

Brandsness - Gienger Rites Recited in Sacred Heart Catholic Church

Followed by Wedding Reception at St. Paul's Episcopal Parish Hall

MRS. WILLIAM PETER BRANDSNESS . . . who was Sharon Dee Gienger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Gienger, 915 North Ninth Street, before her marriage last Sunday afternoon. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Einar Brandsness, 845 California Avenue.

Some 200 guests witnessed the impressive ceremony in Sacred Heart Church, Dec. 27, at 3 o'clock. The Rev. T. P. Casey was officiant.

Top center picture shows the radiant bride and her attendants. From the left, Mrs. Paul Switzler, bride's sister, Mexine, bridesmaid; Marlene Howard, bridesmaid; Mrs. Herbert Strunk, (Shirlee), also sister of the bride, matron of honor; Carol Adams and Deneice Kenyon, bridesmaids.

"JUST MOMENTS" . . . before the ceremony . . . the last of them spent with her father, who escorted her down the aisle and gave her in marriage.

"MR. AND MRS." . . . Sharon and Bill Brandsness, reared in the same town . . . graduated from KUHS . . . are presently enrolled at University of Oregon, where they have returned as a married couple, to continue their studies and campus activities . . . Bill in journalism; and Sharon in elementary education. They will be at home, 1264 Pearl Street, Eugene.

All Gienger Wedding Photos by Guderian

Peyton - Enman Rites

SOCIETY

by Milly Ramsby

In Mt. Laki Church

MR. AND MRS. DALE P. PEYTON . . . cut the traditional first piece of wedding cake after their marriage in the Mt. Laki Community Church, Dec. 27. The bride is the former Mary Louise Enman, daughter of Mrs. Sam E. Enman, Henley District; and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Peyton, 2745 Homedale Road.

For her informal wedding, the stunning brunette wore a white two-piece boucle knit suit with white accessories.

Picture lower right, (in front of the church), shows the couple leaving the reception in a heavy shower of rice. They will live at San Marcos, Texas, where Dale is stationed at nearby Gary Air Base.

MARY LOUISE AND HER MOTHER . . . (top center) before the doubling service, read by the Rev. William Ainley at 2 p.m. Above, with her maid of honor, Donna Dixon, (standing); and helping them put the lucky coin in her slippers . . . is bridesmaid, Virgie Toyly, (kneeling).

All Enman Wedding Pictures by Floyd