Four-Year-Old Lion Kept As House Pet By Family

ESCHER, Ill. (AP) — A male lion, four years old and weighing 325 pounds, lives in the home of a family here.
The lion, called Tex, was raised as a cub fresh from the African by Bobbyetta Porter, 28, and her brother Bill, 31, shares her affection for the lion and helps her in all her duties.
Mrs. Pearl Porter, who bought Bobbyetta and Bill from a wild animal dealer in Texas, Tex has had him in a cage but Bobbyetta raised in a cage because she feels that any animal that has been caged should be kept there only.
Tex has his own room, a knotty covered Northeast area extended westward to the Rockies and dipped into the South. It was below freezing as far south as southern Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi. New England reported the season's coldest weather. Temperatures ranged from the teens to 25 degrees below zero in northern Maine. Snow in the area during the storm since Sunday ranged from 4 to 15 inches, with southeastern Massachusetts and northern Maine getting the heaviest amounts.

The storm in the Northeast, the worst in five years, was blamed for at least 76 deaths.
It was biting cold in sections of the Midwest again today. Temperatures, however, moderated in northern Minnesota, where it was around 40 degrees below zero Tuesday. It was -22 in Eau Claire, Wis., today and in Duluth, Minn., where yesterday's top reading was 6 below.
But at International Falls, Minn., on the Canadian border, it was a comparative mild 7 below zero today compared to 39 degrees below yesterday.
