous silver-mounted charro saddles—(Clarice should have hoped to have pictures but not here yet—anyway—black and white could never do justice to THOSE outfits.

ALSO SCHOOL PALS — and former roommates at Villa Wally — were Betty Brown, daughter of Jess Browns, Henley — and Barbara Hough—who spent Christmas with her mother Mrs. Donna Hough — Portland — and a few of the holidays as Betty's houseguest—They last weekend to return to their respective fields of toil in So California — Betty as home ec teacher at Sturges H. S. in San Bernardino — and Barbara to Life Ins. Co.

RECENT HOUSEGUESTS — at a Einar Brandness home on California were the James Hanys and Mrs. Karen and Jane — they were here primarily to go to the wedding of their nephew and Susan, Bill Brandness to Sharon Lenger — which was a holiday main event.

CORA LEAVITT — our long-time onanza and Langell Valley correspondent — and Lester — her spouse — 28 years are going to observe and celebrate the anniversary Jan. — as dinner guests of the William Burnett's — We knew through hearing of Cora's reputation as a marvelous cook and hostess—that she has over her "bride-fright" — but had no idea that the Leavitts had begun to APPROACH the Silver Anniversary—much less that they have PASSED it! Anyways congratulations to the Leavitts.

I QUOTE — (from the printed Thanksgiving menu with seasonal and colorful cover design—from the 33 Aircraft Control and Warning Squadron — Giebelstadt, Germany) that Major Zed W. Barnes, Commander said in a message printed in the inside of the cover—"For the past 330 years we Americans have celebrated "Thanksgiving Day." It is truly American, steeped in sentiment and traditions. Not only is this a day of festivities, but a day of reverent Thanksgiving to our Father for the many blessings which have enriched our nation and for the American way of life. With each one of you a most happy holiday," signed by Zed and above—and a further quote in part—from the chaplain's message, Capt. Earl A. Mack, "... As long as we have homes, families and friends; as long as we have a country that promotes family life and makes possible the realization of our dreams; as long as we have things that we all hope for—then we have reasons to be thankful. Thanksgiving is a Divine gift. Whatever our faith — we can be thankful to God for the privileges and possibilities resulting from a "FREE" nation." — I quote the major and the chaplain instead of the items which—although not "everyday" from soup to nuts—is all everything from fresh shrimp cocktail to strictly out of Gourmet — I quote them instead because the messages made me THINK—and I am hungry; while they are in active combat and are generally living more or less comfortably—they are away from home and not just on a sightseeing tour—even though some have families with them—They STILL are really "away from home" — with a new perspective they evaluate what we have over here differently — now that they are

"over there"—Between the lines the message within — the message from Zed and the chaplain reads, "There's no place like home — (as we remember it)—and the longer they're there — the better home will seem in retrospect—On — well—it just struck me that Thanksgiving shouldn't have any special day—that the 1st of January is a good time to start 365 days of being truly grateful that we are not surrounded with the unrest that permeates the whole atmosphere in nearly every other country—and I hope those on overseas duty to preserve that way of life come BACK to it.

BY INVITATION — Keith and Clarice Moon could have paraded their Pompos at TWO of the most important — end-of-the-year events—the Shrine East-West football game—at Kezar Stadium in SF — and the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena—the Moons accepted the invitation given first—and were part of the spectacular parade in Pasadena — Keith on "Country Wheat" — and Clarice on "Golden Linda" — what they were in is what intrigues — Clarice was a divided skirt of turquoise with a good 25 yards of ruffling around and around—each ruffle outlined with black lace and sequin banded — with a sprinkling of rhinestones over-all — Her jacket was solid with sequins—and her lace mantilla was also dotted with rhinestones—Announcers along the path of the parade were heard describing in detail her stunning costume — even to the Spanish comb—and repeatedly was said—"Beautifully matched Palominos!" Keith wore his new pearl gray Spanish don garb — the jacket was trimmed with varied-sized diamonds of silver embroidery—larger on the back of the jacket to smaller on the sleeves and all were outlined with rhinestones and studded with different colored jewels within the diamonds—The trouser legs were also trimmed with diamonds (smaller) up the sides—with the same jewel and rhinestone treatment — The sash and inserts were fuchsia—his matching sash also carried out the diamond motif—with the rhinestone and jewel detail—on a background of silver — embroidered scrolls—the brilliant stones flashed in the slight smiles—Keith wore a white Spanish don hat with engraved silver band—and the horses — oh yes—the horses—well — they were all Spanish trappings—topped with simply gorgeous silver-mounted charro saddles—(Clarice should have hoped to have pictures but not here yet—anyway—black and white could never do justice to THOSE outfits.

