Teamsters Union Action Worked Out

SEATTLE (AP)—The Yakima local of the AFL Teamsters' Union has been placed in trusteeship until an "internal dispute" can be investigated, Dave Beck, national head of the union, announced Tuesday. Beck said Fred Wedde, a union official from Walla Walla, has been placed in charge of the 1,836-member Yakima local 524. He will be assisted by Frank Farrington, formerly a Teamsters' Union official in Seattle. "The trusteeship will be temporary until we can ascertain what the difficulties were in the local and straighten them out," Beck said. "We believe we can more quickly work out a solution this way."
