

Charles 3-1 Bout Choice

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
CHICAGO (AP)—Ezzard Charles fights Bob Satterfield in Chicago Stadium tonight as a 3-1 favorite, and the whole thing is summed up bluntly by Jake Mintz.

Charles, enthusiastic little co-manager, said today: "The last time I seen Satterfield, Rex Layne was standing over his prone body. Don't tell me that bum got off the floor again. . . All we want to know is what's par on Satterfield's chin?"

Satterfield isn't that bad. He's probably one of the hardest punchers in the business today. Like Rocky Marciano, he can knock out a guy with one shot.

However, in return, the Chicago Negro has been an inconsistent winner at best. He has 42 victories, 25 by kayoes, but he has been chilled 9 times himself in 14 defeats.

The experts don't look for tonight's scheduled 10-rounder to go beyond six rounds. There is little betting despite the odds. Satterfield, at 182 pounds—about eight lighter than Charles—is expected to start flailing away at the opening bell and continue the pace with the hope of a connection.

Charles is figured to have too much experience to get hit on the two KAYOES.

Only twice in his pro career, dating from 1940, has the 32-year-old former heavyweight champion been knocked out. The first kayo was by Lloyd Marshall in 1949, when he was fresh out of the army and the other in July 1951 when he lost the heavyweight crown to Jersey Joe Walcott.

Charles, ranked the No. 1 heavyweight contender after his 10th-round TKO over Coley Wallace in San Francisco last month, is in line for a shot at Marciano's title in June.

The fight will be televised nationally (NBC) starting at 10 p.m. EST.

VFW is back in the lead again in the Commercial Bowling League after a 4-0 win over second-place Griggs last night, brief leader for one week.

The Vets rolled the high team scores, a 1011 game and 2823 series. Siskel Rustlers had a 1008 and 2809.

Forrest Brethaupt of the Rustlers put together games of 185, 205 and 193 for a 583 series. Lunday Clinton of Calhoun's rolled the top line, 220; Kermit Sheets of First National had a 214 and second-high series of 543.

The fastest fall went to Plug in 22 seconds.

In 17 exhibition bouts, the Pels won 13, lost three and drew in one.

Winners by fall were Ben Lawrence, Dan Hitchcock, Bryce Rutledge, Dick Lolicoma, Larry Mathews and Vince Reese. Decisions went to Pelicans Dick Berg, Gary Pierce, George Olson, Bill Singer, Jerry Williams, Roy Ropp and Willard Thurman.

The Pelicans are tied with Grants Pass in conference standings, kept for the first time this season, both with 1-0 records. The Pels host the Cavemen Jan. 20. Medford has lost two meets in as many outings.

Nebraska, a Big Seven Conference athletic kinsman before World War II, has failed to get back on top since and criticism from fans and alumni hit a high point after the 1953 football season when the Cornhuskers won only three games and tied one.

Athletic Director George (Potsy) Clark quit Dec. 16.

Glassford came to Nebraska as head football coach in 1949 when Clark moved up from coach to athletic director.

SEATTLE (AP)—Vancover of the Western International Baseball League is sending three players to Tri-City in exchange for Nick Peasut, one of the WIL's top catchers in 1953, the Tri-City general manager said Monday.

Eddie Taylor said right-handed pitcher John Guldborg, shortstop Charles Davis and southpaw hurler Robert Knudson will wear a Tri-City uniform in 1954 as a result of the deal.

Matmen Maul Medford, 47-5

The unbeaten Klamath Pelicans won their fourth wrestling meet of the season yesterday, a 47-5 romp over Medford.

Bob Reeves was the only Medford wrestler to win, pinning Klamath's Ed Keady.