ALSO SCHOOL PALS — and former roommates at Villa Wally — were Betty Brown, daughter of Jess Browns, Henley — and Barbara Hough—who spent Christmas with her mother Mrs. Donna Hough — Portland — and a few of the holidays as Betty's houseguest—They last weekend to return to their respective fields of toil in So California — Betty as home ec teacher at Sturges H. S. in San Bernardino — and Barbara to Life Ins. Co.

RECENT HOUSEGUESTS — at a Einar Brandness home on California were the James Hanys and Mrs. Karen and Jane — they were here primarily to go to the wedding of their nephew and Susan, Bill Brandness to Sharon Lenger — which was a holiday main event.

CORA LEAVITT — our long-time onanza and Langell Valley correspondent — and Lester — her spouse — 28 years are going to observe and celebrate the anniversary Jan. — as dinner guests of the William Burnett's — We knew through hearing of Cora's reputation as a marvelous cook and hostess—that she has over her "bride-fright" — but had no idea that the Leavitts had begun to APPROACH the Silver Anniversary—much less that they have PASSED it! Anyways congratulations to the Leavitts.

I QUOTE — (from the printed Thanksgiving menu with seasonal and colorful cover design—from the 33 Aircraft Control and Warning Squadron — Giebelstadt, Germany) that Major Zed W. Barnes, Commander said in a message printed in the inside of the cover—"For the past 330 years we Americans have celebrated "Thanksgiving Day." It is truly American, steeped in sentiment and traditions. Not only is this a day of festivities, but a day of reverent Thanksgiving to our Father for the many blessings which have enriched our nation and for the American way of life. With each one of you a most happy holiday," signed by Zed and above—and a further quote in part—from the chaplain's message, Capt. Earl A. Mack, "... As long as we have homes, families and friends; as long as we have a country that promotes family life and makes possible the realization of our dreams; as long as we have things that we all hope for—then we have reasons to be thankful. Thanksgiving is a Divine gift. Whatever our faith — we can be thankful to God for the privileges and possibilities resulting from a "FREE" nation." — I quote the major and the chaplain instead of the items which—although not "everyday" from soup to nuts—is all everything from fresh shrimp cocktail to strictly out of Gourmet — I quote them instead because the messages made me THINK—and I am hungry; while they are in active combat and are generally living more or less comfortably—they are away from home and not just on a sightseeing tour—even though some have families with them—They STILL are really "away from home" — with a new perspective they evaluate what we have over here differently — now that they are PRIZE PATIENTS — at the Klamath Valley Hospital are Twyla Ferguson and Jennie Hurn — The condition of both of them has been a matter of general concern — Twyla — for quite some time — and Jennie since Dec 24 — they're REALLY prize patients — with unbelievable "bounce" — and reporting their steady improvement is a wonderful way to start the day!

LLOYD AND FLORENCE—Timmons — who run Rocky Point Resort — breezed in yesterday on their way to Reno, Las Vegas, Albuquerque, Oklahoma City, Memphis and on down the SE seaboard — son Bud's in Moultrie, Ga — stationed at Spence Field — so they'll spend some time there — do a little deep sea fishing in Florida — and will be back at Rocky Point early in April — in time to open it up for fishing season — crazy mixed up kids — don't they know that Rocky Point's a year round proposition now? — Just ask some of the "WINTER" home owners!!

BIRTHDAY PARTY — Lynda Jean Jessup was three years old, Tuesday, Dec. 29. Fourteen little girl friends helped her celebrate the big occasion by bringing her a present and enjoying her Candy House Cake made by her mother, Mrs. R. E. Jessup. The party was held in the Chevalier Hotel Lobby. Holiday decorations, a blazing Yule log on the fire and the many happy faces made it a jolly event for the small fry. Attending were: Dawn, Debra, Darlene and Diane Eyer, Marilyn Bourne, Shirley Ramsey, Karen and Celeste Crencenz, Trudy and Josette Stockman, Marie Galbreath and Bonnie Jane Taylor, Cathie Parris and Kathie Carlson were unable to come. Five brother managed to crash the party a refreshment time. They were: Danny Jessup, Adrian Stockman, Bobby and Jimmy Galbreath and Ernie Taylor, my balloons on a stick were presented each child by Lynda Jean.

VERY SWISH... was the party given at the Pilots' Club Dec. 28, to celebrate the 15th birthday anniversary of Janice Lee Menti. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max W. Menti, Lakeshore Drive, were hosts to over 50 of Janice Lee's young friends. Her club rooms were beautifully decorated in festive holiday motif; and the large lace-draped refreshment table was heavily laden with trays of sandwiches, cake, confections, punch and so forth. In the group picture, some of the guests are shown between dances. From the left, Del-

15TH HAPPY HOLIDAY BIRTHDAY

mer Rose, Dermot Eckert, Jan Cox, Bryan Jacobs, Nelde Snook, Sharon Whitlock, Susan Peterson, (behind her) Pat Wilson; Janice, guest of honor; Richard Egan, Sharon Rowe, John Nolen, Lowell Newton, Steve Reeder, Jeannine Vickers, Janet Meyer, Sharon Powell and Derik Burkholz. Other picture is of Janice and Tom Ankeny, who was her escort and co-incidentally it was his birthday.

CHILOQUIN

BY DARLENE WOLFF Home for the holidays were several college students and also several servicemen. Leaving last week end to return to law school at the University of Oregon was Bill Norval, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Norval, Tony Unive, son of Mrs. Mildred Smith, returned to the University of Portland where he is a sophomore. Joe Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ball Sr. of Sand Creek returned to Santa Clara University where he is a senior. Don Ling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Mendenhall, was home from the navy and brought with him a friend who had just received his discharge. The guest was Herbert Blinn of Phoenix, Ariz. Don returned to San Diego for this week for another six weeks' period of training and then will be sent to Bremerton, Wash. to work. At the Mendenhalls for Christmas dinner were their daughters, Menda and Linda, Joan Ling, son Don, Herbert Blinn, Leland Ortis and Sharon Zadina. Unable to attend was the fourth daughter, Edith Ling, who had to work, and Joel George.

Flores Hecock was home from Fort Ord but returned this week. Actually a Fort Klamath soldier, he attended school in Chilouquin and married a Chilouquin girl, Jessie Hatcher. Jessie and their infant boy have been in California near Fort Ord, but they returned early in December on a business matter. They hope to go south again by the middle of January to be with Flo.

Returning to Eugene last week end was Jeffrey Heath, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markwardt. Both Jeffrey and Stephen Heath had stayed after Christmas when their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Heath, and sister, Roxanna, returned to their home in Eugene. Stephen will be here another week. Overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolff at Williamson River last week were Mrs. Wolff's brother and nephew and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Flury of Eagle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Flury and 18 months old son who will soon call Eagle Point as their home. Also, Pete Flury's address, also. They are recently from the army there was stationed with the Flurys. Flurys visited with other relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Flury of the Sprague River highway, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hengl and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rodgers of Sprague River, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glenger and Mrs. Ruby Peeler of Chilouquin.

For several nights last week the ice skating locally was excellent. The mill pond on Williamson river was cleared of rough snow and weak spots marked by some of the Sam Erickson family and a number of people enjoyed the short lived sport.

There was a small sized family teachers' convention at the Rose home over the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Abner Roser was hostess to her daughter Lorna, a teacher at Coos Bay, daughter Linda, who taught until this year in Portland, Linda's husband, Dr. Don Smith, dentist now in Grants Pass, her sister, Mrs. Minnie Mallory who teaches in Silver Lake, her nephew, Michael Prowell, Larry Peters, Stephen Huff, Howard Wright, Shelley and Yvonne Lobert.

er, like here in town and they spent considerable time with them, also. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stanfield and their six children moved to Big Bear Lake in Southern California during the Christmas holidays. They had moved here in the summer but Stanfield had been doing logging in California for the past month or so.

Guest over New Years at the Ted Markwardt home was Pama Leever of Redwood City, cousin of Mrs. Markwardt. She left last weekend.

SOROPTIMIST

Members of the Soroptimist Club meeting Jan. 7 for luncheon in the Winema Hotel heard Lewis Stanfield, assistant engineer with the Oregon State Engineers, outline plans for the suggested compact between Oregon and California, relative to future use of water from Oregon watersheds. Stanley, associated in an official capacity with the Oregon-Klamath River Water Commission, is assisting with a survey being made of the Klamath watershed, which includes an aerial survey of the region. He reviewed the accomplishments of the commission appointed in 1933, particularly in the field of advancement for women. Suggestions by members for candidates were asked for by President Ruth Adams.