The eleven winners for Klamath Falls were Ken Plug, fall over Ken Dunlavy; Gary Roberts, fall over Lloyd Flannigan; Carl Stewart, fall over Ed Sessler; Ronnie Conner, fall over Dick Hilton; Larry Dearing, decision over Lloyd Bendickson; Bob Baggett, fall over Jerry Clure; Jay Dearing, fall over Dick Davidson; Don Biehn, decision over Joe Walsh; Don Dexter, decision over Bob Brooks; Julio Gonzales, decision over Carl Eklies; and Jack Himelwright, fall over Glen Dyer in the heavyweight division.

Rumors Glassford Out Grow

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Widely quoted rumors that he has been asked to quit as head football coach at the University of Nebraska set the stage for a promised statement from Bill Glassford Wednesday.

Meanwhile, the university student body, "The Nebraskan," in its lead editorial declared: "Glassford must be released."

Both coach and university officials refused comment on whether Glassford, whose contract has two years to run, has been asked to quit.

Nebraska, a Big Seven Conference athletic kinsman before World War II, has failed to get back on top since and criticism from fans and alumni hit a high point after the 1953 football season when the Cornhuskers won only three games and tied one.

GAVILAN, OLSON INK FOR BOUT

CHICAGO (AP)—Kid Gavilan, convinced Chicago is hot for him, has won his first skirmish with Bobo Olson, the man he'll meet for the middleweight championship of the world April 2.

The Cuban Kid, current welterweight champ, persuaded Olson that the good old Yankee dollar can be had for the asking in Chicago Stadium where, it was announced yesterday, the match will be held.

Olson, middleweight titleholder by virtue of his recent victory over England's Randy Turpin, had been holding out for San Francisco, his adopted home town. He also had cast a speculative eye at New York's Madison Square Garden.

But Gavilan has enjoyed immense financial success in Chicago and International Boxing Club sources say he and his manager, Angel Lopez, convinced the Olson camp that holding this "natural" anywhere else would be sheer waste.

Terms call for Olson to receive 35 per cent of the gate, the Kid 25.

Heffner Returns To San Antonio

BALTIMORE (AP)—Don Heffner, former New York Yankee infielder and the last manager of the old Baltimore Orioles in the International League, is managing at San Antonio again.

Heffner was named yesterday by General Manager Art Ehlers to pilot the Texas League farm team of the new American League Orioles.

The 42-year-old manager retired from baseball after steering San Antonio of the league pennant in 1950, then returned to the game in 1952 with the old Orioles.

Roberts Phil Holdout; Ditto Cards' Haddix

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Three major league hurlers who viewed the prospect of opposing hitters with a certain amount of contempt last year are eyeing 1954 contracts in the same fashion.

The Philadelphia Phillies had double-barreled contract problems today with both 23-game winner Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn picking up where they left off as defensive standouts last season.

Both fielded their 1954 contracts on one hop yesterday and whipped them back into the Phillies' front office before owner Bob Carpenter could say "Sign on the dotted line."

"I have no intention of signing that contract," said Roberts. "I'm asking quite a bit more," said Ashburn.

Carpenter said: "I don't anticipate trouble in adjusting the difference."

The St. Louis Cardinals, on the other hand, wouldn't say whether they expected trouble from their 20-game winning left-hander Harvey Haddix, who likewise returned his unsigned contract.

"They offered me a small raise but not enough," said the 28-year-old hurler at his winter home in South Vienna, Ohio.

SMALL INCREASE
And Whitey Ford, who contributed 18 victories to the New York Yankees' pennant drive last year, rejected what he too called a small increase in pay, becoming the first Bronx holdout of 1954.

"I was offered a real small raise," said Ford, "and I'm abolutely giving it back to them." Ford had contract trouble last year too, and was a tardy arrival at the Yanks' training camp March 2.

But the 27-year-old Roberts waxed the most indignant over his club's 1954 offer.

"I am thoroughly disappointed and disgusted," he said. "I'm not going to take a cut in salary even if it's a nickel."

Roberts, who won 23, lost 16 and pitched 347 innings last year, declared that "we're far apart." It is believed he drew around $40,000 last year. He declined to say how much of a cut he was offered.