Announcement of the coming convention of the American Federation of Soroptimists, to be held in Banff, Canada, next summer was also made. Planning to attend will be Mrs. Alice Lamm, Mrs. Dena Backes, Isabelle Brunner, Edna Albrecht, and Ruth Adams. Others planning to make the trip are Mr. and Mrs. Cal Peyton and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson.

4th Birthday

CHILOQUIN—It was a big occasion at the Lewis Jones home one day late in December when Randy celebrated his fourth birthday at a 3 to 5 o'clock party given by his mother.

Young people Randy invited were his three sisters, Connie, Terri and Kathryn, Pep Parker, Gerry Wolff, Eric and Jimmy Jaderholm, Michael Prowell, Larry Peters, Stephen Huff, Howard Wright, Shelley and Yvonne Lobert.

er, like here in town and they spent considerable time with them, also. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Stanfield and their six children moved to Big Bear Lake in Southern California during the Christmas holidays. They had moved here in the summer but Stanfield had been doing logging in California for the past month or so.

Guest over New Years at the Ted Markwardt home was Pama Leever of Redwood City, cousin of Mrs. Markwardt. She left last weekend.

Holiday Theme Featured At Janice Menti Birthday Party

For their daughter Janice Lee's 15th birthday anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Max W. Menti, Lakeshore Drive, arranged one of the season's outstanding parties for her and about 50 of her friends, in a festive setting at the Pilots' Club, Dec. 28. Games, including charades, and dancing kept the young crowd occupied and entertained from 7:30 to 11 p.m. Stacks of sandwiches disappeared along with cake and gallons of punch.

Loving cups were awarded to Doug Van Buskirk and Jeannie Vickers as the couple judged to be the best dancers. Judges were the following chaperones: Mrs. F. A. Watts, Janice's grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Long, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Walis, Mr. and Mrs. Don Piper and Mrs. Don Rinehart.

Guest list included Richard Egan, Melvyn Arent, Dermot Eckert, David Detroit, Brian Jacobs, Steve Reeder, Harold Day, John Rose, Lowell Newton, Bob Addington, Jan Cox, Johnny Nolen, Dick Menti, Floyd Hunsaker, David Hengel, Doug Van Buskirk, Tom Ankeny, Bill Montgomery and Robert Swansen.

Charlene Kruger, Virginia Davis, Ginger Vaden, Sharon Rowe, Sharon Spangler, DeAnna Southard, Darlene Burkholz, Pat Wilson, Sandra Adams, Sharon Powell, Nelde Snook, Jeannie Vickers, Helen White, Judy Henkelman, Sandra Langslet, Judy Hull, Sharon Whitlock, Susan Peterson, Dixie Scapple, Lora Leonard, Donna Burgoyne, Janet Meyer, Gwenlee Hansen and Lois Robertson.

in honor of Rex's birthday were gifts and a large decorated cake topped with three candles. Others present were Rex's paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle, pioneer Wood River Valley residents; their son, Weston, his wife, and sons Loren Russell (Rusty) and Wayne, and Rex's older sister, Erma Jean Engle.

Other relatives who were invited but were unable to attend were Rex's great uncle, aunt and cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Copeland and Joyce — Copeland is Mrs. Harry's Engle's brother.

Mrs. E. M. Bubb was a guest of the chapter. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Martin were Mrs. Warren Noggle, Mrs. R. W. Waggoner, and Mrs. Helen Mueller.

DAR Meeting

Eulonia chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met Jan. 4 at the home of Mrs. Charles J. Martin with the regent, Mrs. Charles R. Waters, presiding.

The members were delightedly entertained with pictures of Ireland and France, shown by Mrs. John H. Martin, who took an extensive, personally-planned tour of Ireland while on a European trip last summer and fall. Mrs. Martin gave an interesting discussion of the slides as they were shown.

Mrs. Roland E. Wright was elected delegate to the 63rd Continental Congress of the National Society to be held in Washington, D. C., in April. In addition to the regent, Mrs. Waters, and her alternate the vice regent, Mrs. Guy Barton, delegates to the State Conference of the Oregon Society were selected as follows: Mrs. Bert C. Thomas, Mrs. William D. Foster, Mrs. William L. Wales, Jr., Mrs. Charles J. Martin, Mrs. H. A. Pedersen, Mrs. Alva Gustafson, Mrs. Andrew W. Brink, Alternates chosen were Mrs. L. H. Stone, Mrs. Phillip Brinker, Mrs. Albert O. Roenicke, Mrs. E. M. Chilcote, Mrs. Earl G. Kerns, Mrs. Lewis C. Hornby, and Mrs. R. W. Waggoner.

A State Board meeting will be held in Portland, January 9, at which time plans will be made for the State Conference which will be held in Salem, March 14-18. Eva Burkhalter, committee, reported that Pat Taylor of KUHS had been chosen as the Good Citizen representative of Eulonia Chapter in the state-wide drawing which will be held in Salem next month. Those on the committee making the selection were Aletha Shannon, Roberta Blomquist, and Mrs. Hugh T. Estes.

Another Freedom Forum is being planned this February under the direction of Mrs. Phillip Brinker. The speakers will be announced later.

Mrs. E. M. Bubb was a guest of the chapter. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Martin were Mrs. Warren Noggle, Mrs. R. W. Waggoner, and Mrs. Helen Mueller.

Eastside

By MRS. MERLE O'NEIL John Noble and his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Fowler and Lavella at Ashland were holiday guests over Christmas with the John Richardson family.

Mrs. Richardson accompanied them home Sunday and visited until Thursday with her sisters and other relatives in that area.

She came back with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Noble and son, who were returning to Lakeview after having visited their daughter, Mrs. Jane Ann Fowler, and family over the Christmas holidays in Medford.

T-Sgt. Fred McGuffin arrived home Saturday. He has spent three years in service, and was in Korea a large part of that time.

Sgt. McGuffin's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Woods, drove to Reno to meet him and bring him home.

Mrs. Clara Baxter was hostess to several friends New Years day. Dinner guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Kasparian of Lakeview, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cogburn and Riley McBride of this district, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cogburn and son of Lakeview, Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walt Lightle and Darlene visited at the Merle O'Neils Wednesday evening.

Truman Hartzog planned to leave this week for Ukiah where his wife has been visiting with their daughter and husband. They both spent the holiday season there but Truman had to return on business last week. While they are away, Rockie Allard is doing their chores.

Fred and Leona Cox of Grass Valley were weekend guests of Mrs. Delpha Nelson and Ivy. From here they planned to drive to Texas to attend a livestock show.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Huff of Lakeview visited the Baxters Wednesday of last week.

David Kelts is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cogburn since his mother, Mrs. Don Kelts, left to be with her husband in Portland. Don Kelts had to undergo a major operation on his back, and will be in Portland for quite some time.

Mrs. Kelts accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson of the West Side, who had to make a trip to Portland, relative to Mrs. Johnson's recent illness. She expects to have major surgery performed.

The community sincerely wishes for them an early recovery. The John Richardsons and the

Paisley

By MRS. CLYDE BRAMLEY A class of 35 were enrolled today evening Jan. 5, in first at a meeting held at the hall.

Charles L. (Sam) Brown, industrial accident commission here from Klamath Falls, instructed the class. Much interest being shown. The course will include 22 hours of study.

Three ladies are taking course along with 32 men who includes ten men from Adams Mining Co., nine from the U. S. Service, four of the school is two state highway employees, self-employed men and two pupils.

Warren Miles, who makes home with the Norman Basal has had as in guest the past his daughter and her children, Albany and a son and his from California.

James Knoke, Gerald Haddy, Joan Pochelu have returned their studies at Oregon State following holiday vacation.

Many local ranchers are bringing their cattle in from summer range to winter quarters. Y. O. Morgan and sons have brought some down from Summer Lake past week. Carl Holder is transferring his from the Lora-Laman ranch to the home ranch. Don Laman is helping Holder with work.

Mrs. Mamie Barnes was Klamath Falls Tuesday and Wednesday on business.

... All tied up in a knot of clothesline? Break loose lady! Washday Blues are as out of date as a Model T. The modern Mrs. sends her soap and water worries off to a modern laundry. We do your wash... cleaner, brighter, faster! Phone 5111 for Pickup and Delivery.

SEND YOUR CLEANING WITH YOUR LAUNDRY — QUICK, EASY AND CONVENIENT

CASCADE LAUNDRY & DRY CLEANERS Klamath's Finest Opp. Post Office

save by JANUARY 11TH

earn more "savings income" JUNE 30TH

SINCE JANUARY 10TH falls on Sunday, you have until the 11th to put savings to work profitably and earn a full six months' dividend June 30th. Have what you want sooner... have more income, safely. Save on or before January 11th... start savings earning from January 1st.

CURRENT DIVIDEND 3% PER ANNUM

Have more in '54...SAVE FIRST FEDERAL SAVING & LOAN ASSOCIATION